Class Poems

"Great as was the coming of King Arthur
Was the coming of this class,
Great with many a knightly laddie
And many a queenly lass.

'Twas in the Indian summer,
The birds had not all flown,
Flowers were preparing for slumber
When we ventured into the unknown.

Twice two has been the number
Of years that have sped along,
The flowers have awakened from slumber,
The birds are singing their song.

And we, "Oh Alma Mater,"
Your offspring brave and true,
Are stepping out together,
Bound with our love for you.

We'll travel life's rough highway,
'Till we reach the city, Success,
We'll shun every pitfall and byway;
With our fame and honor you'll be blest.

We've a goal for which we've striven;
The ideal which has made us strive
'Tis the motto, "Semper ducens,"
Of the class of '25.

Farewell, oh fellow students,
Our loyal faculty, too,
Perhaps we've left some task unfinished;
We're entrusting that to you.

Sad as was the passing of King Arthur
Is the passing of this class;
Not doomed to sink into oblivion,
But to strike and win at last."

—ANNE TRYON.

"One by one the sands are flowing,
One by one the minutes fall.
Some are coming, others going,
Yet the call is heard by all.

Hour by hour the time draws nigh,
When we each must depart.
Now we feel the sadness of goodbye,
With each beating of the heart.

Closer, closer draws the time,
That we must face Life's strife.
Soon we will leave far behind,
Memories dear and dreams of Life.

One by one the sands are flowing,
One by one the minutes fall.
Others come, while we are going
To meet Life's enchanting call."

—BEULAH BARNES '25.

KATHERINE AVON "KATY"

Glee Club 4; Mixed Chorus 4; Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4; French Club 4; Class Play.

"Nothing is impossible to a willing heart."

It may be her good nature or it may be her willingness to work, but whatever it is, we think a lot of "Katy." If you are in trouble, here is a good place to come.

ALICE ENGLISH "TILLY"

Latin Club 2; Mixed Chorus 2; Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4; Literary Society 3, 4; Debate Team 3, 4.

"I should think your tongue has broken its chain."

And we are very glad of it, for it isn't everyone who can win debating honors for the school the way Alice can. But hard work had a share in that, too.

ROY MAURER

"And can I ever bid this joy farewell?"

Roy seems to enjoy good recitations even if he doesn't enjoy studying. He doesn't agree with Burns and Whittier that there is joy in the life of a farmer, and so we expect him to seek his fortune in a busy metropolis.

WALTER MARSH "MUTT"

Latin Club 2; French Club 4.

"Young men think old men are fools;
Old men know young men are fools."

But don't ask Walter his opinion in the matter for we are not sure he will agree. At any rate he enjoys himself thoroughly and old men's opinions have not figured much so far.

THELMA McCOY "SWEDE"

Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4; Mixed Chorus 2, 4; Class Play 3; Glee Club 4; Literary Society 3, 4; French Club 4; G. R. Program Com. 4; Chairman Social Com. 2; Finance Com. 4; Class Historian 2; Class Play.

"We call it only gentle Thelma's way."

Thelma is such an enthusiastic person that she makes things interesting wherever she is. Moreover, only she can fail in recitations and remain on the good side of the teachers. It takes diplomacy to do this.

CLARENCE BAIR

Chemistry Lab. Assistant 4.

"Everywhere in life the question is not what we gain but what we do."

If you want a boy who is both dependable and interesting, come this way. We don't know in what path his future will be, but wherever it is, it will be a success. Put your money on Clarence, boys.

FRANCES BRANEN "FANNIE"

"Merrily, merrily shall I live now
Under the blossom that hangs on the bough."

Frances has never told us that she likes N. P. H. S. better than Uhrichsville, but we hope so. May be it is because she is so shy that she has never told us.

MARGARET ANN McILVAINE "PEG"

Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4; Mixed Chorus 2, 4; Glee Club 4; Latin Club 2; Class Play 3; Finance Com. 4; G. R. Finance Com. 4.

"I would be friends with you and have your love."

Whatever profession Ann chooses, she will not want to be a jeweler, especially if people let their accounts run. Future Senior! Let this be a warning and pay cash for your rings and pins.

ARTHUR ANGEL "ANGEL"

"And 'tis my faith that every flower
Enjoys the air it breathes."

Let us hope that Arthur enjoys school as much as he seems to or as his grades show. At any rate no one would work as hard as he does and not enjoy the results, at least.

HOWARD MERCER "BUD"

Debate Team 4; Literary Society 4; Mgr. Class Play.

"I never knew so young a body with so old a head."

Did you? If you don't know Howard, you had better get acquainted with him for he is leaving N. P. H. S. this year and the place may hear of him again, but it will never see him. You know these woman-haters can sometimes be entrapped into having dates, too.

HAROLD BEAN "BEANY"

Class Play.

"The present is big with the future."

Wouldn't it be pleasant to be fate herself and mete out success as it is deserved? What a big lump Harold would get! More than likely he will get it without our help.

ROBERTA STUCKY "BOB"

Class B. B. 1, 2; Social Com. 2, 3; Debate Team 3, 4; Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4; G. R. Pres. 2, 3, 4; Lit. Society 3, 4; L. S. Treas. 3, 4; Glee Club 4; Class Play 3; G. R. Play 3; Class Play.

"Never elated while one man's oppressed,
Never dejected while another's blessed."

"Bob" is an ideal friend and a perfect sympathizer. A list of her total activities would stretch from here to Shanesville, but you never find her worrying about anything. You will hear of her in several years on a college debate team.

PEARL MILLER

Office Stenographer 4.

"I feel that I am happier than I know."

Pearl has an advantage over most of us for she has already had experience as a stenographer. And judging from appearances this year she has made good even when the casualty lists sometimes held sixty names.

JOSEPHINE STROUP "Jo"

Mixed Chorus 1, 2, 4; Orchestra 3, 4; Social Com. 2; Girl Reserves 2, 3; Girls' Glee Club 3, 4; Latin Club 2, 3, 4; Class Play.

"Wealth, I ask not, hope or love, nor a friend to know me.
All I ask, the heavens above and the road below me."

"Jo" is not exactly a tramp or hobo, but she would like to be. Almost the only disadvantage in her living that kind of life is that they can not carry pianos. And so "Jo" spends part of her time at home.

JOHN HURSEY

Pleasant Valley Baseball 1, 2, 3.

"What shall I do to be forever known
And make the age to come my own."

If some one were to assure John that he won't need to be oratorical to be successful, no doubt it would be a great comfort, for John does not need such a gift as that. He has the fundamentals of success.

MARY BIERIE "CURLY"

"Tis not a lip, or eye, we beauty call
But the joint force and full result of all."

Mary's outside appearance is sufficient, but if anyone were to look beneath that crust of curls, he would find a wealth of surprises. According to Mr. Paulus, she is the future rival of H. G. Wells.

MARY McCONNELL "MAC"

Literary Society 3, 4; Latin Club 4; French Club 4; Girl Reserves 2.

"No one is happy who does not think himself so."

Mary revels in the mysteries of French translation and she doesn't do it merely to please her teacher. Latin comes to her as easily as it came to Cicero. Mary really could astonish us all if she wanted to.

DOROTHY REESE "Dot"

Mixed Chorus 1, 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4.

"Cheerful looks make every dish a feast."

Which means that "Dot" knows how to make the best of everything, even a Civics recitation and a cold lunch every day. However, someone else may help her do the latter.

CLYDE V. MATHIAS "SKIN"

Football 2, 3, 4; Captain 4; Basketball 2, 3, 4; Baseball 2, 3, 4; Track 3, 4; Class B. B. 1, 2; Social Com. 3.

"I see the right and I approve it, too.
Condemn the wrong and yet the wrong pursue."

That is, if it is wrong to make the Uhrichsville local so useful, although we do not doubt that that is why it is there. But it may be this inspiration that makes his athletic record so good.

EMMA HOSTETLER "EM"

Macksburg H. S. Basketball 2, 3; President 3; Mixed Chorus 4; Girl Reserves 4; French Club 4.

"Charms strike the sight but merit wins the soul."

Emma, like all other deserving people, probably does not realize that she is so meritorious but others do. Because she came here only her fourth year, we have not had a chance to appreciate her properly.

GEORGE COLLINS "SQUIP"

Orchestra 1, 2; Social Com. 2; Vice President 4.

"If fortune favors you, be not elated;
If she frowns, do not despond."

George has cause to be elated for he finished his school work at the end of the first semester. As a result his eyes are confined behind horn-rimmed glasses. But he had no chance to look at these good-looking high school girls the second semester, anyhow!

JAMES TORGLER "JIMMY"

Baseball 2, 3, 4; Captain 3; Class Basketball 1, 2, 4; Football 4; Athletic Editor Delphian 4.

"The lion is not so fierce as they paint him."

So let it be with Jim. The girls do say he is a woman hater; if so, it were a grievous fault and grievously hath Jim answered it. But it may be that they are piqued because they can't get him and his friend, Beryl, interested.

ELLEN F. JENKINS "LEN"

Latin Club 3; Girl Reserves 3, 4; French Club 4.

"Studious to please, yet not ashamed to fall."

For Helen realizes that one who tries is never a failure. The only solution we can find for her French translation is a French ancestor somewhere back in Wales, or ability acquired through hard work.

GLENN SMITH "SMITTY"

Football 2, 3, 4; Baseball 2, 3, 4; Basketball 3, 4; Track 3, 4; President 4.

"Perhaps it was right to dissemble my love,
But—why did you kick me downstairs?"

Although we sometimes are appalled at "Smitty's" choice of words, we know they are not ill-intended. He has ability along more than one line, as the Massillon game and a few other things prove.

RHEA ABEL "APE"

Mixed Chorus 3, 4; Glee Club 4; Sec.-Treas. Glee Club 4; Social Com. 4; Girl Reserves 3; Literary Society 3.

"Know'st me not by my clothes."

But this is not the only way to know Rhea for she is usually accompanied by a stack of books, which give us the impression of evenings well spent. It is peculiar that such a short girl should cast such a long shadow.

DOLORES GATCHELL "SAL"

Dennison H. S. Mixed Chorus 1, 2, 3; Glee Club 2; English Play 2; Adelpian Literary Society 2; G. R. Secretary 2; Castilian Literary Society 3; Social Com. 3; Girl Reserves 4; Mixed Chorus 4.

"Be not the first by whom the new are tried Nor yet the last to lay the old aside."

Dolores has made herself our friend and even though she has been here only a few months, she is as loyal as those who have been here for years. Perhaps it is being a good Girl Reserve that has done this.

AMELIA GRIBBLE

"More years had made me love thee more."

Each year has brought Amelia more friends; if she were to stay in high school another year, everyone would be on the list. But what would she do with any more?

FAYE PHILLIPS

Mixed Chorus 2; Social Committee 3; Class Play.

"True as the dial to the sun
Although it is not shined upon."

Barnhill has provided this school with both brains and beauty in Faye. Perhaps her early morning rides on the N. O. T. & L. have something to do with her pink cheeks (we do not say everything), but the brains we can't account for.

HUGH METZGAR "MEEKE"

Hi-Y Club 2, 3, 4.

"Yet I doubt not thru the ages, one increasing purpose runs,
And the minds of men are widen'd with the process of the sun."

Hugh probably has a brilliant secret somewhere in the back of his mind, or maybe it is just a joke on the rest of us. At any rate it seems to have a good effect on him.

PARK URBAN "WHITEY"

"I find we are growing serious
And then we are in danger of growing dull."

In that case there is not much danger of Park's growing dull for it is only his smile that keeps Mr. Paulus from freezing the library. That is the reason the coal bill has decreased.

NOBLE GUNNING

Tippecanoe H. S. Class President 3.

"Knowledge is the hill which few may hope to climb."

Yet Noble is climbing rapidly and all because he thinks it possible to do the necessary thing, however hard. The class of 1925 will be proud of him some day.

MILDRED FISHER "RED"

Social Com. 1, 4; Chairman 4; Mixed Chorus 1, 2, 4; Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4; Chairman G. R. Service Com. 4; French Club 4; Secretary French Club 4; Literary Society 4; President 3; Ass't Literary Editor Delphian 4; Class Play.

"Condemn the fault, not the actor of it."

Mildred has merited more honors in high school than she has received, but whether N. P. H. S. shows it or not we appreciate all that she has done. Some college is waiting to do what we have neglected.

ROBERT EVANS

"Though I am young, I scorn to flit
Upon the wings of borrowed wit."

N. P. H. S. is not the only institution that has given "Bob" an education. His time is taken up outside of school hours, yet he graduates. How do they do it?

ISABELLE BURNSIDE "IZZY"

Social Com. 1; Girl Reserves 3, 4; Sec.-Treas. 3; Literary Society 3, 4; Mixed Chorus 1, 2, 4; Class B. B. 1.

"Deep-sighted in intelligence,
Ideas, atoms, influence!"

Isabelle certainly leaves a splendid record behind her and no doubt there is just as good a one ahead of her. It is hard work which does this, so learn your lesson here.

EDNA LEFFLER "EDDIE"

Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 4; Class Historian 4; Mixed Chorus 1, 4; Latin Club 4; Class Play.

"Be loving, and you will never want for love."

Edna has succeeded so well with everything we have given her to do, that we made her class historian. It is not only hard work but ability, too, that have made her so successful, so we couldn't all do what she does.

CRAWFORD HANNA "HANNA"

Hi-Y 3, 4; Track 3, 4; Football 4.

"On their own merits, modern men are dumb."

If Crawford had to advertise the fact that he is our fastest runner, the news would not get very far. But luckily for the team, he has been found out. Philly is counting on him for a better record this spring.

JULIA MAIER

Mixed Chorus 1, 4; Vice Pres. French Club 3; Class B. B. 2; Girl Reserves 4.

"A merry heart goes all the day."

Julia, if her looks did not marry her to her employer, would make a good business woman for she is an efficient person. But judging from present indications, her place will never be in an office.

JOHN ROLL "LITTLE JOHNNY"

French Club 4.

"I have learned in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content."

John is contented either because it is his nature or because he was reared a "bare-foot boy" although one may have been the cause of the other. At any rate he adds a lot to the class.

VIOLA ICKES

Class Historian 1; Delphiette Staff 1; Mixed Chorus 1, 2; Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4; G. R. Sec. 2, 3; G. R. Cor. Sec. 4; Latin Club 3, 4; Vice Pres. Latin Club 3; President Latin Club 4; French Club 3, 4; Pres. French Club 3; G. R. Hope Com. 4; Class Play 3; G. R.-Hi-Y Play 4; Glee Club 4; Vice Pres. Glee Club 4; Class B. B. 2; Ass't Editor Delphian 3; Editor 4; Commencement Speaker.

"I was born for other things."

However, you couldn't tell it, for though she may not be made for her niches, she always manages to fit perfectly. Viola is our bright and shining light and excels in everything she does, as her long list of activities proves.

LLOYD SCHEAR "BUD"

Literary Society 3, 4; L. S. Pres. 4; Hi-Y Club 3, 4; Vice President Hi-Y Club 4; French Club 4; Pres. French Club 4; Football 4.

"I profess not talking, only this:
Let each man do his best."

Lloyd never talks unless he says something worthwhile and even then he could afford to talk all the time. To see him at Literary Society arouses a picture of him as president of the United States Senate. Wait and see.

LILLIAN HARTMAN "LIL"

Glee Club 1; Mixed Chorus 1, 2, 4; Girl Reserves 4.

"Happiness depends, as nature shows
Less on exterior things than most suppose."

But if it did depend on exterior things Lillian would be just as happy as she is now. This may be because she is always so accommodating and ready to help or perhaps for some exterior reason.

FREDERICK REA "FRITZ"

Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Treasurer 2; Class Play 3; Latin Club 3; Treas. Latin Club 3; French Club 4; Finance Com. 4; Literary Society 4; Class Play.

"He thought as a sage though he felt as a man."

"Fritz" frequently surprises us with spurts of wit and wisdom. That is we used to be surprised but we have at last learned to expect a great deal of him and we are never disappointed, either.

VIVA BENEDUM "VEE"

Mixed Chorus 1; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4; Class B. B. 1, 2; Capt. 1, 2; Girls' B. B. 4; Capt. Girls' B. B. 4.

"It hurteth not the tongue to give fair words."

Nobody ever heard "Vee" unjustly slamming any of her friends. We couldn't do without her on our basketball team and if it wasn't for her, we might be more worried about dramatics. "Vee" is a good sport if ever there was one.

PRIMO ODORIZZI "PEDRO"

Latin Club 2, 3; French Club 4.

"He made an instrument to know
If the moon shine at full or no."

Primo seems to be well satisfied with his schedule this year, although it may not be so much the order of his classes as the people who are in them. If you doubt this, go to class with him some time and find out in what direction he looks.

DOROTHY MINOR

Mixed Chorus 2; Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4; Social Com. 3; Hot Dog Com. 4.

"Forever haltless hurries time, the durable to gain;
Be true, and thou shalt fetter time, with everlasting chain."

Why does everyone love Dorothy so much? Just because she is Dorothy. Second team football games never fail to interest her and neither do red-haired boys.

Twenty-eight

HAZEL HENDERSON

"Life is real, life is earnest,
And the grave is not the goal."

In her long walks every morning, Hazel has time to realize that life is real. Some of us are not so fortunate and consequently the days are rather commonplace. Hazel has found the secret and perhaps will share it with us.

FRANKLIN PFAEFFLI "PIFF"

Football 2, 3, 4; Basketball 3, 4; Class Play.

"Why should not conscience have vacation
As well as other courts o' the nation?"

Frank's home town boasts of the "largest country store in America" but we are glad he deserted it for us. Without him both our football and basketball records might be altered.

THELMA BAKER

Mixed Chorus 1, 2; Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4; Class Play.

"A blithe heart makes a blooming visage."

Thelma laughs with you but never at you. Perhaps it is this quality that makes her so many friends. It would be fine for our record if all the Seniors would face life with the same attitude.

ELIZABETH BEBOUT "BETTY"

Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4; Chr. G. R. Program Com. 4; French Club 3; Latin Club 2, 3; Literary Society 3, 4; Class Play 3; Vice Pres. 3; G. R.-Hi-Y Play 4; Literary Editor Delphian 4; G. R. Play 3; Class Play.

"Condemn the fault, not the actor of it."

But where is the fault? Betty can always be recognized by the brilliant questions which she asks and which sometimes bewilder her teachers as well as her classmates. And we hesitate to think what this Delphian would be like if it weren't for her imagination.

VERNON HISRICHI

"A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance."

But we are still trying to guess who or what is making his heart merry. Perhaps it is the future he has chosen or the invention he is pondering.

GRACE HERRON "SALLY"

Mixed Chorus 1; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4.

"We think a happy heart consists
In tranquillity of mind."

The small every day happenings that bother so many of us do not disturb Grace in the least, unless she is good at concealing it. Perhaps there is some one who helps her hide it.

HELEN LEGGETT "BABE"

Mixed Chorus 1, 2; Class B. B. 1, 2; Girls' B. B. 4; Mgr. Girls' B. B. 4; Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4.

"Tomorrow do thy worst,
For I have lived today."

As to what "Babe" likes best in high school, we are sure it is basketball. As to what she likes best out of school, we are not in a position to say. But one thing is certain, she enjoys herself wherever she goes.

HAROLD WHERLEY

Hi-Y 3, 4; Orchestra 3; Band 3; Chemistry Lab. Ass't 4; Class Play 3; G. R.-Hi-Y Play 4; Finance Committee 4; Class Play.

"Some are born great and some achieve greatness."

Both of these seem to apply to Harold for if he had not been born with talent, he would have gotten it some way. Without him we would have had no crowd at the Senior Play, for he was our champion ticket seller.

DEANE McMANN "COUNT"

Class Play 3.

"Care to our coffin adds a nail, no doubt;
A grin so merry draws one out."

Now, don't draw from this that Deane goes around school with a wide grin on his face for when he gets down to work, he can look serious. For instance, visit English class and hear him recite "Hamlet."

MILDRED SINGERMAN "DIZ"

Mixed Chorus 1, 2.

"We grant, although she had much wit
She was very shy of using it."

Mildred can no more get along without Faye than Faye can get along without Mildred. Perhaps some lucky business man will get her as his stenographer, or even more.

VERA HERRON "VE"

Girl Reserves 3, 4; Latin Club 4; Literary Society 4; Class Play.

"Thou hast no snow in thy song,
Nor winter in thy year."

The first time you look at Vera, you want to be friends with her, even though some of us who are typically commonplace can not appreciate her. She is a loyal supporter of all our activities and it is her kind that makes a class of boosters.

EVELYN HOOT

Bowling Green Glee Club 3.

"I look upon you as a gem of the old rock."

Bowling Green surely must be as sorry to lose Evelyn as we are glad to have her here. But she might never have known Alice if she had not come to N. P. H. S., so the fates were working for Evelyn's good after all.

WILMA SCOTT "SCOTTY"

Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; French Club 3; Latin Club 2; Girl Reserves 3; Mixed Chorus 4; Class B. B. 2, 4; Class Play.

"And from her eyes I did receive Fair speechless messages."

And more than one poor unfortunate has fallen victim to "Scotty's" charms. Not that this is her fault but because he can't help himself as you will remember if you attended the Medina football game.

HOWARD LEY "HOWDY"

Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Mixed Chorus 4; Latin Club 2, 3, 4; French Club 4; Literary Society 3, 4; Debate Team 3; Class Play.

"Absence of occupation is not rest,
A mind quite vacant is a mind distressed."

Why does Howard prefer loafing in the lower hall to the upper one? And what is his objection to bobbed-haired flappers? Because of this, debate and other things, his mind will never be one distressed.

ALBERT CRESCIO "AB"

Football 4; Mgr. Class Play.

"I came, I saw, I conquered."

Albert could be another Caesar if he tried; all he needs is time. But since these are modern times, being a property manager may be more to his taste. At any rate he makes a good one.

RICHARD NIXON "Nix"

Mixed Chorus 1, 2, 3; Latin Club 3; Hi-Y Club 4; Social Com. 4; Hot Dog Com. 4; Class Play.

"Let the world slide."

N. P. H. S. just awoke last year to the fact that "Nix" is handsome. If it were true that "fine feathers make a fine bird," we might trace this to his new job. Since this is not true, he must be just a nice boy.

ARLINE GRAFF

Mixed Chorus 1, 2; Sec'y-Treas. 4; Finance Com. 4; Commencement Speaker.

"They are only truly great who are truly good."

Don't say "Hot Dogs" to Arline for she knows the Seniors sold them this year. She has had a lot to do, but we never hear of her trying to shirk. Arline is a true blue girl.

CARL WILLIAMS "Cy"

Social Com. 1; Mixed Chorus 1, 2; Class Basketball 1, 2; Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; Latin Club 3; Track 3, 4.

"If she under value me
What care I how fair she be?"

Maybe you could teach them all to think a lot of you, "Cy." It might be well to have a delegation listen to your civics reports but then you'd have too many on the string, wouldn't you?

PARK REISER

Social Committee 2, 3, 4.

"I walked the lobby, twirled my stick,
The girls all cried, 'He's quite the kick.'"

And they do, too. The poor boy is so besieged by feminine attentions that he completely forgets his history lesson. But there is always a price tag attached to popularity and Park didn't buy his at a bargain sale.

MELVA BAKER "MEB"

"God who sends the wound sends the medicine."

Don't look at this quotation and think that Melva is a prescription seeker. If you want it explained, just ask her or see if you can recall to your mind the tall young man who wandered around our halls at Christmas time.

DEAN HUFF "RUNT"

Mixed Chorus 1, 2; Class Play 3.

"This is the last of earth, I am content."

When one of these many false alarms comes true and the world does come to an end, it will not worry Dean any for in that way he can leave school. But, since he is leaving, we wonder what N. P. H. S. will do in the future.

FLORENCE WINKLER "WINK"

Mixed Chorus 1, 2; Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4.

"I have no other than a woman's reason
I think him so, because I think him so."

"Wink" needs no introduction if you saw "The $100,000 Club Paper." She says she perfected her technique by associating with the profession. Whatever the source we are glad she has it now.

JAMES E. MORGAN "JIMMY"

Social Com. 1, 3, 4; Class Pres. 2; Mixed Chorus 2, 3; Hi-Y 1, 2, 3; Ass't Student Mgr. 3; Student Mgr. 4; Class B. B. 1, 2; Baseball 3, 4; Track 3, 4; Basketball 2, 3, 4; Ass't Bus. Mgr. Delphian 3; Business Mgr. 4.

"Ambition is no cure for love."

And Jim really tries to make himself believe that it is, for just look at the record above with special emphasis on the annual. May be this is another case of inspiration.

DOROTHY FELLERS "Dot"

Mixed Chorus 1.

"True friends appear less moved than counterfeit."

We have all made a mistake by not getting better acquainted with Dorothy during the four years that we could for our chance is practically over. Because she doesn't say anything, don't suppose that she isn't thinking.

FLORENCE LIGHTEL "FLOSSIE"

"Ill fortune seldom comes along."

And, if it did, it wouldn't have the heart to hurt Florence. Who would have? Florence must be a good friend for we never hear of her falling out with Arline.

DOROTHA PUGH "DEE"

Mixed Chorus 1, 2, 4; Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4; Girl Reserve Treas. 2, 3; Latin Club 3; President Latin Club 3; Girl Reserve Play 3; Class Historian 3; Glee Club 3, 4; Social Com. 4; Hot Dog Com. 4.

"Great minds, like heaven, are pleased in doing good."

Even though Dorothea has many outside activities to occupy her she never fails to find time for us. She had foresight enough to get rid of Senior English last year and so she can neglect the Elizabethan Age.

WILLIAM CARPENTER "BILL"

Mixed Chorus 1, 2; Latin Club 2, 3.

"Company, villainous company hath been the spoil of me."

Out-door life appeals to "Bill" more than school life. His frequent absences prove this. Nevertheless he is to be admired for sticking, because perseverance is one of the requirements of success.

HELEN HALL "HALL"

Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Social Com. 2, 3; Chairman G. R. Social Com. 3; Class Play 3; G. R. Play 3; G. R.-Hi-Y Play 4; Debate Team 3, 4; Class Play.

"Lord, what fools these mortals be."

Perhaps "Hall" thinks bobbed hair unbecoming to a dignified Senior or it may be her Bolshevistic tendencies or again, art taking its course. At any rate, witness the effect.

FLORENCE EDIE "BUNTY"

Class B. B. 1, 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Literary Society 3, 4; H. S. Orator 3, 4; Joke Editor 4.

"Who will not mercy unto others show,
How can he mercy hope to have?"

This seems to be Florence's motto, for she never fails to use her natural ability in Latin to help a friend over a rough construction and she never gives us a poor translation, either.

CHRISTOPHER ICKES

"Who does the best his circumstances allow Does well, acts nobly. Angels could do no more."

Christopher does his best to blow up the Chemistry Lab. anyhow. Not that the angels would do anything like this but because he was proving the theory that a quiet boy can sometimes make a noise.

LILLIAN AULT "LILLY"

Glee Club 4; Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4.

"Better to have loved amiss, than never to have loved."

Lillian never has any trouble either in making friends or in keeping them. This may be due to the fact that she fits in well wherever she goes, or merely to that congenial laugh we hear every day.

LA VERNE GROFF "BUCH"

"A man's a man for a' that."

La Verne is by no means bashful and he has no need to be, for he has had plenty of experience both at home and abroad. It pays to start early, boys.

BEULAH B. BARNES "DIXIE"

Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4; Latin Club 2.

"And if you mean to profit, learn to please."

We can always tell when "Dixie" is around for she sheds an atmosphere of good will wherever she goes. This together with her poetic ability is enough to make anyone proud of her.

GOLDIE LUIKART "SIS"

Dover H. S. Mixed Chorus 1, 2; Girl Reserves 1, 2; Mixed Chorus 4.

"I have a heart, with room for every joy."

And it is a good thing for Goldie can find, and will find many things to make her happy. Which is as it should be, because she makes others feel good, too.

PAUL FISHEL

Football 4; Hi-Y 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

"Up, up, my friend, and quit your books,
Why surely you'll grow double.
Up, up, my friend, and clear your looks,
Why all this toil and trouble?"

Even Chemistry can not worry Paul, for he is an experienced man of the world and has found by experience that it is foolish to be bothered by little things like grades. The only thing that preys on his mind is whether the fellows in the towns where the girls play basketball are better looking than he.

NILES WALKER

"To be strong is to be happy."

No one ever saw one of Niles' tribe not strong enough to be happy and he is no exception. It isn't the presence of the girls, but the iron in his blood that makes his cheeks so rosy.

JOHN DEARDEN

Mixed Chorus 1, 4; French Club 4; Social Com. 1, 2.

"It is fortune, not wisdom, that rules man's life."

Although John has a reputation of being happy-go-lucky, he has made his last year count for something in more ways than one, for he has succeeded in winning credits and the respect of everyone.

ELMER REGER "Doc"

Baseball 3, 4; Captain 4; Football 4.

"No man is wiser for his learning."

Elmer is not the boy to worry about anything and that is why he looks prosperous and is so prosperous. No one could convince him that Girls' Basketball is not going to keep improving from now on.

WILLIAM CALE "Chip"

Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 2, 3, 4; Capt. B. B. 3, 4; Vice Pres. 2; Soc. Com. 3.

"His will maketh the man."

Few of us could win four letters in football and be captain of the basketball team two years and still be unconscious of the fact that we had talent. If Bill combines will with talent, the battles of life should prove very easy for him.

CALVIN RICKER "Rick"

Football 4.

"Young fellows will be young fellows."

And no one can accuse this boy of being an old fellow, probably because he never has to work hard. But if he did, we know it wouldn't worry him much, for Calvin just isn't that kind.

WILLIAM ZURCHER "ZUCH"

Football 2, 3, 4; Baseball 2, 3; Literary Society 3, 4.

"I would applaud thee to the very echoes
Which should applaud again."

William must believe in superlatives for never since we have known him has he been found to give any less than his best. And if it should happen that he didn't get all the credit due him, "Zuch" would be the last one to complain.

WILMA McCONNELL "BILLIE"

Mixed Chorus 1; Class Play.

"To be trusted is a greater compliment than to be loved."

This is true but think how much nicer it is to be both trusted and loved as Wilma is. You can count on her to get good grades and never fail in her tasks.

ANNE TRYON "PAT"

Mansfield H. S. Music Club 1, 2, 3; Piano Dept. 3; Blue Triangle 2.

"Charity, gently to hear, kindly to judge."

Anne did not come to us until after the school year had begun, but she entered into our activities with enthusiasm. We wish the year were longer so that we could know her better.

BERYL O'CONNOR "KEWPIE"

Class B. B. 1; Baseball 2, 3, 4; Football 3, 4.

"Hang sorrow, care will kill a cat;
Therefore let's be merry."

One would expect all bad habits to be gone when the august age of eighteen is reached, but Beryl still chews gum. It doesn't hurt him though and since it is such a charming young man who is addicted, every one looks over it and considers it a virtue.

Auto-suggestion of the Class of 1925

ONE bright September morn, bravely flying my colors of green and white, I started on my first trip. Principal Ake drove me to the outskirts of Freshmandale where Mr. Snyder was given control. My first passengers were Algebra, Latin, English the First, Science, and a most remarkable gentleman, Athletics. At first it was very hard to keep on the road as the larger cars tried to crowd me off, but I learned to dodge them, and on account of my speed I soon advanced in the line. Two punctures, the Junior-Freshman reception and the Freshman party, occurred on this part of the journey.

At Sophomore I had to get a new horn for the old one had been blown squeaky at the football and basketball games. Here also I secured a new manager, Miss Helmick, and some new travelers although I yet had to carry some of the old ones. Caesar rode through Gaul with his companions Euclid, History, Bookkeeping and English the Second. Athletics was still with them and was the life of the party. One great blow-out, the Sophomore-Senior reception, took place before I set out upon a much smoother road which led to Junior, a suburb of Senior City.

Here I was given a general over-hauling, which I needed badly, and French, Cicero, a friend of Caesar, Modern History, son of Ancient History, American Literature and a small child called Debate. This child was really a prodigy, and one of my most interesting passengers. Again a fresh driver, Mr. Reed, was put at the wheel. Terrible misfortunes occurred during this part of my journey. I stripped my gears on going over a high hill after Athletics' victories, and all four tires burst with a mighty roar at "Just Plain Mary," and at the Junior-Senior reception my windshield was shattered.

Helping to secure many silver cups along the way, I sped into Senior City in the autumn of 1924. With the new passengers Civics, U. S. History, grandson of Ancient History, and Vergil, a kinsman of Caesar, I hastened on toward Graduation. Although managed by an able driver, Mr. Baker, I could barely withstand such explosions as the Sophomore-Senior reception, the Senior Party, the Senior Circus, and "$100,000 Club Paper" and "Flower of Yeddo."

My body being almost wrecked, my carburetor rattles with fear and dismay as I realize these are my last days. I have only a few more miles to go, and I travel them with sadness, but am comforted by the thought that I have brightened the way for others.

—CLASS OF 1925.

E. U. L. '25.

To the loving memory of our classmate,
WILLIAM C. ZURCHER,
whose life will ever be an inspiration
to us to do higher and better things.

Senior Will

WE, the Seniors, deeming it necessary to distribute our few priceless possessions, make this will on the 28th day of May, 1925.

We bequeath:—

The Faculty to the next Senior class and the rest of the High School, knowing that they are glad to get rid of us.

Mr. Baker, our honorary member, to be the guiding light of another class.

Knowing our school is not yet crowded we leave our "Would-Be's" to fill the vacant seats.

The front seats in chapel, chewing gum included, to next year's Seniors.

Our splendid record in athletics to be bettered by any other class, if possible.

Our French and Vergil ponies to the least intelligent of next year's language students.

Cheer-leading ability of "Nigger" and "Jo" to "Gib" and Virginia.

Stubbornness of "Bud" Mercer to Lloyd Brooks.

Glenn Smith's brilliancy (beneath his hair) to Paul McCoy.

"Bob" Stucky's gift of gab to "Peg" Burnside.

"Cy" Williams' good looks to "Finny" Lafferty.

"Swede" McCoy's retiring modesty to whoever wants it. Don't rush!

Skininness of Deane McManne to "Dick" Shanley.

The bashfulness of "Jim" Torgler and "Bob" Whiteford to "Bob" Winspear and "Benny" Taylor. They need it.

The football ability of "Clydie" and "Chip" to "Kenny" and "Jimmie."

John Roll's hack to the junkman.

The enormous stature of Dean Huff to "Bud" Wages.

The dashing audacity of Harold Bean to "Bud" Minor.

Beryl O'Connor's curls to "Butch" Groff.

Last but not least, to the next year's Seniors, the full rights and privileges of selling those famous "Hot Dogs."

We set our hands and seal on this will and trust that it shall be carried out by the executors.

THE SENIOR CLASS

per "Mutt" Marsh.

CODICIL:

Our enviable reputations as students, and otherwise, to whoever wishes them. Don't be in a hurry; there are plenty for all.

Junior Class History

" 'Twas the first day of school 1922, when all through the school house
Not a creature was still, not even a mouse;
The books were laid out in the office with care,
In hopes that all the pupils would soon be there;
And Mr. Ake in his kerchief, with a very industrious demeanor,
Had just settled down for a long winter's labor—
When out on the campus, there arose such a clatter,
He sprang from his desk to see what was the matter.
Away to the window he flew like a flash,
Tore open the shutters and threw up the sash,
The sun reflecting on the late-fallen leaves
Gave the appearance of bareness to the many trees;
When what to his wondering eyes should appear,
But a great host of students so shy and queer,
He knew in a moment it must be 1926.
More rapid than the wind the favors we did win;
And as dry leaves that before the wild hurricane fly,
When they meet with an obstacle, mount to the sky,
So, up to the top the class of '26 flew,
With a class full of scholars and many stars, too.
Then in a twinkling we made round about
Plans for a party to be given out;
And as we recovered and were turning around,
Down the ladder, once again vacation came around.
When we were Juniors, Mr. Findley stepped in,
Full of knowledge from his crown to his chin,
And his ideas and plans all up to date,
For he never liked for us to be late.
And our studies were a load on our back,
We felt like a peddler carrying a pack.
Our eyes—they were opened, our ears—what they heard!
When we planned a reception for our sister class.
To our hardest of studies, we gritted our teeth,
And the knowledge encircled our heads like a wreath,
When we prepared for exams, right jolly old things,
And Findley smiled when he saw us in spite of himself.
A wink of his eye, and a twist of his head,
Gave us to know we had something to dread.
He spoke not a word but went straight to his work.
We start a play, Miss Hawkins gives the cast a call
And away they all go like a ball,
For "Ruth in a Rush" a success must be."

Sophomore Class History

UPON leaving the eighth grade in the spring of '23 we were all confronted by two paths. The one looked steep and rocky to many, but all could see at the end a great reward. This path was marked "High School Education." The other on the contrary looked smooth and easy to travel; but what was at the end? No one knew. This was marked "Work." A few took the latter path, but the history of the two hundred strong who entered old N. P. H. S. that fall, I shall relate.

We were a large class, and with Mr. Stiffler to guide us, started on the trip. Like all Freshmen Classes we thought we knew a great deal. However, though we were treated very well, we soon learned our place. The greatest event in store for us that year was the reception given for us by the Juniors soon after we came. Later we gave a very successful party for ourselves and in the spring had a picnic at Tuscora Park.

In the fall we returned once more to Philly High, but now in the important role of Sophomores. We started by having a very delightful Halloween party which was highly enjoyed by all.

Everything went along smoothly until shortly after Christmas we ran into a horrible spectre in the form of semester exams. A few of our crowd got pretty well jolted up, while others felt no effects at all. However, before long, we were running as well as ever.

The latter part of January we gave the customary party for the Seniors. It was a huge success, the main attractions being an extremely good minstrel and a dance.

We contributed generously to athletics as well as to everything else to the glory of the High School and we feel that we can be justly proud of our record so far. Next year, when we return as Juniors, we expect to do even more for our school than before.

Freshman Class History

WE, the class of '28, have at last started our long climb up the wonderful High School hill.

For eight long, tiresome years, we slowly climbed the path to Grammar School perfection. At the end of the path we waited several months and then boarded the "Greenville Express." At last on September 8, 1924, we arrived at our destination, one hundred and ninety-six in number. The journey was so steep in some places that a number of foolish classmates fell off. Our kind conductor, Mr. Tharett, immediately stopped this.

The High School hill, as you know, is divided into four sections and we Freshmen had to take the "Greenville" section which is at the very bottom of the hill.

It would have been lonesome, living all by ourselves, but the kind sisterly Juniors gave a reception for us on October 23. After that we felt right at home. Then we began to work and we worked hard all through the blustery winter.

We are looking forward to the Freshman picnic before school closes to help us through the dreaded examination week.

As a Freshman Class we have been well represented in athletics, for we had a number of boys out for football and a large number of girls and boys out for basketball.

Since we are only a Freshman Class, we have not had many opportunities to show what we can do, but in the future we hope to do such important things that people will be astonished at us.

—Margaret Roth, '28.

WHO'S WHO

FLOYD LEAVENGOOD—who holds his audience in anticipation of his forthcoming flow of oratory.

JOHN THOMAS—our elf, with tiny pointed ears on his oval head, and a teasing grin on his round face.

THOMAS EDWARDS—Ichabod Crane, tall, exceedingly lank, with long legs and arms, hands that dangle a mile out of his sleeves, with feet that might have served for shovels, and his whole frame loosely hung together, stalking down the hall, and towering over everyone.

ISABELLE MCNEELY—the cruncher of an endless amount of peanuts.

HARRY SMITH—the school reporter, with his bulging satchel slung over his shoulder, riding down the street on his bicycle in all important, flurried haste.

LAWRENCE SWEANY—the possessor of the most prized collection of freckles.

THELMA MCCOY—the originator of perpetual motion in the form of articulation.

THE HUMERICKHOUSE TWINS—who are as alike as two peas in a pod.

MISS ALBERSON—the cross word puzzle fiend of our high school faculty.

ATHLETICS

Athletics

Foreword

ONE purpose of athletics is the moral training which the students receive. This moral training is just as important as the physical training, if not more so. With the universal idea of developing the moral, mental, and physical training of our future citizens, in mind, we can readily see that a better type of citizen can be produced and thus a better government will be the result. Athletics play a very important role in the High School curriculum for these very reasons. Athletics should be subordinated only to the spiritual and to the mental training of the student.

Teams that are turned out by N. P. H. S. always have been able to compete with the best teams in the state and have been none the worse after the conflict.

The outlook for the coming season is very bright. The football team goes to Chippewa for a week of fall training where "Curly" will get a good line on his men. A championship team is expected. Many letter men are back, headed by Capt. C. Mathias.

There is also a very promising outlook for baseball this season. Piloted by Captain Reger and with almost all of last year's players back, they will make a record to be proud of. Last season, headed by Captain Torgler, they won the county championship under the excellent tutelage of Coach J. A. Baker.

The boys' basketball team, headed by Captain Cale, will have five letter men back and many subs that will hustle the first team men to hold their positions. "Curly" expects a championship aggregation.

The outlook on track is very fine as all the men from last year are out again. Headed by Captain Hanna and coached by "Curly" Stiffler they will be able to take anything on in the state.

Coach Barton will have quite a task before her this year in developing the girls' basketball team as she lost practically all her first line girls. She has a lot of material left from last season and generated by Captain Viva Benedum they should have a fine team.

Summing up the preceding outlook the season of 1924-25 will be one of the best on the annals of N. P. H. S.

JAMES MORGAN "JIM"

STUDENT MANAGER

"Jim" did a fine job of managing this year. He was a manager who came up to "Curly's" expectations. Although he took no active part in the game, he was always on hand at practice. If all future student managers are as capable and successful as "Jim," N. P. H. S. will never be wanting.

H. B. THARETT "HEN"

FACULTY MANAGER

Our success this season was in no small way due to "Hen." He surpassed all expectations by getting such games as those with Massillon and Bellaire. When it came to trips, he surely could arrange them. This is his first year as manager and he has succeeded very well, especially when he arranged for the team to go to Wheeling on the Bellaire trip.

HERBERT STIFFLER "CURLY"

COACH

This is "Curly's" second year at N. P. H. S., and he has indeed made an enviable record as our coach. He never said much but he thought a great deal. Confronted this year with the tremendous responsibility of forming and developing practically a new line, he secured wonderful results. "Curly" is admired and respected by the whole school. We hope that he will be back next year. His results speak for themselves.

H. C. PAULUS "MAJOR"

ASSISTANT COACH

"Major" was a great help in developing the substitutes this year. To verify this anyone who saw the Dover game could see the ability of our "subs." Although not versed in the practical experiences, "Major" knew the fundamentals of the game.

WILLIAM CALE "CHIP"
Halfback '25

Although "Chip" was handicapped this year by his injured knee, he certainly showed them how to play football. This is the best of "Chip's" four years. He is a good line plunger and a speedy open field runner. We hope to hear from "Bill" in college next year and we wish him good luck. Many of the teams on our schedule again next season will be very glad that "Chip" is not in uniform.

(Captain Elect) JAMES CALE "JIMMY"
Halfback '26

"Jimmy" is a versatile and aggressive back field man. He is a player liked by all the team. The fact of his being captain elect shows that "Jimmy" has the qualities of leadership. Good luck to him and good old N. P. H. S. in the coming season.

WILLIAM ZURCHER "ZUCH"
End '25

We liked to hear "Zuch" hit them on the punts. He was an all-around end and a fighter to be feared. He out-played all his opponents and was respected by all. "Zuch" was an all-around man. He was one of the best ground gainers on the team when shifted to the back-field. He sure tore his man up in the Massillon game.

(Captain) CLYDE MATHIAS "CLYDIE"
Quarterback '25

The diminutive quarterback who saved the day against Bellaire. "Clydie's" generalship was never to be questioned. N. P. H. S. hates to lose a man of his courage and stamina. No more need be said of "Clydie" for his deeds have spoken for themselves.

ALBERT CRESCIO "AB"
Tackle '25

"Ab" was one of the heavy men of the squad. This was his first year out and he surely made an enviable record. Any fan who saw the Sebring game could see that he knew football. "Ab" is always willing to be taught and he was sure an excellent pupil in football.

CHARLES GILGEN "CHUCK"
Tackle '26

"Chuck" is another one of the big "huskies." He was slowed up somewhat by injuries. Nevertheless he was an A No. 1 linesman. He played his man to a standstill in the Kent game. He will be with us next year and we hope he will be equally as successful as he has been this year.

JAMES TORGLER "JIMMY"
Fullback '25

"Jimmy" is said to have been the best defensive back on the team. His specialty was running interference and tackling. His vicious tackling was always a sensational sight and when he "clipped" a man he most generally took him down. "Jimmy" is a Senior this year and we lose him. His place will be very hard to fill as his qualities indicate. "Jimmy" no doubt will be heard from in college in the near future.

ELMER REGER "SKEETER"
Fullback '25

"Skeeter" was a fine offensive fullback. When there were a few yards to go "Umbrella" could always plunge it over. Although he was injured in the Massillon game, he went into the Bellaire game the following Saturday not even knowing the new formations, thus showing his plucky spirit. "Skeeter's" place will be very hard to fill next season as he will leave this year.

CARL MIZER "MICE"
Guard '27

Another one of our husky brothers. A fighter thru and thru so a splendid lineman. This is his first year and we can expect much from him in the future years. He will be one of the men that our future teams will be built around. "Sack 'em 'Mice.'"

LLOYD SCHEAR "BUD"
Tackle '25

"Bud" is a quiet fighter and a consistent player. He is a lineman worthy to hold a position on any team. "Bud" is a Senior this year. I think we might hear from him later at Otterbein. Otterbein can be proud of him as we have been.

GLENN SMITH "SMITTY"
End '25

The shifty, speedy end who distinguished himself by his ability to get down the field under punts. He was the "tall boy" who pulled the high passes out of the air and paved the way to touchdowns. We hope that future "ends" will follow his tackling in the Massillon game as an excellent example. "Smitty" is also a Senior and will be greatly missed on the gridiron next season.

FRANKLIN PFAEFFLI "PIFF"
Tackle '25

"Piff" was an all around player. "Curly" could put him at any position on the line and he played them all equally well. "Piff" is a Strasburg product and they can surely be proud of him. He also leaves us and we wish him a successful future.

Sixty-five

WESLEY GARDNER "WES"
Center '26

The position of center was a hard place to fill this year, but "Wes" more than filled it. He played an excellent game against Massillon. He is only a Junior and we hope that he plays as well or better next year. Although a little foolish at times, we know that "Wes" really has the stuff. Tear 'em up next year, "Wes."

BERYL O'CONNOR "KEWPIE"
Halfback '25

"Kewpie" was fast and a good running mate for "Chip." Although rather light, he made up for it by his determined plucky spirit. "Kewpie" certainly showed Alliance how to run for a touchdown. We lose him this year and we know his shoes will be hard to fill.

CALVIN RICKER "RICK"
Quarterback '25

Even though "Rick" was one of our lightest players, he could dig his toes in and fight with the biggest. He certainly showed Sebring how to run with the ball. He leaves this year and we lose a very valuable player. We hope to hear of "Rick" later in some business. So long, "Rick!"

WILBUR HANEY "HOOLEY"
Guard '27

"Hooley" has a few years before him yet, so we hope that he will show the splendid qualities that he has shown this year, namely—vicious tackling, blocking and last but not least, pie eating. "Pie Eater" played an excellent game against Massillon (ask the fellow who played opposite him). Eat 'em up, "Hooley."

Record of Games

The men came back from fall-training camp at Chippewa in fine condition. Minerva had been scheduled for the first game but—we had 70 men out in the first part of the season. Hubbard answered one of the twelve S. O. S. telegrams that our management sent out.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

HERBERT STIFFLER

COACH

"Curly" has had an enviable record as coach of athletics in our school. He is respected and admired by every student. Statistics speak for themselves. The fact that we lost only one game proves what a real coach does for a team. "Curly" knows the game from "a" to "z" and we hope he will be with us next year.

CAPT. WILLIAM CALE

"CHIP"

Forward '25

"Chip" is a three year man and this is his second year as captain. We can truthfully say that this has been his best year even if he was slowed up by football injuries. He was an expert at handling the ball. "Chip" seems to be the right man in the right spot. He was always fighting and "never gave up the ship." He leaves us this year and we wish him success in the future.

JAMES MORGAN "JIMMY"

Forward '25

"Jimmy" is the high point man of our team, having made 162 points this season. He is a master at controlling the ball and a clever, dead shot, and a sure passer. He is a three year man and has lived up to the expectations of the fans. Good luck in the future, "Jimmy."

CLYDE MATHIAS "CLYDIE"
Guard '25

"Clydie" was a hard fighter and was always digging the ball out, which goes a long way in basketball. He also dropped in an occasional basket. He played the guard position and was a "bear" on the offense. This is his second and last year, but he surely made up for the years he did not play.

FRANK PFAEFFLI "PIFF"
Guard '25

"Piff" was the "galloping war horse" of the team. What he lacks in shooting is made up in defense. "Piff" kept them all away from our basket, and was a real man at getting the ball off the bank-board. He is a graduate this year and we hope to hear from him in college.

GLENN SMITH "SMITTY"
Center '25

"Smitty" is an accurate shot. "Long Glenn Smith" as everyone calls him, is our next highest point getter, tallying 97 points. He has the advantage of size and will make a promising center for some college team. This is his second year on the varsity and his shoes will be very hard ones to fill.

Record of Games

N. P. H. S. vs. ALUMNI—The old timers started out with a rush and were ahead 13-8 at the end of the first half. In the second half everyone began to hit the ring. Morgan made 7 points for N. P. H. S. and Hurst 9 for the Alumni.

N. P. H. S. vs. AKRON SOUTH—Akron papers reported it as a practice game for Coach Smith's team of six-footers. Akron got a lot of practice but not enough baskets to win. Dyer and Morgan had quite a battle for the scoring honors.

N. P. H. S. vs. ALLIANCE—Our only loss on the schedule, and accounted for by the fact that we had a hard game the night before, and also because we made only 4 out of 10 fouls. Each team made 10 baskets. In the last half Alliance made 6 to our 4.

N. P. H. S. vs. BELLAIRE—Captain Cale's first game of the season. Bellaire made 4 baskets and 1 foul. N. P. H. S. made 12 baskets and 2 fouls. Our second team played the last quarter. Our defense looked good in this game.

N. P. H. S. vs. DENNISON—Smith and Morgan made 18 baskets in this game, which was to be one of our hardest. Dennison made 5 baskets and 2 fouls.

N. P. H. S. vs. MASSILLON—Playing on a regular football field, the team looked poor the first half, but they came back strong in the second. With Morgan running away from King, N. P. H. S. won the most spectacular game of the season 38-30. Morgan got 9 baskets and 4 fouls, while Grand made 7 baskets and 2 fouls for Massillon.

N. P. H. S. vs. STEUBENVILLE—This would have been a good second team game. It was a good practice game for Morgan, Cale and Smith, for they scored 22 baskets while Steubenville was making 5. Mathias played a nice game, but his shooting eye was a little dull.

N. P. H. S. vs. DOVER—Playing against our old rivals and without the services of our star center, Smith, we completely outclassed them in the last quarter and doubled the score. Morgan and Cale accounted for 16 of our baskets. D. Smith and McMerrill showed up well at center. Clyde's boils didn't slow up his game a bit.

N. P. H. S. vs. EAST LIVERPOOL—We were considered the best team that had appeared on the East Liverpool floor since 1916. Mathias was suffering from boils and did not enter the game. Pfaeffli and Weichsel put up a good defensive game. Morgan was high point man again.

N. P. H. S. vs. AKRON CENTRAL—Akron Central claimed to have the best team in Akron, and their claim was justified, for they gave us a hard run. Morgan was hurt in the first quarter and was of little value the remainder of the game. Smith put up a fine game, and accounted for 14 points.

N. P. H. S. vs. DOVER—With Cale and Morgan out of the game, Dover thought they would finally win a game from us. Our new combination worked beautifully, and at the end of the third quarter the score was 30-12. Phila let down in the last quarter and Dover scored 9 points while we made only 4. G. Smith scored 20 points. Clyde and Pfaeffli played nice ball at defense, while D. Smith and McMerrill dug out the ball like veterans.

DISTRICT TOURNAMENT

N. P. H. S. vs. MILLERSBURG—A good game to start on, and a good start. In the third quarter the team ran on high and looked like the best team at New Concord. Smith hit the hoop 6 times.

N. P. H. S. vs. BELLAIRE—Nuf sed.

Honorable Mention

All the men who helped keep the varsity in practice and condition deserve honorable mention, especially the three men who got in a good many games but not quite enough for letters, namely: McMerrill, Dean Smith, and Weichsel.

AFTERWORD

THE season has been successful as we hoped it would be. In 1924 the baseball team piloted by Captain Torgler won the county championship by defeating Newcomerstown 2 out of 3 games and also cinching the cup from Dover. All the credit for the excellent baseball teams turned out here in the last three years goes to Coach Baker, who has an excellent system for coaching baseball and who knows how to put it over.

The football season of 1924 started with a training trip to Chippewa Lake. This trip put the players in fine condition, for a certain routine was carried out each day. Knowing how this helped our team we hope that this coming football season will see the squad go for a couple of weeks. Many turned out for football when school began. There were as many as 70 men out in one night. Headed by Captain Mathias the team surpassed the highest expectations. "Curly" had a team that N. P. H. S. should always remember and be proud of. The team scored 375 points to its opponents' 55, which speaks for itself.

The boys' basketball team piloted by Captain Bill Cale had a very successful season even if they did not cop the district tourney. We had one of the best teams ever turned out at N. P. H. S. When a team loses only one scheduled game out of eleven, they have a very good percentage. The team also piled up more points than would hardly be expected, scoring 407 points to their opponents' 253. Due credit should be given to the subs. A few of them made the first string men hustle for their positions.

The track team of 1924 had quite a successful season. They participated in several track meets and were second to none in points scored. "Curly" had a fine bunch of men out with practically one man for each event. The 1925 track team coached by "Curly" and generated by Captain Hanna, sprinter extraordinary, are now working out and will be stronger than ever.

Coach Barton had quite a task in developing a new team but she turned the trick. The girls' basketball team had quite a successful season and captained by "Vee" Benedum, played many of the leading teams in this section of the state.

VIVA BENEDUM '25

Forward

Capt. Benedum receives her first letter this year and she certainly has earned it. "Vee" played forward and her guard surely had a time trying to stick to her. She never went down but she came up with a smile. Good-bye "Vee," keep that smile.

HELEN LEGGETT '25

Guard

We also say goodbye to "Babe" Leggett. "Babe" was our manager and she sure scheduled some good games for us. Although "Babe" was very fond of taking slides on the basketball floor she usually had the ball when she stopped. "Babe" may be small—but mighty. Bye-bye, "Baby."

GERTRUDE PHILLIPS '26

Guard

When you come up against "Gert" Phillips you might as well give up hope of ever getting the ball. "Gert" never went after it, but she got it. I don't know what we'd do without her. See you next year, "Gert."

GRACE PFAEFFLI '26

Guard

When it comes to flying, I think Grace Pfaeffli has just about accomplished that feat. She just picks the ball out of the air. "Piff" has received two letters now and expects another next year. Here's hoping.

SARA LOUISE GILGEN '27

Forward

We have with us this year for the first time "Toodie" Gilgen. "Toodie" still has two years and if she keeps improving as she has been, she will be some player. We hope that she will be our future center. Good luck, "Toodie."

KATHERINE KINSEY '26

Guard

Katie Kinsey is another player who helps us in our defense. Although Katie is a sub, we couldn't have done without her. We hope she steps into first place next year.

HAZEL STAHL '26

Forward

I don't know what we would have done without "Stahlie." I am sure our scores would have been pretty low as she is our "sharpshooter." "Haze" played sub last year, but I really don't know why.

LEAH FRIBLEY '26

Forward

Last but not least—comes our dependable "Horse Haggerty." Leah has surely done her best and her letter is well earned. "Horse" is an all-around girl and her size makes her not only heard but seen. We are glad that you will be with us next year, "Horse."

BEULAH BARTON

COACH

Again we meet Miss Barton. She has been with us for several years and in that time has turned out winning teams. Miss Barton was a jolly, good coach on our trips and the team tried to win, if only for her. She may have gotten discouraged once in a while but it didn't seem to last. We only hope that she will be with us next year and if so, that she has a successful season.

JAMES MORGAN "JIM"
RF '25

Last season was "Jim's" first year for varsity baseball, but he made a fine outfielder. "Jim" was second to none in fielding a fly ball, and he made many good and difficult catches. He is the possessor of a fine throwing arm and ought to be a great asset to the varsity this coming season.

J. A. BAKER
COACH

Words can hardly express our appreciation for "Coach." As a baseball coach you surely have to take your hat off to him. With a professional baseball experience he knows the game from "a" to "z." He coached the varsity how to use the famous "squeeze" play and also a defense against it. He is one of the few men who have put N. P. H. S. on the baseball map. Taking charge of baseball three years ago with only one letter man back, Coach Baker turned out an excellent team. N. P. H. S. won the county championship last season. The same team is back this year, so from all indications "Coach" will turn out a team that will be second to none in the state.

CLAUDE McMATH "NIGGER"
P '25

"Nigger" was the lanky fellow that used to "wip" them over the plate. He was one of the pitchers that helped us to win the county championship and to get the cup from Dover. Although he did not get into as many games as some of the players, he certainly made up for it when he did get in. We are very sorry that "Nigger" is ineligible and cannot be with us this season, as there will be a much harder strain on our pitching staff with such a large schedule in view.

CARL WILLIAMS "Cy"
LF '25

"Cy" was the hard-slugging left fielder of the varsity, and was chosen All-county left fielder. "Cy" is noted for his ability to clout the ball. When "Cy's" hitting is talked about, all is not said for he was a wonder at going deep or coming in fast and making a catch that is rarely seen in amateur baseball. "Cy" was a Junior, too, so he will be one of the varsity this season.

BERYL O'CONNOR "KEWPIE"
P '25

Beryl's fine pitching was one of the main cogs in our winning most of our games. Beryl also played outfield when he was not pitching, making a fine record in that position, too, by his many star catches and heady plays. Most pitchers are not supposed to be good batters, but Beryl was an exception to the rule, as he hit the "pill" consistently and hard. Beryl was chosen second pitcher on the All-county team. He was only a Junior so he should go great this season.

(Captain Elect) ELMER REGER "SKEETER"
CF '25

"Skeeter" is the boy who always has a grin on his face. "Jigger" was picked as All-county center fielder and he surely deserved it. Reger was always making a sensational play, "the shoe-string" catch. He has one more year as have the rest of the baseball varsity. He is captain elect and is a fine fellow to lead the coming team.

GLENN SMITH "SMITTY"
SS and C '25

"Smitty" was All-county shortstop. He was the boy who always had a line to hand the opposing batters, which usually got them "fussed." "Smitty" was clean-up man and almost always came through. He is a good, heady player with a strong arm. Very few players stole second base on him. "Smitty" was a Junior and should go like a "house-on-fire" this season.

WILLIAM ZURCHER "ZUCH"
3B '25

"Zuch" was the heavy hitter of the team. He had a very hard position to play as he cavorted round the "hot corner." "Zuch" saved many a game by scooping up a hot one and shooting it to first base or by a timely hit. "Zuch" was fast on the bases and played "heads-up-ball" the whole season. Newcomerstown had good reasons to fear him when he came to bat.

GILBERT ENOLD "GIB"
SS and C '26

This was "Gib's" first year but he was just as important as any man on the varsity. He is another all-around baseball player. He is a fine batter and a sure fielder. "Gib" is one of the little men on the varsity, but he held down his position like a giant. He was only a Sophomore, so he will be a seasoned veteran this season and we can expect great things from him.

(Captain) JAMES TORGLER "JIMMY"
1B and P '25

"Jimmy" was picked for the All-county first baseman. He was also the instigator in winning several games by his fine pitching. He was a consistent hitter and knew how to lay down a perfect bunt. "Jimmy" was Coach Baker's all-round man. He formerly played the out-field but a first baseman was needed so he was shifted. "Jimmy" was only a Junior so we can expect great things from him this season. As captain he led his team to many victories.

CLYDE MATHIAS "CLYDIE"
2B '25

Never having played much baseball before, "Clydie" was somewhat handicapped, but when "Coach" took him in hand, he developed so fast that he soon looked like an old-timer on the diamond. "Clydie" was the beginner of many a double play and was no slouch when it came to slugging. He will no doubt be one of the main cogs this season.

Track

After a lapse of five years, track athletics have been resumed in the New Philadelphia High School.

Track is valuable for developing football material for coming years, so spring football and track were combined under one head, track.

The result of our first year was very gratifying. In our track meets we were unusually successful for having green material. Partly as a result of this track work, our football team changed from fourteen second men to twelve second men.

Our first track competition was against Wooster in a dual meet. Wooster had a veteran aggregation, but N. P. H. S. won every one of the running and jumping events, while Wooster won the weight events.

In this meet McMath set a new county mark in the high jump at 5 ft. 10 in. He also won the 100-yard dash. Morgan was high point man, by winning three firsts and one second; he scored eighteen points. Hanna showed his heels to Gimble, the Wooster flash, in both the 100- and 220-yard dashes. Mathias had little opposition in the mile and half mile. Williams won the quarter mile.

Our next meet was at Wooster and against such schools as Akron Central, East, South, West, Mansfield, Ashland, Wooster and Orrville; N. P. H. S. finished second, just eight points behind Akron South. Hanna, McMath, Smith, Mathias, Zurcher, Morgan, and Williams were point winners.

With every one of these point winners, except Zurcher, back in school, and with a squad of sixty men working out every evening, we hope to have a record breaking track team this year.

A little bit of Caesar,
A little bit of Cicero,
Helps to fill the place
Where crazy people go.

CAN YOU IMAGINE—

Miss Felton at leisure?
Miss Alberson without her vocabulary?
"Baby" Lawrence grown up?
James Fair a great scientist?
Carl Williams not speaking in a monotone?
Bill Cale at the head of his class?
Mr. Baker not worrying about the Seniors?
Jim Morgan ambitious?
Isabelle Burnside hurrying?
Mr. Paulus a teacher of English?
Chapel undisturbed by coughing?
Miss Helmick with a little superfluous flesh?
A class of wide-awake, alert pupils?
Paul Fishel not "Stahl"-ing?
"Smitty" not "Abel?"
The "Freshies" as Seniors?
"Howdy" Ley playing football?
The faculty wanting a vacation?
Teddy McCoy or Bob Scott silent?
Bud Mercer not arguing with someone?
Arline Graff taking a test?
Lester Kirk passing in a subject?
Tom Edwards short?
Park Urban frowning?
Robert Whiteford flirting?
Mr. Curtis on the police force?
An intelligent question from John Dearden?

"WHY TEACHERS GET GRAY:"

"Not prepared."
"I don't have it."
"I didn't have time."
"I didn't get over all of it."
"That is as far as I got."
"I forgot the lesson."
"Mr. So and So wanted the outline handed in and I didn't have time for the rest of my lessons."
"I was not here yesterday."
"I was ill and didn't know the lesson."
"I didn't know we had that."

Oh, chemist of skill, investigate
And answer this question of mine;
I think I know when Carbonate,
But where did Iodine?

THE Delphian Staff extends its thanks to the following who helped to make the 1925 annual a success:

Miss Stockwell.

The Acme Printing Co.

The Photographers.

The Student Body.

The Stenographers.

The Salesmen.

The Northern Engraving Co.

Dazzy Vance—"I wish Napoleon had been Russian."

Friend—"Why?"

Dazzy—"That's what I put down on my paper."

Paulus (to Dorothy R.)—"Don't you know that question; you aren't as dumb as I am, are you?"

D. R.—"Well! Maybe!"

Miss Rutledge—"What is a fraternity?"

Rachel Larimore—"It's just like a girls' dormitory."

Frances Endres—"I'm not going to be married when I grow up; I'm going to be a widow."

Nigger McMath (after a World Series game when Walter Johnson got beaten)—"Well, the best pitcher doesn't always win because I got beat once pitching for the high school."

Miss Hawkins—"This class must write out five of the fifteen reports."

Happy Haney—"Gee—I thought you said we could write them orally."

Sophomore—"How was Napoleon of any good?"

Miss Alberson—"Well, he was every inch a man, but he didn't have very many inches."

Constance Bell—"I just got hold of a tender piece of meat."

James Bartley—"Impossible."

Constance—"Yes,—I just bit my lip."

Bus. English sentence as it should be—"Every one can learn to ride a bicycle if he is persevering."

Clyde Mathias—"Every one can learn to ride a bicycle if he is perserving."

E. Bebout—"I don't think I can think of it."

Mr. Curtis—"What happens when the barometer falls?"
Freshman—"It breaks."

Miss Stockwell (Eng. III)—"Give an example of a love song."

Ed. Harris—"The Song of Love."

Miss Stockwell—"What did you say?"

Ed. Harris—"The Song of Love. Didn't you ever hear it?"

Fresh.—"You guys don't know how to get along with Findley, that's all. Now you want to go in and humor him the way I do."

Soph.—"Huh! You don't humor him, you amuse him."

Eddie A.—"Why does a stork stand on one leg?"

Paul M.—"Dunno, why?"

Eddie—"If he lifted both of them, he would fall."

Mr. Findley (noticing the boys standing back and letting the girls take the "Schick test")—"Are you boys all afraid to take it first?"

Sophomore—"No, but we wouldn't be gentlemen if we didn't let the ladies go first."

H. L. grabs C. K.'s hand when C. K. tries to untie his shoe string.

Miss Helmick—"I think you are pretty young to do that. I always thought it was the Seniors who did that."

Mr. Lawrence—"What is a phaeton?"

"Dixie" Barnes—"It is a carriage where the people sit in front of the driver."

Major Hoople (in detention)—"We'll have no more liberties in here."

Battling Armstrong—"Give me liberty or give me death."

Major—"Who said that?"

Battler—"Patrick Henry."

Mr. Schear (after a discussion in Civics about the governmental department)—"What department of the government would you rather be a member of?"

Edna Leffler—"Executive."

Howard Ley—"Gee, 'Rosie' is so dumb; he doesn't know the war is over."

Richard Nixon—"What war?"

Paul Fishel (trying to blow a saxophone)—"What do you do with your tongue?"

Hazel Stahl (looking wise)—"Keep it in your mouth."

If we were all as hard as Mr. Paulus thinks he is, no one could digest us.

Mr. Curtis—"A man might just as well buy a dog license as a marriage license for if he buys the latter, he will lead a dog's life anyhow."

Ask Mr. Paulus if this is true.

A. Lawrence—"What is insurance?"

Velma Clark—"Sometimes when you are insured you get the money when you become a certain age; the other way you get it when you die."

Bob Stucky—"Brandt found phosphorus in Hamburg."

Mr. Schear—"Mr. Gillett is the presiding officer of the House of Representatives."

Harold Rosenberry—"Is he any relation to the razor?"

What we hear every day in Senior English:

Nigger McMath—"I don't know."

Park R.—"Unprepared."

John D.—"I forget."

John Webster—"I don't believe there is anything more I can add to what has been said."

Spring is here—

Some of the Juniors haven't grown up yet. Duvoine Lahey dropped some marbles in the seventh period French class.

"Peg" Burnside—"Do you know that Finney Lafferty fell off a tree while posing for a picture?"

Isabelle Burnside—"How cute. That's falling action."

Julia Maier (in Chemistry)—"Why do they put lye in pretzels?"

Peg. B.—"To give them a kick?"

Miss Helmick—"You're wrong. It's to give them a twist."

Alice English (in Civics)—"The New York Times publishes each evening a list of army officers, telling if they went on their vacations, if they have died, and where they went."

Miss Helmick—"All right, Margaret put your chewing gum in the waste paper basket."

Peg—"Say, that's an awful waste; I just started to chew it the last period."

Frank Pfaeffli put a dime in the scales thinking he would get weighed ten times. Is he dumb?"

"Nick" Hinig (after he killed a lady's poodle with his Ford)—"I'm sorry I killed your dog. Will you allow me to replace him?"

Lady—"Oh, dear, this is so sudden."

Ruth A. (while Xmas shopping)—"Oh, look at those cute perfume extinguishers."

"Appreciate a joke, my friends,
And then you can't go wrong;
You'll never wear sorrow's yoke, my friend,
And you'll always find a song.

"There's a joke wherever you go, my dears,
And a laugh on every tree;
So hunt flowers under the snow, my dears,
And wear a smile for me."

Mr. Curtis (in Science)—“If the brain had to control every movement that we would make some of us would die. Why?”

Park R.—“Because some haven’t got any!”

Mr. Lawrence—“I am tempted to give you an examination!”

C. Mathias (in a whisper)—“Yield not to temptation.”

Mr. Curtis (violently shaking an inattentive student)—“Boys and girls, this is experiment number 1.”

Miss Hawkins (in English)—“What is a concrete noun?”

Carl Meiser—“Cement.”

St. Peter—“Did you buy a Delphian?”

Soph.—“No-oo.”

St. Peter—“Show this man below.”

Glen A.—“That sure is a flaming tie you got on, Jack.”

Jack B.—“You’re right, I got it at a fire sale.”

Curtis (in Science)—“What makes our moon shine?” (Roar).

Peg Burnside—“Say! is there a state called Oregon?”

Lecturer—“What have you done to save our timber?”

Nig. McM.—“I shot a woodpecker once.”

Miss Helmick (in Chemistry)—“What happens to the molecules in water when it is heated?”

Peg Burnside—“They boil.”

Helen Hall—slamming Roberta Stucky in Lab.

R. Stucky—“I’m tempted to slap your face.”

E. Bebout—“Control yourself, Bob, control yourself.”

Friend—“I thought you took geometry last year.”

Archie Davis—“I did, but the faculty encored me.”

Jack B.—“Bob, you better get a hair cut.”

Bob Anderson—“Why?”

Jack—“It’s cheaper than buying a violin.”

F. Edie (in Chemistry)—“I tell you, we have a good gas line from Oldtown.”

Elizabeth Bebout (reading headline in Science News Letter: “Pigs’ Rheumatism Cured by Sunshine”)—“Do you suppose that would help Dad?”

Miss Helmick—“How do ships go through the Panama Canal?”

Rachel Larimore—“They float.”

Miss Helmick—“What is the life history of the milkweed butterfly?”

Charles Campbell—“After it is an egg and a worm, then it goes into the poppy stage.”

Miss Helmick (in Chemistry)—“Miss Burnside, did you ever see anyone put a mantel on a gas jet?”
Peg—“Well—I’ve looked.”

Mary Mercer—“What is the difference between a whale and a shark?”
Miss Helmick—“Oh, I imagine about 400 lbs.”

Fritz Rea—“Metzger got two U’s and two S’s on his report card.”
Peg Burnside—“What in?”

Julia Maier (talking about Lord Rockingham, Prime Minister of England)
—“He only lived two months the second time.”

Freshie—“I’m going to wear my scout suit this afternoon.”
E. R.—“Mm-hm.”
Freshie—“You don’t even know what I said.”
E. R.—“Yes I do.”
Freshie—“What?”
E. R.—“You’re going to wear your socks on Thanksgiving.”

Clyde—“Do you remember when we met in the revolving doors?”
Bright Young Thing—“Yes, that’s when we started going around together, wasn’t it?”

Mr. Paulus—“What is the matter? Was there a dance somewhere last night?”
John Donahey—“Yes—down at the Bronx Hall.”
Mr. Paulus—“Well, I think we had better move this history class down to the Bronx.”

Virginia Cooke—“Mr. Rudy is always praising my figure—”
Madge A.—“Heavens!! What on earth???”
Virginia (calmly)—“that I made in geometry the other day.”

Battling Armstrong—“I fell last night and hit my head on the piano.”
John Webster—“Hurt yourself, Battler?”
Battler Himself—“No, luckily I hit the soft pedal.”

W. Gardner lets out a big laugh.
D. Smith—“Where on earth did Gardner get that laugh?”
J. Cale—“I guess he got it down at the Racket Store.”

Peg Burnside—“Did the State Militia go from Columbus to Niles on horse-back?”

Several of the football boys asked “Piff” to take them to the field for practice.
He replied.—“Nothing doing. I have a load already. I’m taking Dick Shanley.”

Mr. Lawrence (explaining prepositions)—“Where are you at?”
Joe Moore—“Present.”

Elmer Reger—"We have a new altar in our church. You should see it."
Sarah Jones—"Lead me to it, Elmer."

Miss Rutledge—"Now, who can give me the tenses of the verb to knife?"
Armstrong—"I can! Knife, fork, and spoon."

Miss Helmick—"Charles, what is the difference between a sigh, a deer, and a monkey?"

Charles Campbell—"I don't know."

Miss Helmick—"A sigh is Oh, dear! a deer is A deer!"

C. C.—"What about the monkey?"

Miss H.—"U (you) dear."

Miss Hawkins—"The cow came through the gate. What mood?"

Freshie—"The cow."

Julia Maier (at chorus practice)—"I'm sorry, but my asthma won't allow me to be in the show."

Lillian Ault—"Oh, is that what you call him now, Julia?"

Tarzan Zurer—"Have you any punkin' pie?"

Teddy McCoy—"Sure, the pie is all punk in here!"

Mrs. Evans—"Did you mail that important letter I gave you this morning, Catherine?"

C. Evans—"Indeed I did, mother."

Mrs. Evans—"But why have you brought back the two cents I gave you for the stamp?"

C. Evans—"I didn't need to use it, mother. I slipped the letter into the box when nobody was looking."

Jack B.—"We'll be friends to the end."

Paul McCoy—"Lend me ten dollars."

Jack—"That's the end."

Miss Stockwell—"Give me the definition of a concrete word."

Chuck Gilgen (coming out of a dream)—"A concrete word is one made of cement."

Mrs. Cale—"Yes, Billy is such an industrious boy. He is so interested in a medical course. It even affects his sleep. Why the other night I heard him say in his sleep, 'For Heaven's sake, give me those bones.'"

Girl—"I'm very fond of you, George."

George Collins—"Then we shall get along splendidly. I'm very fond of myself!"

Teacher (in Commercial Geography)—"Wilbur, what do they have in Turkey?"

Happy Haney—"Turkish towels!"

Mr. Lawrence—"Do you sit or set a hen?"

Joe Moore—"A hen lays."

Sept. 29—Back to school. More rain!

Sept. 30—Rain! Rain! More rain! A new model three door Dodge (Bebouts') has been introduced.

OCTOBER

Oct. 1—Sun at last! Everyone smiles. "It ain't gonna rain no mo'." "Teddy" McCoy pins a bathing girl on Park Reiser's back.

Oct. 2—First day in Chemistry Lab. A few necks and ears lost. The worst is yet to come.

Oct. 3—Second rally. Not so much pep. "Nigger" shows his squelching power.

Oct. 4—N. P. H. S.-27. Kent-0. All right, "Clydie."

Oct. 6—New bulletin boards appear in upper hall. Mr. Tharett has a cold. Try Vick's Vap-o-Rub, Henry.

Oct. 7—Schick test. Some germicidal substance has come to our athletic director's rescue and his voice is clearer.

Oct. 8—Boys begin to put up bleachers. Mr. Decker stops his Economics class to give Roberta Stucky a chance to talk. Unusual? Rather!

Oct. 9—John Webster has 15c. What for? "Teddy" McCoy has lost her waist-line.

Oct. 10—Mr. Jones, Senator Willis' secretary, speaks to students. "Punk" Warner gives us a little (?) lecture in rally.

Oct. 11—Everyone who can goes to Alliance. We, who can't go, hang around the long distance 'phone. At last! N. P. H. S.-39. Alliance-6!!!!

Oct. 13—Esther Stone is very ill.

Oct. 14—Seniors send flowers to Esther.

Oct. 15—We regret to say that our revered history professor, Mr. Paulus, has tonsillitis. Mr. Schear very ably takes his place.

Oct. 16—Mr. Paulus is still afflicted. Mr. Schear is still sufficing. "Teddy" McCoy takes Senior attendance in Mr. Paulus' place. Report cards out!!!

NOVEMBER

Nov. 1—A crowd goes to Steubenville and comes back with 13-6 written all over us. "Smitty" badly knocked out.

Nov. 3—Park Reiser gets kicked out of study hall. Mr. Green brings up the Senior pictures. John Sweany and "Kirkie," who had a short vacation, are with us again.

Nov. 4—Senior history classes take a straw vote. Winners are Coolidge, Donahay and the Bond Issue. We'll wait and see. Ed. Harris tells us about his trip this summer.

Nov. 5—Everybody sat at the radio all night. Our straw vote is verified.

Nov. 6—A stray breeze destroys the hair groom results on "Bob" Whiteford and "Cy" Williams.

Nov. 7—Big rally and snake dance for tomorrow's game. Two new Junior cheer leaders show their stuff. Some rally!

Nov. 8—Massillon-20. N. P. H. S.-7. Anyhow it's a moral victory. You should see our cheer leaders!

Nov. 10—There seems to be trouble in the library. The fellows tell their story in a special rally. That man Crescio sure can talk.

Nov. 11—The trouble in the library is quiet for Armistice day, but some people still wear strange expressions. Mr. Pierce, director of religious education, tells us some things.

Nov. 12—Literary Society hears some Seniors debate the negro question. Also Mr. Zurcher extemporaneously.

Nov. 13—John Donahey has lost part of his upper lip. Use an auto strop, boys. It makes a difference!

Nov. 14—No rally for Bellaire out of sympathy for our tired team.

Nov. 15—N. P. H. S.-12. Bellaire-9. And we didn't have a rally. Now for Dover!

Nov. 17—No football practice. We smell snow. The cross word puzzle bug has bit N. P. H. S.

Nov. 18—First snow. What makes "Bob" Stucky look so happy? The mailman must have come.

Nov. 19—A mysterious bang from the back of the Economics class wakes Park Reiser and "Tarzan." Too bad, boys, you're good when you're asleep.

Nov. 20—Miss Beaber and "Lydge" Horger sing inspiringly in French class.

Nov. 21—All delegates to eighth Y. P. C. excused early. Seniors go home right away to bake pies and cakes for tomorrow.

Nov. 22—The town is swamped with delegates. Seniors busy selling eats. Everyone else busy buying.

Nov. 23—Delegates still here. Everyone sick from Senior eats.

Nov. 24—Helen Hall pulls a boner in Chemistry class. (You don't need to look in the joke box; it wouldn't pass).

Nov. 25—Esther Stone is receiving callers. Let's all go at once.

Nov. 26—Big rally and lots of speeches for the Turkey game. Senior letter men confide in us, especially "Tarzan," who lets us know he always has liked to make speeches. Wish we had known it.

Nov. 27—Dover's "moral victory," 64-0. Moral: ????? There has been an accident on Stonecreek road.

Nov. 28—"Tarzan" Zurcher is dead. There is nothing for us to do. Let us all play our last game as he did.

Nov. 29—We are still stunned. That was too much.
