CHARLES S. McVAY
Superintendent

We, the class of '24,
Present this book to you;
We trust that as you read it o'er,
 (Which we are sure you'll do),
Memories of bygone days
Will pass in swift review—
Teachers and scholars, friendships made,
And things you used to do,
And as you travel down life's path
You may look back and sigh
And long once more for the dear old days
You spent in Phil'a High.

—Editor

TO MARIAN E. STOCKWELL, whose high ideals have inspired us to nobler purposes and whose unselfish services have made possible the successive annuals,
we dedicate this book.

Class Poem

O, Friendship that has held us
Through four years of honest toil,
In bonds that never yielded,
True, and strong, and loyal,—
Hold us now, when we are parting,
Closer in your golden bands—
And keep unbroken through the ages
That sacred chain of friendly hands.

When duties looked like mountains,
When tasks were hard to bear,
When our way was rough and rocky
And Fate didn't seem to care—
The slender, silver cord of Friendship
Always pulled us through,
And we reached our goal with colors flying—
Honored colors, White and Blue.

Now, our days of unity are ended,
And Sadness reigns supreme,
Even o'er the joy of triumph—
The Achievement of our dream;
But bigger, greater things are calling—
The Future beckons at the door;
So, on you we heap our final tributes,
Dearest Class of '24!

WARD ASHMAN
"ASHCAN"

Glee Club 1; Latin Club 2, 3, 4; Football 4; Social Com. 2, 3; Scientific Club 4.

"None but himself can be his parallel."

We have no adjectives to describe "Ashcan." He is just "himself." Ask the girls if he can blush?

WILMA ARMSTRONG
"WILM"

Glee Club 4; French Club 4; Invitation Com. 4; Girl Reserve 3, 4.

"Sweetness is hers, and unaffected ease."

Graceful, merry and gay is this little Senior maiden. She is thoroughly in love with the 1924 class and adds merit to its numbers.

FREDERICK ALEXANDER

"Speech is silver but silence is golden."

Frederick's absolute silence has led one of his teachers to offer a reward of 25c to anyone making him talk. (Reward given by Mr. Paulus).

LEONA BAHMER
"LEE"

Class Basketball 1, 2; Girl Reserve 3, 4; Class Play.

"The world delights in sunny people."

Almost every day, "Lony" goes out to her locker to have a laugh all by herself. She gets along with all kinds of people, especially the "Dutch."

GEORGE AEBERSOLD
"ABE"

Class Basketball 3, 4.

"Under all his primness and reserve
There's many a spark of fun."

We haven't nicknamed him Georgie—Porgie for he isn't that sort of a boy.

24

BERNICE BAKER

Glee Club 2, 3, 4; French Club 4; Girl Reserve 3, 4.

"A winsome girl with a friendly smile."

Bernice will cheerfully chirp over her household duties. Yes, we know—but do not ask us how—that Fate has those in store for her.

THERESA BANKS

"TESSIE"

"Silence is better than empty chatter."

Theresa is a very serious girl and believes in getting her studies before she goes in for fun.

ERNEST BAIR

"ERNIE"

"Kill me, boys, but don't muss my hair."

"Ernie" does not think much about his lessons but he does think that the Sophomores have the prettiest girls. But then, perhaps, he has a good reason.

HELEN BROCKMAN

Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Girl Reserve 3, 4; Delphian Typist 4; Scientific Club 4.

"'Tis virtue, that doth make women most admired."

Helen likes to give parties, and consequently enjoys herself. That laugh of hers would make us remember her if nothing else would.

ANGELINE BEDDOWS

"ANGIE"

Glee Club 1, 4; Girl's Reserve 3, 4; French Club 4; Class Play.

"With a voice so low and a face so sweet,
A more pleasant one you could not meet."

"Angie" thinks 'tis better to be late than never for after this picture was taken—her locks were shorn.

24

19

24

DORIS BUTLER

"DOC"

Class B. B. 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 3, 4; Girl Reserve 3, 4; French Club 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Play.

"Methinks she likes naught better than a boy."

Doris' main interest in school is her A. B. C. Yet she finds time to take part in the various high school activities.

ARTHUR CUNNINGHAM

"ART"

Football 2, 3, 4; Captain 4; Basketball 3, 4; Class B. B. 1, 2, 3, 4; Captain 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 1, 3, 4; French Club 4; Social Com. 1, 3; Play Com. 4; Hi-Y Club 2, 3, 4; Scientific Club 4; Class Play.

"Of all the girls within the school, I dearly love but one."

"Art" is our football captain and is liked by every-one. And like the fairy story, they will live happily ever after.

HELEN CAPLES

Girl Reserve 3, 4.

"The jolliest, happiest sort of a girl."

Perhaps Helen's faithful escort is responsible for that rapt look which we sometimes discover in her eyes.

ALBERT CRITES

"AL"

Football 3, 4; Class Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Play.

"Has brought honor to the class
Through his success in athletics."

When "Al" smiles, one can't help but smile back. He is an all-around sort of a boy in studies as well as in athletics.

THELMA CLICK

"TEDDY"

Mixed Chorus 1, 2; Glee Club 3, 4; Girl Reserves 4; Latin Club 3; Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4.

"Beauty itself doth of itself persuade
The eyes of men without an orator."

If Thelma were lost in a jungle, we would find her surrounded by a group of wild beasts charmed by the music of her fiddle!

HAROLD BINGHAM

"BING"

Social Com. 1, 2, 4; Treasurer 3; Finance Com. 4; Class Play.

"As good a friend as any man could find."

"Bing" as he has been nicknamed is one of our live wires. He is a first class booster and supports all class activities.

EVA ANNA CARLISLE

"E. T."

"What sweet delights a quiet life affords."

After tiny Eva has completed her schooling, some big shaggy man is going to stick her in his overcoat pocket and run away with her.

ANNA G. DICK

"ANNIE"

Class B. B. 1, 2, 3, 4; Captain 1; Varsity 4; Mixed Chorus 2, 3; Glee Club 4; Girl Reserves 3, 4; French Club 4; Scientific Club 4; Social Com. 2; Class Play.

"Her very frowns are fairer far Than Smiles of other Maidens are."

When one has a double appellation, it is bound to be shortened; so Annie—Bob thinks her looks can't be beat.

DOROTHY EARLE

"DOT"

Mixed Chorus 2; Latin Club 3.

"I have no other but a woman's reason;
I think him so because I think him so."

But there is probably another reason and we are sure it is quite satisfactory. Dorothy's willingness has won her many friends.

LAWRENCE EVANS

"RED"

"They say red hair is a sign of pluck."

This burdened look which the face of "Red" wears is probably due to the load of responsibility he has incident to taking a five years' course in N. P. H. S.

19

PAULINE ESPENSCHIED
"PETE"

Radio Club 3; Scientific Club 4; French Club 4; Girl Reserve 3; 4.

"A laugh is worth a hundred groans in any market."

"Pete" is small but full of activity and sociability. 'Tis rumored that he lives in Dover.

FLORENCE FOUST
"FLOSSIE"

Girl's Glee Club 1; Mixed Chorus 1; Girl Reserve 3; 4; Editor of Delphian 4; Secretary of Class 2.

"The only complaint that any tell
Is that she does her work too well."

Florence is one of those intellectual stars of the class but even at that she is always ready to laugh at things that strike her funny.

RANDALL J. FRANCE
"RANDY"

Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Social Com. 1, 2; Mixed Chorus 1, 2; Boy's Glee 1, 2, 3; H. S. Quartette 3, 4; Orchestra 3.

"I am a great friend to public amusement."

"Randy" can make his saxophone talk almost as fast as he himself. He is an addition to our class.

RUTH GALLAGHER

Girl's Glee Club 1; Mixed Chorus 2; Latin Club 2, 3, 4; Girl Reserve 3, 4; Radio Club 3; French Club 4; Glee Club 4; Scientific Club 4; Harmony and History Club 3.

"A willing helper does not wait until she is asked."

Her name is Ruth, but she's quite Ruthless in her frank air and freedom from prudishness. In the past four years she has been a faithful worker, a good friend, and a loyal student.

MILDRED GRIBBLE
"MIM"

Class B. B. 1, 2; Latin Club 2, 4; French Club 4; Girl Reserve 3, 4; Social Com. 3; Class Historian 4; Class Play.

"'Tis no fault to love."

"Mim" is one who is able to do more than one thing at a time; for she maintains a high standing in her high school work and also finds time for a love affair.

24

ANNA GRAFF

Mixed Chorus 1; Class Treasurer 2; Girl Reserve 3, 4; Office Stenographer 4; Delphian Typist, 4; Commencement Speaker.

"A lasting record stands Inscribed beneath her name."

Anna is one of our most excellent girls. She is a worthy student who receives high grades.

RITA HURST

Glee Club 1, 2; Mixed Chorus 3; Girl Reserve 3, 4; Radio Club 3; Scientific Club 1; French Club 4.

"And I chatter, chatter as I go."

Rita flits lightly over troubles. Evidently lessons do not bother her for she always seems prepared.

HARRIET HAWK

"HATTIE"

"I give my thoughts no tongue."

Harriet came several miles to enter the ranks of N. P. H. S., and we are glad to have her with us. She does not talk much but then—she gets more accomplished.

VIRGINIA HOFFMAN

"JIN"

Social Com. 1, 4; (Chairman 1); Latin Club 2; Orchestra 2, 3; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Class B. B. 1, 3, 4; Varsity 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Mgr. 4; Carnival Com. 2; Finance Com. 4; Girl Reserve 3, 4; Mixed Chorus 1, 2, 3; Cheer Leader 2; Class Play.

"A ready tongue, a ready wit,
Who has not felt the touch of it."

"Jin" is the "backbone" of our girl's varsity. Whether the "Ford" industry will prosper or not, we leave to her.

EVA HOMRIGHOUSE

"I speak when it is necessary."

"Seen but not heard" applies to this young lady. She is a very quiet but serious girl and does not believe in wasting her time foolishly.

CHLORIS HENTHORNE

French Club 4; Glee Club 3; Staff of Red and Black (Bellaire High School) 3.

*"Shining curls like chestnut brown,
Long-lashed eyes demure and staid."*

Chloris joined us in our Senior year and has proved herself a great friend to all.

MAXINE ELLIOT HUFF

Glee Club 1; Class B. B. 1; Vice-Pres. 2, Mixed Chorus 2; Radio Club 3; Girl Reserves 3, 4; Art Editor Delphian 4.

*"Small and sweet with light brown hair,
And frowns upon her face are rare."*

"Max" is one of those happy, care-free girls who is a friend to everyone, and whom everybody likes. A pleasant disposition seasoned with a little touch of temper assures her success in life.

ROBERT HAVERMAN

"BOB"

Social Com. 1, 2, 3; Class B. B. 1, 2, 3; Hi-Y Club 2, 3, 4; Sec. Hi-Y 2, 3; Pres. Hi-Y 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Radio Club 3; Class Play.

*"Of friends he has many,
Of foes—has he any?"*

When there are any social affairs at school or elsewhere, "Bob" is always present. He may be a handsome orator some day and that will help him persuade some one that a bachelor's life is lonely.

ADA HANSON

Latin Club 2, 3, 4; French Club 4; Mixed Chorus 1; President of Latin Club 4; Literary Editor of Delphian 4.

*"A maiden never bold,
Of spirit still and quiet."*

Ada is a rather quiet girl, but her earnest efforts to acquire knowledge and her readiness to serve have won her the esteem of both teachers and students.

HELEN CATHERINE JOHNS

Social Com. 2, 3; Class B. B. 1, 2, 3, 4; Girl Reserves 3, 4; Scientific Club 4; Radio Club 3; Latin Club 1, 2, 3, 4; French Club 4; Mixed Chorus 1; Varsity B. B. 4; Class Play.

"Cares not a pin what they say or may say."

Helen is fond of excitement and a good time. She usually manages to find the former and have the latter. But nevertheless she has a fine school spirit.

24

ETHEL LAWRENCE

"SHORTY"

"An open-hearted maiden, true and pure."

"Shorty" has only been with us one year and she is homesick already. But, perhaps, one can not blame her because—"her love is far away."

JAMES L. LINDSAY

"JIM"

"Undisturbed, he pursued the quiet tenor of his way."

No one is ever wearied by "Jim's" voice for it is not heard enough except in recitation for one to tell whether it is bass or contralto.

EDITH LITTLE

"LITTLE EDITH"

Girl's Glee Club 1; Latin Club 2, 3, 4; Girl Reserves 3, 4; Radio Club 3; French Club 4.

"Never idle a moment
But thrifty and thoughtful of others."

Because of her willingness to help anyone, Edith has won a place in the hearts of many at N. P. H. S. and one at Guernsey.

SAMUEL LAPHAM

"SAM"

Latin Club 2, 3; Radio Club 3; Scientific Club 4; Lab. Asst. 4; Hi-Y 4; French Club 4; Radio Operator 4; Mgr. Class Play.

"He is full of good intentions."

You can count on "Sam" from start to finish. He likes to work in the laboratory and has a natural desire to find out "what makes it go."

ALTA LEMASTERS

Mixed Chorus 1, 2; Glee Club 3, 4; Girl Reserves 3, 4; Class B. B. 2; Latin Club 2, 3, 4; French Club 3, 4; Scientific Club 3, 4.

"Here's to the girl with a heart and a smile
That makes the bubble of life worth while."

Alta's brightness has put her a year ahead of us, but she willingly waited for the rest to catch up with her so that we might all graduate together.

19

19

24

CECIL LOOMIS

"TEET"

Athletic Editor 4; Football 2, 3, 4; Class B. B. 1, 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y Club 2, 3, 4; Social Com. 1, 2; Band 3; Glee Club 1, 4; Scientific Club 4; Class Play.

"My wit is my salvation."

Here comes "Teet." He thinks studies are most inconvenient for boys. Virgil especially should be left for the women.

RUTH MAURER

"BOOTS"

Girl Reserves 3, 4; Radio Club 3; Scientific Club 4; Latin Club 1, 2, 3, 4; French Club 4; Class President 2; Social Com. 1, 3, 4; Girl's Glee 1; Mixed Chorus 2; Class Play.

"She has a smile for everyone she meets—and she meets many."

Ruth's services to the school have been invaluable, and her charming personality has won her many friends. To sum it all up, what would we have done without her?

DAVID MAURER

"DAVE"

Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Band 3, 4; Latin Club 1, 2, 3; French Club 4; Finance Com. 4; Ass't Manager Delphian 3; Mgr. 4; H. S. Orator 4; Class Historian 1; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Scientific Club 4; Class Editor Delphiette 2; Commencement Speaker.

"And the rocks shall raise their head
Of his deeds to tell."

What! You don't know "Dave?" Why everybody knows him! See that sheep-skin coat and the grey-striped trousers? Yes, that fellow making all the noise—he's the manager of the Delphian.

ALICE MAURER

"Keen sense and common sense
And no room for nonsense."

Although quiet and reserved, Alice has made many friends in her two years with us. She is a worthy and reliable student.

DONALD MANSON

"TINY"

Orchestra 2, 3; Radio Club 3; Joke Editor 3; Social Com. 4; Football 4; Scientific Club 4.

"I exist as I am,
'Tis enough for any man."

If past efficiency in athletics as well as in school work is a good test, "Fat" will succeed in all he undertakes. Have you ever heard it said that girls like athletic fellows? Well, they do.

PHILIP MILLER

"PHIL"

"Of their own merits, honest men are dumb."

Philip just entered the class this year, but he takes an active interest in its work. He is also interested in Dover, Ohio. Time will tell us why.

MARGARET MILLER

"MARGE"

"Her cheeks do counterfeit the roses."

Margaret's "pay strict attention, please," usually brings down the house but her audience always hears something worth while.

CHARLES MILLER

"NICK"

"Heaven rest his soul where'er he be!"

Charlie's cheerfulness is his best trait. As it is the season that unattached men are "snatched up," we ask him for his own good to watch his step.

WILMA KAPPELER

"BILL"

Girl's Glee Club 1; Girl Reserves 3, 4; Scientific Club 4; Costume Mgr. Class Play.

"A temper as ready as her tongue."

When one wants "Bill" to do a task, it is accomplished before one asks. This is a poetic way of saying "Let Bill do it."

EDWARD KAPPLER

"CAPILLARY"

French Club 4.

"He is not only a scholar, but a gentleman,
And a good fellow as well."

"Capillary" does not have much to say, only in class and then he knows just what to say.

19

McCliff

19

24

ARLEEN MEISER

"SIS"

Mixed Chorus 1, 3; Glee Club 1; Girl Reserves 3, 4.

"It is not what she has nor even what she does,
Which directly expresses her worth, but what she is."

Just by looking at Arleen one can tell that she is a good-natured girl willing to do her part in school affairs.

DOROTHY MIZER

"DOT"

Latin Club 2, 3, 4; French Club 4.

"You know and say just what I think."

Dorothy has a way of talking and of giggling that are all her own. No one can help liking her.

ALBERT PARR

"AB"

Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Latin Club 2, 3; Hi-Y
3, 4; French Club 4; Social Com. 3, 4; Class
Sec. and Treas. 4; Radio Club 3; Ass't Radio Operator 4; Scientific Club 4; Class Play.

"Greater men than I have lived
But they are all dead."

When "Ab" is asked to do something, 'tis no sooner said than done. The boys like him and the girls —well, they can't be so frank.

RUTH NICKELS

"NICK"

Carnival Com. 2; Class B. B. 2, 3, 4; Varsity 3, 4; Capt. 4; Latin Club 2; Radio Club
3; French Club 4; Vice-Pres. Class 3, 4;
Chairman Finance Com. 4; Girl Reserves
3, 4; Class Play.

"Built like a mosquito, long and thin."

If "Nick" set out to do nothing, she would do that well. Her worth is shown in the class room and on the basket ball floor. Voila un homme av cas aussi.

GRACE PACKER

"PETE"

Girl Reserves 3, 4; Office Stenographer
4.

"She is prim, she is neat;
She is pleasant and sweet."

Grace is indispensable as the school stenographer, and she adores "slim" people especially those from Tippecanoe.

RAYMOND RANDALL

"RANDY"

Radio Club 3; Hi-Y Club 4.

"Himself alone, and none others he resembles."

If you meet a fellow with a monstrous pair of glasses and a most genial smile on his face, look out, it is "Randy."

MARGARET REES

"PEGGY"

Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Class B. B. 3; French Club 4; Scientific Club 4; Delphian Typist 4.

"Quiet and unassuming but always on the job."

Margaret takes the high road in her studies and school life. Success awaits her in this world for she controls the obstacles set in her path.

ROBERT RICE

"BOB"

French Club 4.

"Like a quiet lake, unruffled by the wind."

If you see a little Ford chug chugging along the road to and from Oldtown, it is Robert's. He is one of our best students.

ANNA STRAHL

"ANN"

Glee Club and Science Club 1, in Malta and McConnellsville High School.

"Life is short and so am I."

A good stenographer can be made of "Annie" if she is not "Harris"ed too much.

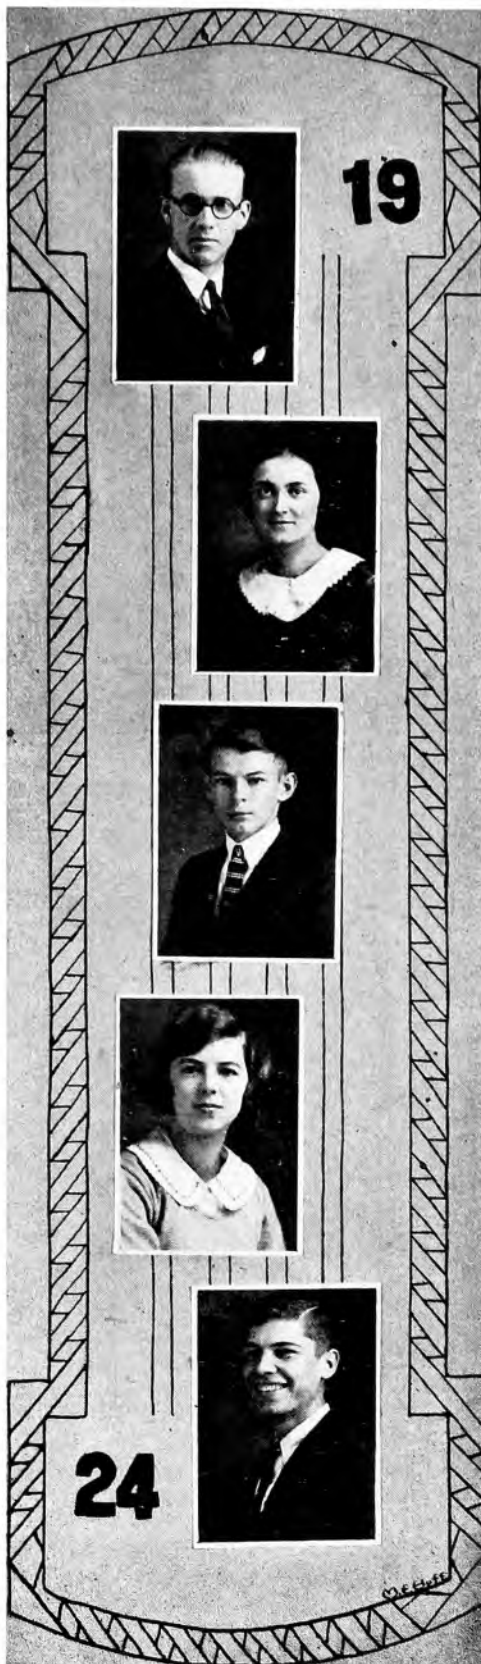

PAUL SNYDER

"SNYDER"

Radio Club 3; Scientific Club 4; Lab. Ass't 4.

"It is the wise head that makes the still tongue."

Here is an Edison II, the scientific wizard. Although Paul is of a quiet nature, yet he is a fellow of energy and enthusiasm.

AGNES SNYDER
"IGNUTZE"

Mixed Chorus 1, 2; Radio Club 3.

"Merry ways and luminous eyes,
A very good vampire in disguise."

"Aggie" is a plump little person who specializes in giggles and dimples.

JOSEPHINE SNYDER
"Jo"

Latin Club 2; French Club 4; Girl Reserves 3, 4.

"I live that I may be in style,
Else why is life worth while."

One of the fairest is "Jo." She talks of being an interior decorator. We know that she will decorate one home at least.

HELEN SCHUEPBACH

French Club 4.

"Her name is common but her virtue rare."

Helen is another one of these demure maids—that is, till you know her.

EDITH STRAHL
"EDIE"

Glee Club 1; Science Club 1, in Malta and McConnellsville H. S.

"Ye gods, I can hear that giggle yet."

Edith's greatest hobby is to drive the family's Ford touring car, and she especially delights in running into "Banks."

MARIAN STRINE
"FRIDDLE"

Glee Club 3, 4; Girl Reserves 3, 4; French Club 4; Mixed Chorus 1, 2.

"I am all the daughters of my father's house,
And all the brothers too."

We would be stricken with "adjectivitis" if we attempted to describe Marian's good points.

24

MEANS

FLORA SMITH

"To be efficient in a quiet way,
That is my aim throughout each day."

Flora is one of the quiet kind, meeting all her tasks with a resolution and cheerfulness which we all admire.

MILDRED SCHEFFLER

"MOODY"

Hot Dog Com. 4.

"She fluffs her hair and powders her nose,
She's sweet from her head to the tip of her toes."

"Mim" sings praises of our school while (it may be just a bit of gossip) a lad out of town plucks her heart strings.

HAZEL TORGLER

"DUTCH"

Glee Club 1, 2, 4; B. B. Class 1, 2, 3, 4; B. B. Varsity 4; Girl Reserves 3; French Club 4; Scientific Club 4; Mixed Chorus 1, 2; Cheer Leader 4.

"O! I am stabbed with laughter."

In this maid we find a wee bit of wildness and a great desire to gossip. "Dutch" also has a habit of mislaying things. Too true?

GERTRUDE WALKER

"GERTIE"

French Club 4.

"She speaks, behaves and acts just like she ought to."

One of the good things that has come from Roswell is "Gertie." She is always worried about her lessons but from the grades on her report card she would not need to.

OPAL WEST

"RED"

Latin Club 4; Mixed Chorus 2.

"If e'er she knew an evil thought, she spoke no evil word."

Opal's neatness of person and conciseness of studying are the characteristics by which we all know her. She is interested in science, especially chemistry.

19

19

24

DONALD WHERLEY "DON"

Band 3, 4; Orchestra 4; Saxophone Quartette 4.

"Every inch a gentleman."

The noise "Don" makes blowing his trombone makes up for his quietness at other times.

CATHERINE WOLFE "KATIE"

Mixed Chorus 1, 2; Glee Club 1, 2, 3; French Club 4.

"She has a heart that is gay
And a smile for each day."

She is a very mild looking person with her curly hair and brown eyes. The better Catherine is known, the better she is liked.

ALFRED WINTERS "FAT"

Class Historian 2; Class President 3, 4; French Club 4; Glee Club 4; Hi-Y Club 2, 3, 4; Football 4; Scientific Club 3, 4; Latin Club 2, 3, 4; Class Play.

"A voice from out of the future cries, on! on!"

As class president, "Winters" has certainly been successful. Through his many efforts our class has been able to accomplish things.

HELEN WILLS "WILLIE"

Mixed Chorus 1, 2; Class B. B. 1, 2; Latin Club 2, 3, 4; French Club 4; Girl Reserves 3, 4; Social Com. 1, 2.

"She has a kindly spirit
And a friendly air."

Helen is going into business in the future. She is going to be a pharmacist—that is, a farm-assist. We wish her success.

THEODORE WALTER "TED"

"His eyes twinkled in his head aright
As do the stars in a frosty night."

"Teddy" always looks as if he was up to some mischief, but he is really a nice little boy and most always has his lessons.

MADGE RAIFF

Girl's Glee Club 1; Mixed Chorus 1; Girl Reserves 3, 4.

"When you do dance I wish, fair maid,
That you might ever do nothing but that."

Whether Madge's fondness for Dover is entirely due to its dances or not—but don't be too inquisitive.

HELEN JOHNS

"JOHNNY"

Mixed Chorus 3; Girl Reserves 3, 4; Glee Club 1, 2; Latin Club 1, 2.

"You don't catch me brooding over trouble,
When there are a thousand pleasant things to think of."

Talking is one of "Johnny's" chief delights. Because she has a namesake in the same class, we need to call her "the dark one."

TREVA WALKER

"TEDDIE"

Glee Club 2, 3, 4; French Club 4; Class Play.

"We cannot fight for love, as men may do,
We should be woo'd."

Here is another one of our musical girls. She pleases the eyes, delights the ear and is that not enough to say of her?

HELEN YABERG

"YABERG"

"Let's be gay while we may."

No one will ever accuse Helen of being a pessimist. In spite of her carefree attitude, she likes to question the "y" of things.

ISABELLE DEVORE

"IZZY"

"Modest, cheerful, full of glee,
We wish more girls like her could be."

If the country air and fresh vegetables make one as beautiful a writer as "Izzy," we advise some people to "take the course."

Senior Class History

THE class of "24." Yes, we the class of "1924" now pass from the portals of "Dear Old Phila Hi."

We have taken off our helmets, we have laid aside our swords, we have sung the last battle song and we have piled our trophies on the shelves of "Phila Hi." And real trophies they are, too!—for our class has gallantly done her share to win laurels for "Phila Hi." (Dover-Phila game).

We began our journey towards the top September 7, 1920, with one hundred thirty strong. After the Sophomores' scalping party and the usual Freshman blunders, we opened our eyes a little wider and decided to make "New Phila Hi" know that we, the class of "24," were there.

In our Junior year we found that quite a number of our class, wavering, had stumbled on the mighty upward path, and giving up, had rolled back down. The rest, however, kept climbing on and we at last have attained our aim.

The class of "24" has helped to keep the school's trophy case from becoming bare. Some of the athletes of our class will have their footprints on the sands of time. We have letter men in all athletics and letter women in basket ball. Our boys seem to have mastered foot ball better than basket ball as five men received letters this year for foot ball and only one for basket ball. Five of our girls received letters this year.

We have also enjoyed many social events. In our Freshman year the Juniors gave us a reception. We then decided to have some more gaiety by having a party of our own. In our Sophomore year we entertained our sister class. During our Junior year the annual Junior-Senior banquet was given. We are now looking forward to the coming Junior-Senior banquet. And best of all will be our own class banquet which will be the last social event of our high school days.

And now the class of "24" hope that during our four years' stay at "Phila Hi" we have furthered the success of our school. Tearfully we bid you all a sweet farewell.

Junior Class History

IN 1921 we of "25" started on a four years' trip around the world of Education. On our first trip we felt very small and insignificant, but the Junior voyagers made us feel better by giving us a lovely reception.

After a vacation of three months, we started on our second trip. Some of our number fell overboard but the most of us were safe and sound. On this voyage we enjoyed a reception with the Seniors. After a hard year we once more took a vacation.

Now in 1923 we started on our third voyage. At the first of this voyage, we lost Miss Helmick as our leader but gained Mr. Reed, who has furnished us with many "peppy" plans and "flaming" ideas.

This trip we entertained the Freshmen with a reception. Then we united with the Seniors and gave a reception for the parents. The object of this was to have the parents and teachers become better acquainted with one another.

In January we began to hustle and have an air of mystery about us. Soon every one found out that we had talent aboard our ship, for our play, "Just Plain Mary," was pronounced a great success.

This year we also succeeded in bringing to the High School and the public the Wooster Glee Club. The Club gave an excellent concert, which was enjoyed by all who heard it.

Our class has also some fine athletes of whom we are very proud. We have in Cale, Smith, Pfaeffli, Morgan, Mathias, and Zurcher "stars" who have helped Phila High to many victories.

Next year we hope to launch out on our fourth voyage as dignified Seniors. We hope to make Phila High so proud of "25" that they will long remember us.

Sophomore Class History

OUR little raft pushed off from the kindly shores of eighth grade in '22 and in the confusion of getting started and on account of the very great number of passengers, a few fell off the edges and were lost from sight. Despite that fact we started off splendidly, and are still going that way. But how else could we expect to be going with such a fine pilot as Mr. Findley to guide us over stormy bits of weather and give us a word of encouragement when needed?

When we were "Freshies," as I suppose we once were, even if we do hate to admit it, the Juniors gave us a big boost by inviting us to a lovely reception. That started us and we had courage enough to give a party and picnic of our own.

This year we are Sophomores and mighty proud of that fact. We have been loyal to everybody and supported everything that came along, all the way from buying "hot dogs" from the Seniors—to buying tickets to the Junior play.

On November 22, our big social event of the year occurred in the form of a reception for the Seniors. It was a huge success and everybody had a wonderful time, for we had a lovely program and play entitled "The Courtship of Miles Standish," refreshments and then we danced to music furnished by Taylor's Orchestra.

We are looking forward with much pleasure to more social functions of our Sophomore Class for even if we are a big class, we can have parties and enjoy our High School life along with the hard knocks and disappointments of semester exams and finals.

Our class of "26" is going to be an honor to our High School and one of the best ways to win honor and glory for our school is to follow our motto to "Be Square." We're doing our very best in everything and we're willing to try this:

"We can't all be captains, we've got to be crew,
There's something for all of us here.
There's big work to do and there's lesser to do,
And the task we must do is the near.
So—be the best of whatever you are."

Freshman Class History

IN writing of a school class, one's tendency is to probe into the future rather than the present or past; however, as this is school history to be handed down for future classes to look up to, and strive to equal, we must conform to custom.

We, the class of 1927, have reached the goal for which we have struggled so long, that of entering the well known New Philadelphia High School. We felt sorry that all who started with us did not enter at the same time but for various reasons they decided differently.

However, as it is, we are by far the largest class that ever entered the high school, numbering in all 208.

We felt very grand on that first day of school, and, although the upper classmen treated us well, (we are somewhat inclined to think that our superior number had something to do with this) we soon found out we were not nearly as important as we first thought. Notwithstanding the fact that we nearly crowded the eighth grade out, we soon found room and settled down to work.

The first notable thing we did was to win the banner for selling the most season tickets to the football games.

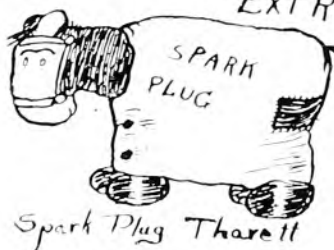

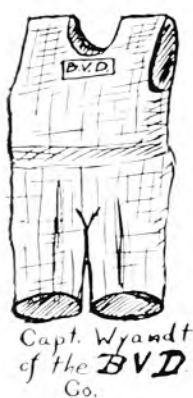

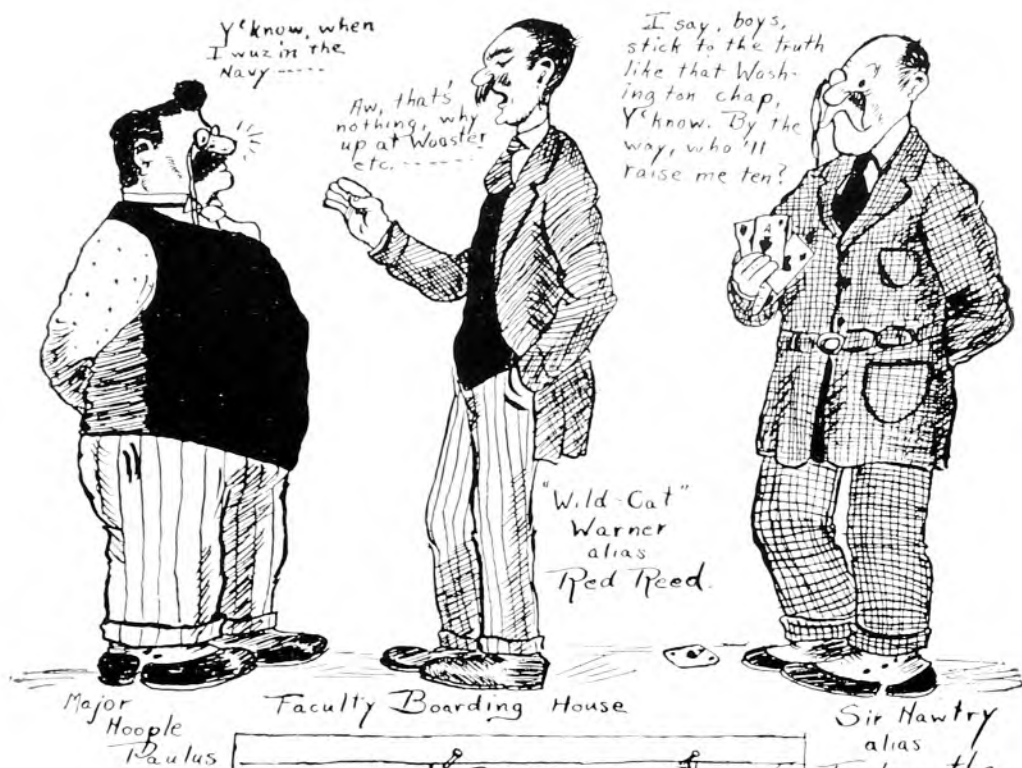

Before many weeks rolled by our sister class, the Juniors, gave us a reception where we became better acquainted and realized our greatest expectations of importance. In other words we found ourselves on the map of the New Philadelphia High School.

February 22 was historical both in national and class history, as it commemorated our party as well as George Washington's birthday. It was a delightful affair, doing much to further the class spirit.

Both boys and girls did their part towards making the class a success in athletics, and judging from the amount of talent displayed, we hold great prospects for the future.

It is not the thought or wish of the writer to throw too many bouquets, but some day she predicts that there will be many more good things heard from this class.

—Virginia Cooke, '27

ATHLETICS

Athletics

ATHLETICS which in New Philadelphia High School include inter-school and inter-scholastic are recognized as a definite part of the educational plan. It seems to be generally accepted that the function of the High School is to train for citizenship and not solely to advance intellectualism. With this understanding of the purpose of education it is evident that athletics, the purpose of which is physical and moral training, have a place in the educational system.

In New Philadelphia High School, athletics, consisting of football, basketball, baseball and track, are on a plane with the former all star combination that has represented New Phil'a in the past, and compare in strength with any other high school team in the state.

Our girls' teams, too, have made other teams in the state feel that they must be considered whenever there is a championship at stake.

One of the features of the athletic season this year was the number that participated in the different sports. As many as sixty boys have been out on the football field at one time and practically every girl and boy has played basketball. With this spirit and enthusiasm, our teams are bound to be successful in the future.

Baseball and track have drawn quite a large number of candidates, and both will undoubtedly have successful seasons. Track is especially good training for those who have had no previous athletic experience.

Our greatest need in the High School Athletics is a place to play our basketball games so that our school, our town friends, and alumni can see them. Let us hope that when the building issue comes up that it will pass, and give us the thing we need the most.

Let us always conduct our Athletics here in New Philadelphia High School as we have in the past, that we play the game fairly, according to the rules, and that we be magnanimous in victory and uncomplaining in defeat.

Fifty-seven

HERBERT STIFFLER
COACH

This was "Curly's" first year at New Phil'a, but he surely has measured up. He was the kind of coach that any fellow would almost kill himself to please. If the credit for the success of the season were to fall on any one man, it would fall on Coach Stiffler. He always had a little something new up his sleeve to work on the other team. He never said much before a game, but he knew how to say it. We want more "Curly-Coached" teams in N. P. H. S.

JOHN REED
COACH

If we could out wind the other team, we were able to do this on account of "Red's" cross country training. As a backfield coach, he was as good as the next one. "Red" worked hard with the fellows and if things didn't seem to go right, he would put on a suit and get in the game. "Red" did the scouting for the team and he always brought back everything—even the weights of the men. We hope that he is here next year to help us thru a real season.

W. G. FINDLEY
MANAGER

Mr. Findley had practically everything thrown on him this year but he took care of everything in great shape. No one but him could have scheduled a game with Sharon, Pa. When he had to arrange for the care of the team on a trip he was the best ever. He was always trying to do something for the team. He was a wizard with money and carried off all honors for creating money making athletics.

CAPT. A. B. CUNNINGHAM, '24
Center

N. P. H. S. loses in "Art" a man whose place will be difficult, if not impossible, to fill. His ability as captain is of such superior quality that it is unnecessary to mention his playing. He is aggressive and always, until the last whistle blows, displays the fight and pep. "Art" had acquired the science of blocking punts as was shown in the Dover game. We all look forward to the time when we see "Art" another captain and leader.

CAPT. ELECT C. MATHIAS, '25
Quarterback

Clyde is the little fellow who always has pep and who never says die. Sharon has not forgotten the results of Clyde's spirit. As a quarterback, he cannot be beaten, for, in addition to calling signals, he can run the broken field with the best. This makes him a very valuable man for Phila. In electing Clyde captain one of the highest honors obtainable has been awarded him and he is every bit the man to deserve that honor. Good luck in the coming season, Clyde.

CECIL LOOMIS, '24
Guard

Cecil, better known as "Teet," is a tower of strength to any football line. His size, weight and ability made him feared by his opponents. He is dependable, accurate and a sure bet. Altho a guard, he helped himself liberally to many a tackle. The Dover game will recall his real ability for smashing up the opposing team. "Teet" is a Senior. We know his place will be hard to fill. N. P. H. S. will mourn the loss of "Teet," the War Horse, from the Varsity.

ALBERT CRITES, '24
Fullback

In "Al" Phila loses the best fullback they ever had. In spite of the fact that he was the lightest man on the team, when he hit the line the impact sounded like a gun. If there was so much as a crack on the line, "Al" saw and took advantage of it. If 3 or 4 yards were needed, "Let Al do it" was the answer. As a defensive half "Al" stopped more end plays than all the rest. The big job next year will be to get a man to fill his place.

WILLIAM CALE, '25
Halfback

"Chip" had some hard luck with his leg this season but that did not stop him from running for a touchdown in the Dover game. The same qualities which put "Chip" on the all-county team make him invaluable to N. U. H. S. He is the best triple threat man that ever played for Philly and he has no equal in returning punts. With next season his fourth as a regular, "Chip" should show some high class running. Let's step on them next year, "Chip."

PAUL FISHEL, '25

Even though this was Paul's first year he surely made up for lost time for he played a brand of football that can not be beaten. He had the kind of stuff that really makes football men, for when the biggest of players would hit him he would get up and laugh at them. Paul will be remembered for his high class running in the Steubenville game. Philly will miss Paul next year and it will be hard to fill his shoes.

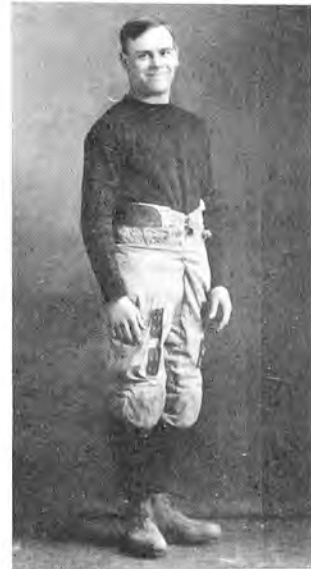

BERYL O'CONNOR, '25
Halfback

When Beryl played football, he brought many cheers of approval from the side lines. He could carry the ball with the cleverest of them and he was among the best defensive men on the squad. Although he was one of the smallest players on the team, what he lacked in size he made up for in grit, nerve and aggressiveness. Beryl has another year and he will be one of the men around whom a championship team will be built. Here's success, Beryl.

WILLIAM ZURCHER, '25
End

It was a rare occasion when a play was pulled around "Tarzan," for he was the fastest man on the team and when he felt good he even gave them a lead. At Sharon, "Tarzan" said his knee wasn't out of place; he was bow-legged. If "Tarzan" keeps going the way he has, we extend sympathy to his opponents for when he hits a person he either knows it or he doesn't know it. Tear them up next year, "Tarzan."

FRANK PFAEFFLI, '25
Guard

"Piff" is a Strasburg man and that town can surely be proud of him. He played guard, tackle, or end with the same results—that the other team always suffered. They never came too good for him and usually they were far inferior to him. "Piff" had but one weak point and that was that he couldn't keep his socks up. He was usually too busy. "Piff" will be a big man on the line next year, and fans should look forward to seeing him deliver the goods in the coming football season.

GLENN SMITH, '25
End

"Smitty" is the lanky boy who would stretch out and stop an end run in its infancy. As to receiving passes, he must have carried a rabbit's foot for the receiving he would do at times was super-natural. When it came to running down under punts, "Smitty" was all there and usually waiting for the ball. He delivered the goods along that line at Wooster. With Smith back next year the success of one end is determined.

WARD ASHMAN, '24
Tackle

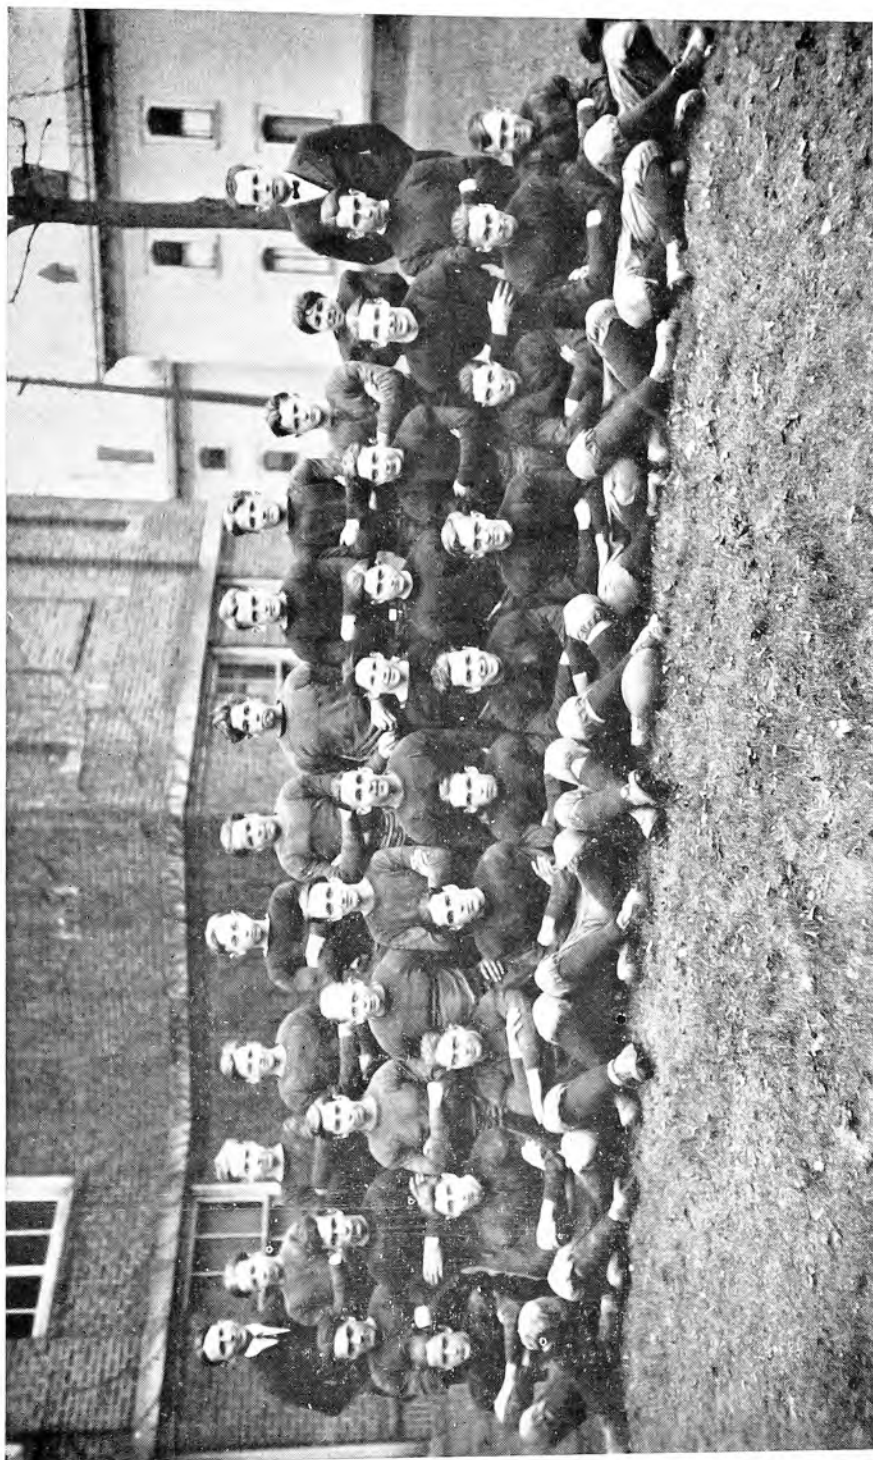

"Ash" is one of the "huskies" of the team. He liked to run a lot in one place, but when he is started, there is no stopping him. "Ash" belongs to the exclusive few who come out their senior year. We are glad he did not wait any longer because he was a lineman of A-No. 1 type. As this is his last year, we will probably hear from him at Ohio State soon.

DONALD MANSON, '24
Guard

Introducing the man. "Fat" is very seldom heard but always seen. We had a modern Hercules at handling men, in the shape of "Fat." He was the most conscientious player on the team. He would not even walk to the field for fear of disappointing Hazel. This was his first year on the team and he has certainly made an enviable record.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 6.

Kent—0 N. P. H. S.—13

The jynx has been broken. Crites shows them how to make 2 touchdowns by hitting the line. Things working great.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 13.

Xville—0 N. P. H. S.—0

The score doesn't indicate the one-sidedness. Phil's 9 1st downs, Xville 4. Slates still clean.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20.

Sebring—6 N. P. H. S.—13

Close call but the boys rallied. Mathias and Cale show local folks how to make touchdowns. All's well so far.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 27.

Sharon, Pa.—7 N. P. H. S.—14

'Rah for Mathias. The boy is there. Makes 2 touchdowns in 3 minutes. They sure are good sports at Sharon.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3.

Steubenville—14 N. P. H. S.—13

Out scored but not out played. Mathias and O'Connor do scoring. Fishel is big man at ground gaining. Daugherty knows how to carry the ball.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 10.

E. Liverpool—7 N. P. H. S.—33

E. Liverpool was good but not good enough. The boys have a frolic. O'Connor, Crites, Reger, Cale, Zurcher make points. O'Connor going strong today.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 17.

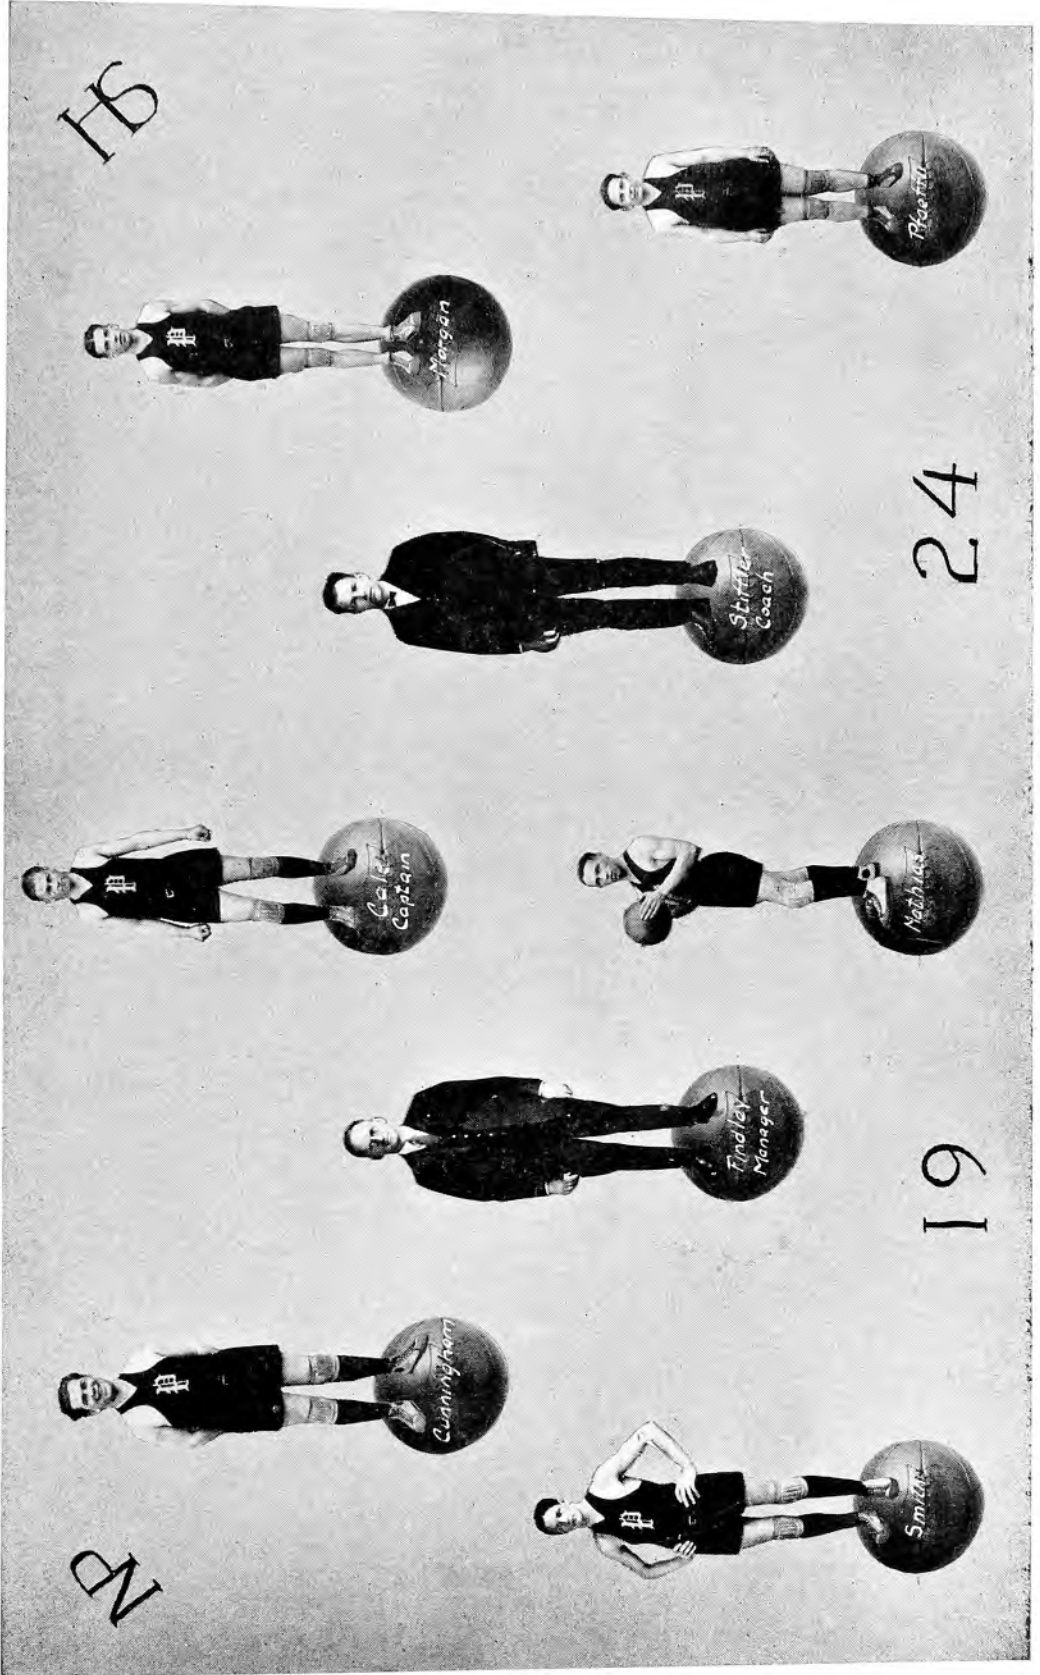

Wooster—20 N. P. H. S.—7

Going bad today. Capt. hurt his arm. Line a little weak. Ends play fine game. "Zuch" shows them how to run for touchdown. Wooster had a good bunch.

TURKEY DAY

Dover—6 N. P. H. S.—14

A trifle damp today. That doesn't prevent Cale from making long run for touchdown. Mathias also does his stuff. Line working like a clock. Capt. uses his nose to block punts. Good season. Everybody happy.

H. STIFFLER

Coach

Hats off to a real coach. What Stiffler didn't know about basket ball wasn't worth knowing, and he knew how to get it to the fellows. He worked hard with them and imparted to them a spirit of good sportsmanship and a kind of team work that could not be beaten. Everybody sincerely hopes he will remain to coach more such teams.

W. G. FINDLEY

Manager

To this man goes a lot of the credit for the basket ball team's success. Every possible thing he could do for the team he did. Surely Phila's schedule is proof enough of his efforts. The team was never inconvenienced because of the forgetfulness of the manager while Findley was on the job. He was a real man to have around.

CAPT. CALE, '25

Forward

"Bill" was the best floor man Phila had this year. He was a good shot and clever with the ball. As a captain, "Bill" was all there. He always had an eye open for breaks and errors. "Bill" played his wonder game of the season in the last game with Dover. He will be back next year, bigger, better and faster than ever.

G. SMITH, '25

Center

"Smitty" was chosen all-tourney center by all judges and critics. He was never outplayed or outjumped by his opponents. There was some discussion at the opening of basket ball season as to who would play center. "Smitty" stepped in and carried off all honors. This was his first year but he played like an old timer. Next year he should do wonders.

F. PFAEFFLI, '25

Guard

"Piff" is another scintillating star belonging from the class of '25. As a bank man he was a wonder, for no matter what team it was, as soon as our opponents shot, "Piff" had the ball started on the road to a basket for Phila. In the first two games they could not find a man to play that position. But when "Piff" tried out, he filled in perfectly. He will be a big factor toward a winning team next year.

J. MORGAN, '25
Forward

In "Jim" we have the biggest part of the scoring apparatus of our basket ball machine. It was a sad affair when "Jim" couldn't drop in a few baskets. When he started to shoot one of his famous shots under the basket, two points were added to Phila's score. "Jim" surely deserved a place on the all-tourney team. With him back next year one place is well taken care of.

A. B. CUNNINGHAM, '24
Guard

"Art" played basket ball the same as he does anything else—with all his heart and soul. As a guard "Art" was hard to beat and few baskets were scored on him thruout the season. He had a "nack" of taking the ball from the other team and he displayed this ability on several occasions. Altho "Art" is the only regular leaving this year, they will have to scratch hard to find another man to fill his shoes.

C. MATHIAS, '25
Forward

Clyde was the whirlwind of the squad. He usually ran the floor two or three times to anybody else's once. Clyde didn't get to play all the time, but he made a wonderful relief man and Coach never had to worry about pulling a man out. In the coming season, Clyde should show them all how the game is played.

NOTHER year has nearly passed. During this year athletic teams have been turned out which are now doing their bit by making history for N. P. H. S.

The athletic year of 1923-24 has been a very successful one from every point of view. However, it would not have been so successful if there had been but eleven men out for football or five men out for basket ball or nine men out for baseball. Consequently in summing up the success of the season to those men who came out night after night working with all their might and who did not in turn receive some token of appreciation from the school, is due a large part of the credit for the success of our athletics this season. To those men we extend great praise for their work and co-operation.

To the athletic fans of our town we also wish to express our appreciation. They were great in numbers and great in spirit, and although we can not say in words to what extent they helped the teams, we wish to thank them sincerely for their support and backing at home and abroad.

Lastly, we wish to congratulate Captains Cunningham, Nickels, Cale and Goulder on their leadership thru so successful a season; we also extend to Captains Mathias, Benedum and Torgler our best wishes for their success in the coming season.

RUTH NICKELS—"Nick" was this year's captain and certainly proved herself a capable leader for the girls. Ruth is the kind of girl of whom too much good can not be said. "Nick" is also largely responsible for many of our points. She could not only play the forward position but could also be put in the pivot position and play it with her usual ease and accuracy. If "Nick" is as successful in life as she was with her basket ball team we haven't the slightest worry. Best of luck, "Nick."

VIVA BENEDUM—"Vee" is our next year's captain and we wish her all the luck possible. "Vee" did not receive a letter this year because she did not play in all of the last three games. We are sorry for this but we are looking forward to next year and we hope she will get her letter then.

DORIS BUTLER—Although Doris formerly held down a forward position, she found her place at guard this year and played it as a veteran. We always depended on her to break up the opponents' team work and she was invaluable in sending the ball into the scoring field. We could not have succeeded without "Doc."

HAZEL TORGLER—"Tuffy" was a guard and one to be feared. She did not believe in being ordered around by referees nor did she believe in allowing her forward to score. This being Leap Year "Tuffy" had a double burden in trying to watch her opponent and Cupid. Nevertheless, "Tuffy" well earned her letter.

HELEN JOHNS—Helen held down a forward position and was one of the most faithful girls we had. Her passing was accurate and at losing her guard, Helen was exceedingly skillful. If there were any breaks to be made, Helen usually made them.

VIRGINIA HOFFMAN—Virginia is the only member of the squad to receive a three year letter this year. She has always held down the pivot position until this season when she played forward. Here she has proved to be our scoring machine, rolling up 162 points for the Red and Black. She was also manager of the team and to her goes the credit of securing an excellent schedule. Virginia leaves us this year, and though we surely will miss her, we hope she will be as successful in life as she has been in basket ball.

GRACE PFAEFFLI—"Piff" hails from Strasburg, and that may account for her ability to play basket ball. "Piff" is another one of the girls that has two years of basket ball ahead of her yet, and we are looking forward to "Piff" as one of our strong guards in the next two years. We know she can do it without any difficulty.

GERTRUDE PHILLIPS—Gertrude is another sophomore who has proved herself worthy to wear the red and black. "Gertie" believes that "action" speaks louder than words and has proved this by being a constant worry to the opposing forward. Gertrude even went so far as to part with her hair for the entertainment of the team to break the monotony of a long wait at Orrville.

LEAH FRIBLEY—Leah started the scoring with the tip-off for we found few who could out jump her. The nickname "Horse Haggerdy" earned at the first of the season stuck with her throughout, for she formed a strong part of our defense. She is only a sophomore and we expect to hear great things of her in the future. Good luck, "Horse."

MISS BARTON

Coach

It has been said that two real good teams do not come in succession. Miss Barton has indeed done the unexpected for after the showing made last year in girls' basket ball, fans thought the team would slow down a bit. On the contrary, however, she has turned out a team that if anything would surpass that of last year. We hope she may continue to do the unexpected.

Senior Class Will

WE, the Seniors, of the never to be forgotten class of 1924, being clothed within our right minds, do with tears make our last will and testament.

First—and not lastly, we relinquish all rights to that inspiring body of individuals called the faculty and bequeath it to the school as a small mighty token of our appreciation for its well-being.

Whereas—For fear that the school will be in need of scholars, we leave behind us several members of the Senior class.

Second—We leave our chief advisor, Mr. Wyandt, who has braved with great courage the storms of our class, to any Freshman class with the best of recommendations.

Third—The front seats in Chapel to the budding seniors of next year, wishing they enjoy the gum which has been stuck there by each Senior class, and also the kind and grateful glances which Mr. Ake sheds upon us at Chapel.

Fourth—The success of Doris and Art to Fay and Clyde.

Fifth—The bashfulness of Bing to Richard Nixon. (May he conceal it as Bing has).

Sixth—Now that Donald is leaving, may Hazel find another man. (We suggest Dick Shanley).

Seventh—Dutch Torgler's line to Mellie Hall.

Eighth—Ashcan's harem to Carl Williams.

Ninth—To the Virgil students our text books which have the translation neatly and correctly written. (They are better than ponies).

Tenth—Bob Haverman's beauty to Glen Smith.

Eleventh—Our sympathy to Jim Morgan on account of the departure of Mim.

Twelfth—Teet Loomis' habit of studying to Harold Armstrong.

Thirteenth—Ruth Nickels' sportmanship which lead us to many victories, to Viva Benedum.

Fourteenth—The oratorical aspirations of Raymond Randall and Madge Raiff to Howard Ley and Evelyn Horger.

Fifteenth—The cheer leader's position be divided among the Juniors. (They have plenty of material).

Sixteenth—The jolly good times which we Seniors have enjoyed in the library to the class of '25.

Seventeenth—Art's curly hair to Lester Kirk.

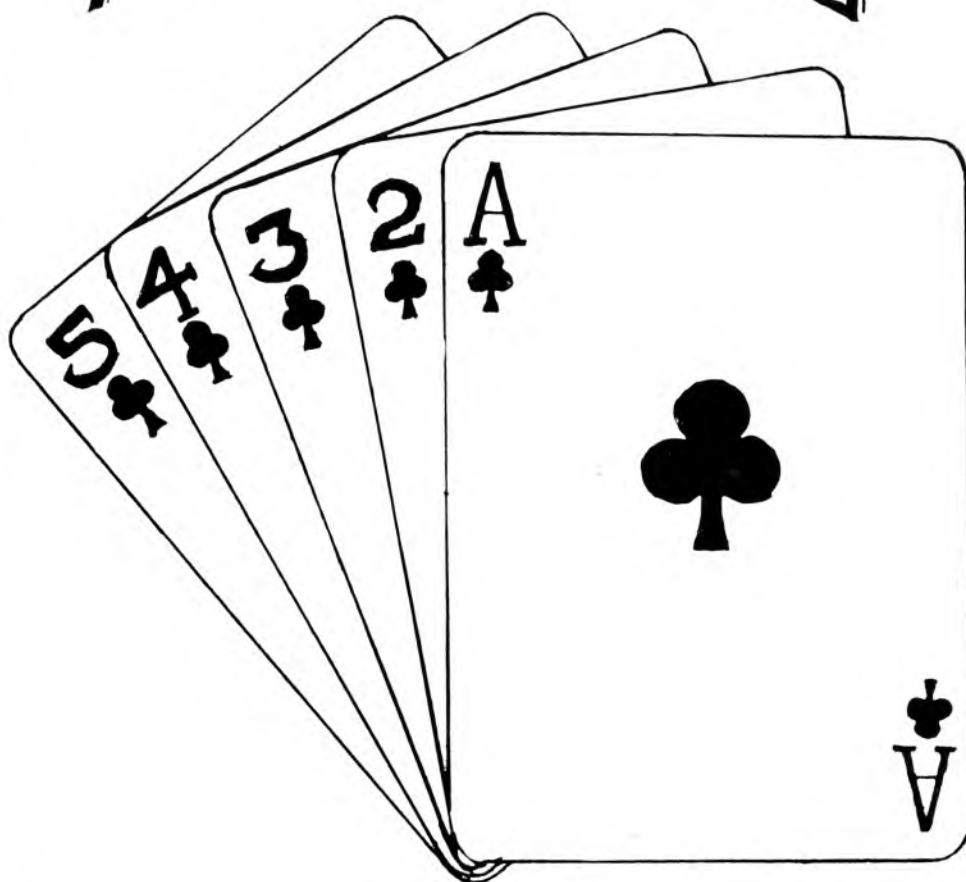

Eighteenth—The absolute privilege of selling 'Hot Dawgs' to the Juniors. (This is a custom for the Seniors. They are the only ones who need money).

To this, our last will and testament, we do set our hands and seal on this, the eleventh day of April, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and twenty-four; to be executed by our administrator, Mr. Wyandt.

Our Lovers

AS a result of much profound thought and serious consideration on the part of the Staff, they have decided that one perfectly good page of our Annual should be devoted to the amusing yet pathetic subject, our lovers. It will be understood that the material for this discussion has been obtained from long established facts, authentic information, and careful observation, and that it is about as reliable as the Daily Times weather forecast.

Any day at any time, it is necessary only to glance down one of the halls to collect enough sentimental data to furnish the details for a dime novel. Scattered through this crowd of hurrying students will be seen pair after pair of vacant-eyed, meandering lovers who seem to have forgotten time, place, classes—in fact, everything except that they are together. Some pass by with perfect unconcern and a carefully cultivated swagger intended to leave the impression that they are enjoying the situation thoroughly. Others indulge in one another's company as if it were a criminal offense with the death penalty attached. These always betray themselves with a series of alternating blushes and giggles, which, according to Ashman, the school statistician, should be converted into useful heat and energy. His computations show that if all the blushes shed in N. P. H. S. in one month were converted into heat, there would be enough calories evolved to raise the temperature of 2,675 gallons of water 30.9°C, and that if the giggles were transferred into energy, enough horse-power would be generated to operate the electric fan in the high school building for 382.5 days. This terrible waste should be eliminated. But we have wandered from the subject.

Then, there are the actually passionate lovers, whose ardent looks and sincere felicitations bespeak an attraction which is no less than a consuming passion. This type of devotion is usually found among the upper classmen; although these afflicted couples are openly laughed at, they are the secret envy of every unmarried girl in school under the age of twenty.

The last, and probably the most heart-rending type of evidence showing the ravages of Cupid, is to be seen in the down-stairs hall. The male victim is generally resplendent in baggy long trousers of a decidedly suspicious origin; his face and hands testify to the hasty but rather poorly distributed application of soap and water and his hair shows the unskillful use of brush and bandoline. His manly breast (size 32) swells with pride and delight as he gazes with a new-found feeling of possession upon the lady of his heart, who shows the same ear-marks of immaturity as her mate, but in a lesser degree. Together they are experiencing the excruciating agony of puppy-love, and we congratulate them on their early start. When they are Seniors, they can promenade the halls with the same sense of domestic security which characterizes at least one well known couple of the class of '24.

Rumors are abroad to the effect that the School Board has decided to appropriate funds for the purpose of planting shrubbery beside the lockers and placing comfortable benches at short intervals for the use of retiring lovers between classes and after school. It is also whispered that individual moons will be furnished with each bench. We are unable to say just how true this report is, but we wish to say in closing that the Staff extend their best wishes to the young lovers as they dream their dreams along the halls of dear old Phila High.

Our New Organizations

AMONG the new features in the 1924 Delphian are the two organizations—the Girl Reserves and the Debating Club.

The Girl Reserves, a high school branch of the Y. W. C. A., was organized last spring, because the girls felt that they needed an organization to correspond to the Hi-Y. The club has a large membership and has done some worth while things. Its purpose is to aid in forming the right kind of character and to make the girls more thoughtful of God and others. Their success has been in a large measure due to the advisors of the club. May this organization fulfill its purpose.

For a long time there has been a feeling in the high school that some encouragement should be given to literary activity as well as to athletics. So with the encouragement of various clubs and organizations in the town, the Debating Club was formed. Its main purpose is to encourage the art of debating. Debates with neighboring high schools have been held and much enthusiasm aroused. The success of the club in the future is assured if we may judge by what its members have accomplished in the short time they have been organized.

—Editorial.

The Girl's Reserve party in April must have been a great success judging from the reports we heard the next morning. "This is a session of lights on and lights off."

Dorothy M. (after being bride in Senior stunt) :—"My married life was cut in two before I got far."

Echoes from "O. K." Week.

Mr. Barrett :—"A little fire on one end and a little fool on the other."
"You girls know whom they are trailing most of the time."

When two members of Mr. Paulus' Civics class were debating the answer to a question Mr. Paulus said, "Say, I like to get a word in edgewise."

Girls were talking about graduating outfits.

Edith C. :—"Well, if you don't like a white dress, you can have it dyed."

"Art" C. (on the other side of the library) :—"Who is dying?"

Found: A note on the auditorium floor by Mr. Albert Lawrence; contents as follows: "Are you in "Baby" Lawrence's Civics class?"

Doris B. (in Civics when Mr. Paulus was absent) :—"Stand up, Albert, like a good little boy."

Mr. Paulus (when basket ball boys are absent) :—"Where are all these feet-ball men?"

Florence F. :—"Well, none of my grandchildren will go to this school."
Edith L. :—"No, and none of my ancestors will either."

Mr. Wyandt—"This lettuce tastes beastly—are you sure you washed it?"

Mrs. Wyandt :—"Sure I did, and I used perfumed soap, too."

Miss Beaber :—"How many of you girls have seen a prize-fight?"

Ruth Maurer :—"I have."

Miss Beaber—"Where?"

R. M. :—"We have one at our house every night."

Bernice B. (giving report in Civics) :—"He has had an active life at the bar and on the bench." ROAR.

"Petit" Manson (in Civics) :—"They advocate women suffrage and I think they ought to have it."

"Art" C. :—"Why? I don't."

"Petit" M. :—"Well, we might as well give it to them because they take it anyhow."

Lester Kirk :—"I'll never marry until I meet a girl who is my direct opposite."

Helpful Friend :—"Well, there are plenty of intelligent girls in this neighborhood."

Pupil :—"I can't answer that."

Teacher :—"Why it's as plain as the nose on your face, and if it's like my nose it is pretty plain."

Miss Felton—"In a town where I was once I saw some boys dragging magnets by strings in the gutters. What were they hunting for?"

Ronald H. :—"Cigarette stubs."

Mr. Paulus (holding up a vanity case that he has found) :—"Did any girl here lose her false face?"

E. Bair (in Chem.) :—"What is the matter with this H^2S generator? I can't get any gas through this rod." No wonder. The glass rod was sealed at both ends.

Minister :—"Your husband says he always feels so refreshed after one of my sermons."

Mrs. Ake :—"Yes, a good sleep does refresh one, you know."

Traffic Cop :—"Say, you! Didn't you see me wave at you?"

C. K. :—"Yes, you fresh thing. And if Ernie were here he'd paste you one for it."

Miss Schauffler (having finished the explanation and the relation of air to the amount of heat secured from a bunsen burner) :—"Now, Fred, when do we get the greatest amount of heat?"

Fred Whitlach:—"In the summer time."

Miss Helmick:—"Do you know that face powder is usually made of a poisonous substance?"

R. Croghan:—"Is that why it burns when you get it in your eye?"

Florence Winkler:—"Never put off today what you can do tomorrow."

Miss Helmick (in Chemistry) :—"Cecil, what are the uses of nitric acid?"

Cecil Loomis (reading from an open book on the desk in front of him) :—"It is used in the manufacture of explosives, celluloid and glass eyes."

"Tell me, John, does bleaching the hair lead to softening of the brain?"

"No, darling, it's generally the softening of the brain that leads to bleaching the hair."

Dad said to his son, "How did you lose that tooth?"

Son:—"Shifting gears on the lolly-pop."

Customer—"It's tough to pay fifty cents a pound for meat."

Butcher:—"Yes, but it's tougher when you pay twenty-five."

Susie:—"Why do you love old songs best?"

John:—"Because I don't have to buy any new records."

Reed (in History) :—"What was the direct tax?"

Erma Spring:—"Direct tax was the tax on personality."

Mr. Rudy (in Geometry) :—"A bisector cuts a figure into two equal halves."

Jake:—"Hey, Bill, did you hear what happened to John?"

Bill:—"No."

Jake:—"A two ton block of stone fell on his chest and busted it."

Bill:—"He always did have a weak chest."

Catherine Walter (on her way to school) :—"I must see John Donahey."

Pearl W.:—"Why? What for?"

Catherine:—"Well, it is rather personal."

Edith Little (in Am. History) :—"Anne Hutchison was sent out of the colony because in those days women were not supposed to talk very much."

Mr. Paulus:—"Times have evidently changed since then, haven't they?"

Item of interest:—Dick Shanley was tackling the dummy at the time of the earthquake in Japan.

Walter M.:—"Do you know the height of foolishness?"

Bill Carpenter:—"No, what is it?"

W. M.:—"Going into a stationery store to see moving pictures."

Mrs. Reiser:—"Say, Park, why do you shoot craps? Don't you know they have as much right to live as you have?"

Mose Rosenberg:—"Sam, what part would you like to play on the football team?"

Sammie Goodman:—"First base."

Isabelle Burnside (at the book-store):—"I'd like to get a pen point."

Clerk:—"What kind?"

Isabelle:—"One to write a theme with."

Mr. Paulus (in Freshman Science):—"Now, if you would climb up to the ceiling, it would be hot enough to roast your whiskers."

Roberta Stucky (in Phys. Ed.):—"And now don't forget to breathe."

Peg Burnside:—"Gee! But I fell down this morning."

Isabelle B.:—"Where? Did you hurt yourself?"

Peg:—"No! I just fell down in the Economics test."

D. Huff:—"I am going to buy a gun."

Bob F.:—"Six shooter?"

D. Huff:—"No, nine shooter. I am going to kill a cat."

In Economics the class was talking of clay and bricks.

Rita Hurst:—"Why, are bricks made out of clay?"

Ruth N.:—"Does Randy France find anything to talk about?"

Josephine S.:—"Not a thing and he talks about it, too."

What is this high school coming to?

One day Florence Foust was seen putting on rouge!!!

His Honor:—"Rastus, do you make a practice of stealing chickens?"

Rastus:—"No, judge; I jes go out semi-occasionally."

Mr. Stiffler (teaching general science):—"Now, where does a fish take in air?"

Peg B.:—"Behind its ears."

Jack Bryan (dashing into the library):—"I want the life of Julius Caesar."

Librarian:—"You're too late; Brutus took it long ago."

Thelma McCoy:—"Why is the Delphian like a girl?"

Jim T.:—"I don't know. Why?"

T. Mc.:—"Because every fellow should have one of his own and not borrow someone else's."

Photographer:—"Look pleasant, please."

Ruth N.:—"I guess you'll have to remove that 'Terms Cash' sign."

Mr. Rudy (explaining a proposition in Geometry) :—"Why is PR+RB greater than PB?"

Leah Fribley :—"Why, because a short line is the straightest distance between two points."

In modern history the class was discussing the French nobles' liking for hunting as a sport.

Bill Carpenter on the front seat was catching flies.

Miss Alberson :—"Pretty good sport, isn't it?"

Hazel Torgler (hearing two musicals over the radio at once) :—"Oh, dear, those wires must be crossed."

Roberta S. (teaching History) :—"Are there any questions about the lesson?"

"Nix" :—"Yes, what was it about?"

Miss Alberson :—"Describe the civilization of Crete."

Sophomore :—"It hasn't any."

Teacher :—"What is steam?"

Student :—"Water crazy with the heat."

Barber :—"You look talented."

Carl W. :—"That's why I want my hair cut Yale style."

Miss Felton :—"Paul, what is fog?"

Paul Grey :—"Cold steam."

Mildred S. :—"Tell me, have you ever loved another?"

Carl W. :—"Yes, of course, dear. Do you think I'd practice on a nice girl like you?"

On Thursday, January 3, 1924, a black dog was seen in various parts of the building.

On Friday, January 4, 1924, nothing was seen of the canine, but the Seniors sold "Hot Dogs."

Mr. Findley :—"This is the third time you've looked on Cy Williams' paper."

John Webster :—"Yes, sir, he doesn't write very plainly."

John Ickes (in Science class) :—"I don't know if he is blind or not, but he can't see."

Mutt Marsh (over the phone) :—"What time are you expecting me?"

Ziza R. (icily) :—"I'm not expecting you."

Mutt—"Then I'll surprise you."

Miss Stockwell (English III) :—"What does 'canine quadruped' mean?"
Thelma McCoy :—"A four-legged dog."

Ed. H. (reading a sign over a clothes shop) :—"Haberdasher."

Virgil R. :—"I wonder how far that is."

Miss Rutledge (in Latin) :—"Harold, what words have we taken from the Latin word pugno?"

Harold Armstrong :—"Pug-nose."

Ruth Hurst :—"Oh, I wish the Lord had made me a man."

Fat Winters :—"He did, I'm it."

Teacher :—"Sam, where is the Suez Canal?"

Sam :—"On the Isthmus of Panama."

Teacher :—"Kenneth, name three things that are sold by the dozen."

Kenneth H. (awakening from a day dream) :—"A yard, a pound, and a ton."

Fritz Rea (to Sam G.) :—"You're not so dumb as you look."

Sam :—"Huhuh."

Fritz :—"You couldn't be."

Miss Stockwell (to William Z.) :—"What is the name of a foot of three syllables, the last of which receives the accent?"

William Z. :—"Anesthetic."

John S. :—"Puritans were not allowed to read any friction."

Miss Baker (in Senior English) :—"Arthur, we will now hear one issue of your debate."

Arthur C. :—"My topic is Capital Punishment should be abolished, negative side. I will endeavor to prove this from the Bible. First, the Golden Rule says, 'Thou shalt not kill.'"

Miss Baker :—"Any corrections?"

Mr. Baker (in penmanship) :—"Now we'll make some I's (eyes)."

Reed :—"What's the matter with Findley? Got lumbago, or spinal curvature or something?"

Stiffler :—"No, he has to walk that way to fit the shirts his wife makes him."

Max. S. :—"I don't like pork, but I just love ham."

John Schlarb (after receiving his report card the first month) :—"Oh, I didn't do so bad. I got only three U's."

Ruth Gallagher :—"Resolved that the 18th amendment should be repealed."

Art. C. :—"I'd say uncorked."

Helen Y. (in Chemistry) :—"What is a negative charge?"

Sam Lapham (innocently) :—"She ought to take Physics."

Bob S. (in Mod. History) :—"Robespierre was killed this time without a trial."

Fair One on board ship:—"Captain, don't you think it's cruel to box a compass?"

Captain:—"Not any more than to paddle a canoe."

Teacher:—"What is the trachea?"

M. Edwards:—"It is part of the wind system of the body."

Nov. 8: Frederick Kies had his proposition right today! We'll tell you when it happens again.

Sam G. (at football game):—"Why don't the fellow with the white suit take the football sometimes?"

Hazel T. (in History):—"Well, what was the eleventh commandment?" (amendment).

Mr. Stiffler:—"At what temperature do beans cook, some of you girls who take sewing?"

Jo. Snyder:—"How was education made easier at this time?"

Gert. Walker:—"Printing presses were discovered."

Martha E.:—"I got 96 in the Latin test today and 90 in the other one."

E. E.:—"You are getting to be so bright that I am afraid to go with you for fear you will catch on fire."

I Love Me ----- Bob Haverman, '24.

Miss Helmick (in Chemistry):—"Philip, what is the formula for sulphuric acid?"

Philip M.:—"S. L. H."

Miss Helmick:—"No, you're thinking of some girl's initials."

Junior English:—"Anonymous is one who plays jokes and makes a fool of himself."

"Book-seller's hack is one who takes care of books and places them in a hack."

Mildred M.:—"Paul, did you put henna on your hair?"

Paul Fishel:—"No, I washed it."

Fritz Rea:—"Is your fellow good-looking?"

Pauline E.:—"Yes, after you get used to him."

Miss Beaber (to Ward Ashman coming in late after fire drill):—"What were you doing?"

Ward:—"I let the ladies and children come in first."

Mr. Stiffler:—"What plants will grow in sour soil?"

Tommy Edwards:—"Sour grass."

Mr. Rudy:—"Mildred, what is a locus?"

Mildred Murphy:—"Some kind of bird."
