FOREWORD

To picture and tell of you, for you are the stuff life's made of. To give you a glimpse of N. P. H. S. in every phase. To bring back to you, in the future, happy memories of your high school days.

These are the purposes of this Delphian.

TO OUR FATHERS AND MOTHERS

Abstract

You have cared for us and guided us from infancy. You have sympathized with us in time of trouble, and cheered us on in time of honor and glory.

May it be our purpose in life to fulfill your hopes for us. So to you, our mothers and fathers, we, the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-Eight, gratefully dedicate this volume of the Delphian.

GREATER THINGS

A few more days until our graduation, A few more days . . . but we will not be through With strife. A few more days of happy working ; And then we'll have the greater things to do.

A few more days-weavers of wond'rous mem'ries Of Philly High. To her we'll e'er be true.
But soon we leave, to choose a different pathway; And then-we'll have the greater things to do.

A few more days-and those so full of joy, Perhaps some sorrow and a tear or two; But we'll remember, in our tasks of lifetime, Of how she taught us greater things to do.

HAZEL DIENST "Pee Wee"

Honor Club 2, 3, 4; Delphian Stenographer 4
"Pee. Wee" just describes this little girl. She doesn't say very much, but when she does speak, everyone listens, for Hazel is usually right as her grades will show. Her many good qualities have won for her a host of friends.
:: :: ::

HAROLD JENKINS "Lefty"

"Lefty" is another member of the well-known Jenkins family. He seems to like baseball and was a member of the team for two years. He is well-liked among all the students, although he seems very quiet at times.

$$
:: \quad:: \quad::
$$

JOHN THOMAS "Jack"

John is small but full to the brim with humor and good nature. In addition to this he can be more serious and thoughtful than most fellows we know. We expect John to get along well in life.
:: :: ::

BARBARA FAYE KING

Class Play 3, 4; Class Treasurer 3: Girls' Glee Club 3, 4; Literary Society 4; Latin Club 2, 3; French Club 4; Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4; Girl Reserves-Hi-Y Play 4.

:: \quad:: \quad::
$$

MARY CAMPBELL "Brownie"

Mary has the quality of being a real friend. She is always willing and glad to help when she is needed. We wish there were more "Marys" in our class in this respect.

THE DELPHIAN

S E N I O R S

CAROLINE STOLLER "Callie"

Girl Reserves 4.
This shy little lady is always so thoughtful and considerate of others that we are sure she hasn't an enemy anywhere. She doesn't try to create any excitement, but quietly goes along, doing her share in whatever task is placed upon her.

$$
:: \quad:: \quad:
$$

JoSEPH ROBINSON "Joe"

Stage Manager for Senior Play.
Joe has auburn hair but his temperament is quite different. He is very jolly. Joe never speaks except when he has something worth while to say. We admire you, Joe.

$$
:: \quad:: \quad:
$$

ANNE LUTHER "Ann"

Girl Reserves 4; Glee Club 4.

:: \quad:: \quad::
$$

DONALD DALLAS "Don"

Hi-Y 4; Glee Club 4; Girl Reserves-HiY Play 4.

:: :: ::

NAOMI KRAUSS

Latin Club 1; Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4; French Club 4; Literary Society 4.

S E N I O R S

LAWRENCE KOBELT "Toots"

Football 4; Basketball 4; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Literary Society 2, 3, 4; French Club 4; Class Play 3; Delphian Staff 3, 4.

Girl Reserves 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 1, 3, 4; French Club 4; Basketball 3; Class play 3, 4; Girl Reserves-Hi-Y Play 4; Delphian Staff 4.

Jane is a very unusual girl for there seems to be no end to her talents. As art editor for the Delphian she has surpassed all our hopes. To those who know Jane the O. S. U. pennant needs no explanation.

$$
:: \quad:: \quad::
$$

CHESTER JENKINS "Chet"

Baseball 3, 4; Football 4; Basketball 4; Class Play 3, 4; Class President 3; Delphian Staff 4; French Club 4.
"Chet" can be described fully in one word "versatility." He is at home anyplace he happens to be, in the classroom, on the basketball floor, or on the gridiron. He has done his part in athletics ever since he has been in high school so we know that he will be missed next year.
:: :: ::

GERTRUDE RIES "Dick"

Girl Reserves 3, 4; Literary Society 4; Latin Club 2, 3, 4; French Club 3, 4; Class Play 3, 4.

Gertrude made herself very well known in "The Belle of Philadelphia Town" and "Nancy Ann." Gertrude never has much to say but when she forgets herself, the opposite is true. She is always ready to help anyone who needs her aid.

$$
:: \quad:: \quad:
$$

CHARLES OLMSTEAD "Chuck"

Latin Club 3, 4; Baseball 4; Football 4; Senior Play 4; Vice-President Class 4; Delphian Staff' 3, 4.
"Chuck" is small but mighty! He is the "Sunny Jim" of our class. He is never without a smile and a cheery greeting for everyone. It is no wonder that he is everyone's favorite. He more than earned his football letter.

This fair haired maiden can make anyone, especially the boys, do as she wants them to do. She is at home any-where-in the classroom, on the basketball floor, in social affairs, in a debate and even in cheer leading. Ray's devotion to the Delphian has been the one great factor in its success.

"Sheeny" is a great deal of a sailor, for he has a sweetheart in every port. He has certainly contributed his share to N. P. H. S., having played both football and basketball. "Sheeny" is well known for his excellent tenor voice.

ELIZABETH McCREARY "Betty"

Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 3, 4; French Club 4; Senior Play 4; Girl Re-serves-Hi-Y Play 4.

$$
:: \quad:: \quad::

LYLE GRAY

Lyle won the prize for burning up the gas in his "junk truck;" perhaps that explains why we have not seen it lately. Both this truck and its driver were formerly familiar to us but now it is the driver about whom we are concerned. Lyle has been a valuable asset to the class of ' 28 .

ELIZABETH EVANS "Betty"

Here is our "Rex" who is one of the best known girls in the class. Her red hair does not signify that she has a temper, because she is nearly always happy. Her wit makes her the life of the party.
:: :: ::

CARL MINNIDEO "Pee Wee"

Orchestra 2, 3, 4; Band 3, 4; Senior Play 4; Football Manager.

$$

$$

HELEN ALEXANDER "Alex"

Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4; Latin Club 2, 3; Literary Society 4; French Club 4.

Helen does not talk very much, but we have learned from experience that she has a sterling character. Helen can always be depended upon to do anything which she is asked; she has never been known to shirk.

$$
:: \quad:: \quad::

$$
:: \quad:: \quad:
$$

GEORGE HALL "Jock"

Honor Club 2, 3.
George always shows his ability in history and everything else he undertakes including love, but then, "All the world loves a lover." We do not believe George to be like "Georgie Porgie Pudding and Pie" who kissed a girl and marle her cry and then ran away; this George would rather stay. (?)

$$
:: \quad:: \quad::
$$

MARGARET ACKERMAN "Peg"

Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Literary Society 2, 3, 4; Latin Club 2, 3, 4; French Club 3, 4; Girl Reserves-Hi-Y Play 4; Senior Play

ORPHA CRITES "Critsie"

$$
:: \quad:: \quad::
$$

RUTH RALSTON "Rudie"

Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4; Latin Club 2, 3, 4; Literary Society 4; Class Play 4.

Ruth is always giggling but of this one thing you may be sure, she laughs with you and not at you. According to various reports, Ruth must be a good cook. Good luck, Ruth!

$$
\because \quad:: \quad::
$$

LORN McCARTNEY "Mac"

Baseball 2, 3; Basketball 3; Junior Play; (Leesville High School).

Lorn is a new man. He has been so quiet since his arrival here that we have failed to know him very well. We are glad that Lorn decided to come to N. P. H. S. to graduate with us.

$$

$$

FLORENCE JANE HOWARD "Fluff"

Honor Club 2, 3, 4; Girl Reserves 3, 4; Sec'y.-Treas. 2; Girl Reserves-Hi-Y Play 4; Glee Club 4.

Everybody listens when Florence recites and her suggestions and opinions are always respected. That Florence's hobby is music we have learned by hearing her play many times and by attending "Tulip Time." We believe that we shall regard Florence and her music in awe some day as we do Paderewski now.

S E N I O R S

MERVIN McQUEEN "Merv"

"Merv" decided that he would rather graduate with the class of ' 28 so he remained behind a year. We are glad that he did for we have enjoyed very much having him in our class.

```
:: :: ::
```

MARY JANE KINSEY "Kinsey"

MARION WESTHAFER

Marion works hard so we seldom hear him say, "I don't know." He played on our football team in '26 and he always played well. We are glad he is a member of our class.

$$
:: \quad:: \quad::
$$

GERTRUDE LEISER "Gertie"

Gertrude is one girl we never hear much about. However, she seldom fails to recite in history, so she evidently spends a lot of time studying. We are glad you belong to our class, Gertrude.
:: :: ::

DORAL McCARTNEY "Mick"

Basketball 3; Baseball 2, 3; Junior Play; (Leesville High School).

Doral came to us only last year but there was a place for him in our class and he fitted in very well. We are glad you chose to come to N. P. H. S. for your Senior year, Doral.

MARY HENDERSON "Marilee"

Quiet and sedate describes Mary. Her charming personality makes her wellloved by all her classmates. A better natured or happier girl than Mary would be hard to find.

WILLIAM GIBSON "Bill"

Glee Club 4; Band 3, 4; Orchestra 4; Latin Club 2, 3; Class Play 3, 4; Minstrel 3, 4; Hi-Y 4; Track 4.

Bill is a strong advocate of the doctrine of "All work and no play makes Bill a dull boy." Work (school work that is) is a secondary matter in his young life. Bill's attention seems to be divided between the band, the pony (yes, Bill is the champion pony driver of the city) and somebody else, we need not tell you who.

JUNE HURST "Hurstie"

Orchestra 1; Girl Reserves 4; Literary Society 4; Delphian Stenographer 4.

June's winning ways and charming personality are well-known. She makes the most of every minute; that is the reason she always has her lessons. Her main center of interest lies outside of our school; nevertheless, she survives.

WALTER SMITH "Fat"

Band 3, 4; Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Physics Lab. Ass't 4; Football 3, 4; Senior Play; Class Treasurer 4.

Everybody knows Walter because he is big, handsome, black-haired treasurer of our class and he is a good one too. He never undertakes anything that he can not accomplish. Walter seems rather particular in his tastes concerning certain persons but we feel he will find the "one" soon.

$$

SARA BANKS "Sally"

Glee Club 3, 4; Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4; Latin Club 3, 4; French Club 3, 4; Girl Reserves 2, 3, 4; Girl Reserves Hi-Y-Play 4.

Sally is always very lively and cheerful. We can see by her list of activities that she has been very active while in high school. What would the Class of 1928 have done without Sally and her jokes!

:: :: ::

BYRON BROWN "By"

Byron is not very large nor does he make very much noise, but he has been a valuable asset to our class. We are glad he chose N. P. H. S. in which to secure his high school education.

$$
\text { :: } \quad:: \quad:

VIRGINIA MAGRUDER

Virginia is the living example of the saying "Valuable things come in small parcels." Virginia is so small we hardly know that she is about; nevertheless, she has occupied a big place in N. P. H. S. ever since she has been here.

S E N I O R S

ROBERT McCREARY  "Bob"

$\mathrm{Hi}-\mathrm{Y} 2,3$.

:: :: ::

HARLEY SHAFFER "Swede"

Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Track 2, 3, 4; Football 3, 4; Basketball 2, 4; Latin Club 3.

To give justice to "Swede" we must say that we would not have been so well known in athletics without him. His Ford is a traveling museum, not including in the collection of rare articles the red-haired girl whom we often see riding in it.

$$
:: \quad:: \quad::
$$

PHILIP EDWARDS "Phil"

Hi-Y 3, 4; Literary Society 1, 2; Orchestra 1; Junior Play 3; Band 3, 4; Minstrel 3, 4.

Phil is very quiet and serious, but he is also fond of fun. He is honest in all his work and he has a determination to master it thoroughly. Phil, we are depending on you to make a success of yourself.

RAYMOND BALDWIN

Raymond is indifferent to almost everything but sleep and this occupies a great deal of his time (perhaps Raymond was engaged in this when he nearly took a somersault in Shorthand Class). But, nevertheless, we are glad to have had him enrolled with us in the "Class of 1928."
:: :: ::

WILLIAM SCOTT

William used to live in New Cumberland. He was valedictorian of his class last year and we are glad that he decided to come here to finish his course.

CLASS PROPHECY

One afternoon at Central
As the hour was growing late,
I grew impatient at the errand For which I had to wait.

I prowled about the silent hall Until I saw the stair,
Which led to that mysterious realm
The third floor-did I dare,
To pry into that vacant place Once so full of life,
And now the dusty, empty space
Where ghosts may be so rife?
A-tingle with excitement
I mounted to find the freaks,
Which might be on those windy days
The cause of awful shrieks.
Halfway up I groped in the dark
At last, I was nearly there,
When a flickering light from up above
Caused me to stop and stare.
Ere I could retreat to safety,
Here to my terrified eyes,
A dwarf appeared at the top of the stair
With lantern half his size.
He stopped and gaped, then grinned at me,
For I had lost my voice.
He held out one of his hands to me;
I took it without choice.

He led me to a darkened room, I moved as one entranced.
And there about an old, bent dwarf,
A hundred of them danced.
They stopped and crowded closely
When the dwarf and I went in,
And the little old man in the center
Bowed at me with a grin.
With never a word, one by one, The dwarfs filed out and then-
I found myself faced toward a screen Held by two little men.
Upon the screen appeared June Hurst.
I heard quite loud and plain,
A voice from a radio horn at her side
"Broadcasting the World Series Game."
"The famous cousins" Chet and Lefty
Our basemen of great renown,
With Byron Cook, the score keeper here,
Are all from the same home town"
Next, I beheld a busy street.
Byron Brown was the corner cop, And he strove to check a gath'ring crowd
Before a department shop.
Helen Alexander was the cause;
She demonstrated dyes
And changed the hue of faded things
Before their very eyes.

The scene moved on inside the store And up and down the aisles， Trod the floorwalkers，Curtis Lomax And Jesse with his smiles．

In the music stall，Mervin McQueen And Donald Dallas too，
Were singing all the latest hits Performing as actors do．

In the cashier＇s cage was Hazel Dienst．
And then Mary Campbell I spied
Behind the lunch counter with the chef，
Who was Cranston Knouff，at her side．

Then a brilliant change of scene， A room of palatial mien
In which I saw Betty McCreary Presented to a king and queen．

Another room full of people came Upon that magic screen，
And there before my eyes，appeared A city night club scene．

George Hall，I found was proprietor， From a sign in the lobby and Toots Kobelt was head waiter there， Carl Minnideo led the band．

But who was at the microphone
Of their broadcaster speaking now？
＇Twas Joe Robinson and strangely enough，
I heard him but know not how．

He looked about the persons there And if a noted one he＇d see， He would say a word or two

About this celebrity．
＂Bob Morrison，the movie－villain，
Ed Mears，the sheik supreme，
Bob Frazier，the world＇s best hu－ morist，
Florence Reidenbaugh，flapper queen．

Beryl Givens，our stout stockbroker，
Ray Baldwin，the history prof．，
Ethel Garabrandt，aviatrix＂
Were some that he reeled off．
Again my startled eyes beheld
A change to a little town， The name of it was Brocklehurst

The main street I looked down．
I was shown the grocery store Where Dana Beans did appear， Behind the counter and her buyer

Was Wilmer Maloney in farmer＇s gear．

Farther down I saw in view，
A square built brown stone bank， Walter Smith as its founder was

Whom Brocklehurst had to thank．
Around a corner in a yard Of a cozy neat white house．
I saw who used to be Rex Roth，
In the garden with her spouse．

Right next to her in a house of brick Florence Howard lived it seemed,
A tall strong man smoking a pipe Was helping get "house-cleaned."

Then I saw the village school
And welcomed more and more, Preston Murphy and Caroline Stoller Were its teachers of book lore.

The last of Brocklehurst went by Upon the fairy screen,
And out upon a wide, white road I saw an inn, pale green.

Gertrude Ries was owner Orpha Crites, kitchen maid,
Lyle Gray was the handy man
Rich Griffith sold orangeade.
The screen moved on at a fearful pace
Past houses, bridges, and farms,
Until the city of Denham arrived With buildings all in swarms.

At a large and stately church, The motion did subside
And from the door a bride came forth,
Jane Milar was that bride.
The best man, Sheeny Whitmer, Opened the taxi door
Driven by Luther Easterday
While rice was showered o'er.

Then once more the screen moved on,
'Till before a mammoth frame
Of a mighty towering sky scraper, it stopped,
Which put Woolworth's to shame.
Up and up through halls and doors A hundred, so it seemed,
The picture stopped at an office
Where a myriad green lights gleamed.

I recognized Mertie McConnell
And Mary Henderson too;
Behind low desks typewriting fast,
Lois Blackwood a door came through,

Which led to an inner office Bearing the president's name.
I looked into this private room, And Earl Fish my eyes did claim.

The girl at his desk, Betty Evans,
His dictation did receive
And the business manager behind them,
Was George Weaver, I believe.
The office then did vanish
And a theater took its place,
On the billboard I read M. Ackerman,
Violinist of charming grace.
Inside I saw Pauline Singer Ushering for the show.
There were Ted and Naomi In the very thirteenth row.

Upon the stage an actress danced, I dumbly stared in awe
At Virginia Stauffer, as she twirled, Scarce believing what I saw.

The next performance was a clown; John Thomas 1 declare,
And after this, a picture show,
Peg Jenkins the heroine there.
Then to the back of the stage I was shown.
Virginia Magruder, the star,
Was scolding Anna Luther and Gertrude Lieser
Her maids. Stars usually are.
In another lofty building.
A lawyer's office now
In which Bee Renner getting a divorce.
Spoke to Lawyer Olmstead low.
Across the hall another door
Announced this printed line,
"Justice of the Peace, S. Banks,
Hours from 12 to 9 ."
Next to this was another door
"Ralston, the Alchemist"
On it was printed, and this too-
"Soaps and creams in a list."
Back once more into the street I read a garage sign broad,
"McCartney's Service at all hours: Scott will repair your Fori."

Farther on a shop appeared,
"Mesdames Hanna and King."
Inside, Mrs. Wallace (nee Gibbs) I saw
With her husband. They were shopping.

Whirled away to the suburbs
To a building large and gray, The Denham City Hosnital 'twas,

Where Doc Larimore did stay.
Among the nurses, Sara Smith
And Helen O'Connor, I found,
Kathryn Tidrick and Mary Jane Kinsey
Were also dashing around.
Abruptly changed the magic screen
To a stadium for sportsman's war,
I picked out Marion Westhafer, coach,
Francis Ankney a player-star.
In another direction a race track
With jockeys training there,
Cne of them was William Gibson
I recognized with a stare.
A blinding flash; the screen threw off
Then total darkness broke.
An instant-all had vanished, when, As suddenly I woke.

I rubbed my eyes and looked about.
The room was full of light.
Miss A. was calling me to rouse, For outside it was night.

SENIOR HIGH BASEBALL

[^2]
ROBERT WINSPEAR, Capt.-"Bob" Catcher

"Bob" is a natural born leader and a great deal of the success of the season is due to him. "Bob" played every game.
HENRY YAGGI-"Joe" Pitcher

In the Struther's game "Joe" showed that he was a pitcher not to be looked down upon because that victory can be credited to "Joe."
JOHN JONES—"Zeke" Left Field

Baseball is "Zeke's" game because size doesn't matter at all. He could catch flies and bat with equal ability. We are sorry that this is his last year.

CARL MEISER-"Meiser"  Left Fielder

"Meiser" was always "cutting-up" and having a good time but, just the same, he always did his part to help the cause along.

ADOLPHUS HENSEL-"Hensel" Right Field

"Pleasure before work" was "Hensel's" motto so he was always ready to take part in any kind of a game. This is how he got into baseball. He was a valuable man.

HAROLD JENKINS-"Lefty" Short Stop

"Lefty" could play any position even pitching, but his regular position was short stop. He was also a dependable man at the bat.
DEAN SMITH-"Dean" Third Base

Dean was a third baseman who could get any grounder within his reach and throw to first with never a miss.

FRED MINOR-"Bud" Second Base
This was "Bud's" first year on the team and he proved a very valuable man. "Bud" helped all he could, last year to make a good season.

STEPHEN THOMAS-"Steve" First Base
"Steve" caught every ball that was thrown to him whether a pick-up or on the fly. This is "Steve's" last year on the team.
WILLIAM DOIDGE-"Bill" Pitcher

This is "Bill's" second year with the team and he still has two more years. He was the only left hander on the team and his arm won several games for N. P. H. S.

CHESTER JENKINS-"Chet" First Base

This was "Chet's" first year on the baseball team but his playing was very good. We all wish "Chet" good luck next year.

> MR. J. A. BAKER-"Baker" Coach

Baker turned out one of the best baseball teams N. P. H. S. has ever had. He surely knows his baseball. We all wish Baker good luck in the future.
BYRON COOK-"Gobo" Manager
"Gobo" was a very dependable manager. He was at every baseball practice and helped in every way he could.

T R A CK 1927

Douglas, Eugene Captain

Downes, Bryce
Givens, Beryl
Kimball, William

Knisely, Charles
Shaffer, Harley
Whitmer, Eugene

Track is one of the minor sports of the high school, but it prepares athletes for the two major sports, football and basketball. In all athletics a boy must be physically fit and mentally alert; these are the fundamentals of track.

Our track team this year, headed by Captain Douglas, took part in only two meets. The first was with Massillon and the other was the district meet at New Concord. At New Concord the boys took third place, and several of them made new district records. We hope that more interest will be taken in track in the years to come.

[^3]

CALVIN PFEIFFER "Dutch"

Coach

"Dutch" showed that he had real coaching ability when he took an inexperienced team and won the County Championship. He taught the boys to play clean, hard football and to be sportsmen at all times. We hope that "Dutch" will be with New Philadelphia for several more years.

CARL MINNIDEO "Pee Wee"  Managet

Carl was one of the best managers that any football team ever had. He never tired in doing good for the players and the whole squad appreciated this. "Pee Wee" was also the comedian on all our trips.

THE DELPHIAN

N. P. H. S. 6 vs. ST. IGNATIUS 19

It was a good game considering that it was the first Varsity game for all but two of the boys. Everbody was satisfied with the score. The first touchdown of the year was scored by "Chet" Jenkins.
N. P. H. S. 0 vs. ORRVILLE 24

The greatest disaster that N. P. H. S. ever faced. "Nuf Sed."
N. P. H. S. 0 vs. CANTON 46

Canton, one of the strongest teams in the state, was checked after the first quarter. In the last three periods they scored only three touchdowns (one each quarter).

$$
\text { N. P. H. S. } 12 \text { vs. GRANVILLE } 26
$$

Although Granville's goal line had not been crossed for three years, the patched up Red and Black outfit scored twice on them. The team as a whole showed improvement. Injuries kept several regulars on the sidelines.

$$
\text { N. P. H. S. } 7 \text { vs. MASSILLON } 13
$$

With Kobelt back in the lineup it was an altogether different team that went on the field. Penalties played a big part in the game. Our boys made their touchdown on a series of plays from the middle of the field.

N. P. H. S. 19 vs. UHRICHSVILLE 6

The Uhrichsville fans and team came to the county seat with the expectations of winning but they went home very disappointed. Erhart and Noble, the latter, playing against his last year's teammates, played a very spectacular game. The team played the best brand of football that it had played all season.

N. P. H. S. 0 vs. DOVER 0

Although Dover outweighed us at least ten pounds to the man, we made up the weight in the scrap that we had. Dover was a two to one favorite but most of the playing was done in their territory. Ankney's kicking was the big feature of the game. A good ending is better than a good start and a bad ending.

THE DELPHIAN

$\qquad$

DONALD NOBLE "Red"  Captain and End

Donald was the only red head on the team this year. "Red" was liked by every member of the team. They showed their approval of him when they elected him captain. He was the outstanding defensive player in every game that he played and he could catch passes when the team needed a few yards for a first and ten.

CHARLES OLMSTEAD "Chuck" Quarterback

This was "Chuck's" first year and last year to play football for New Philadelphia. He was one of the smartest quarterbacks in the county; he couid carry the ball from scrimmage or receive punts with equal ability. "Chuck" was the "Frosty Peter" of our high school team.

$$
:: \quad:: \quad::
$$

CHESTER JENKINS "Chet"  Halfback

"Chet" was one of the headiest football players that N. P. H. S. ever had. The manner in which he backed up the line was spectacular. He displayed his most brilliant playing in the Uhrichsville game. We hope that his future may be as successful as his football career.

$$
:: \quad:: \quad:
$$

FRED ALEXANDER "Aleck"

Center

This was "Aleck's" first year on the team but being only in the eleventh year, he has another year to play football for New Philadelphia High School. "Aleck" hardly ever had a bad pass and played an excellent zame on defense.

$$
:: \quad:: \quad:
$$

EARL FISH "Fish"

Guard
The team cauld always depend on Earl to open up a hole or to break up the opponents' plays. Earl's last name is "Fish" but his opponents didn't think so. Earl never knew what the word quit meant and always fought till the end of the game.

EDGAR ERHART "Ted'

Tackle
"Ted" was one of the scrappiest players on the line and could always break up the opponents plays. He had two bad habits: one was biting his opponents and the other was using a foreign language but both surely kept up the fight on the team.

$$
:: \quad:: \quad:
$$

ERNEST WHEATLEY "Ernie" Guard

Even if "Ernie" was smaller than any of his opponents, he made up the stature and weight by the fight he had. Although "Ernie" was out with an injury the first part of the year, he made up for lost time when he did get back. He has still another year in school. Good luck next year, "Ernie".

$$
:: \quad:: \quad::
$$

DONALD KNAUSS "Don"  Tackle

"Don" was the only triple threat man on the team. He could throw passes and out punt any of his opponents, as Uhrichsville found out. He is a player with big hands and big feet so he ought to be a walk away next year.

$$
:: \quad:: \quad::
$$

LAWRENCE CAREY "Big Tent" Tackle

"Carey" was the heavy man on the team which fact all of his opponents realized. He was known as "Big Tent" by the squad. "Carey" has two more years to show his wares for N. P. H. S. Good luck next year. "Big Tent."

```
:: :: ::
```

JONAS ROHRBACH "Jonie"

Halfback
Although "Jonie" did not play regularly on the team the first of the year, he had earned a permanent position by the end of the year. He has two more years in which to develop into one of the best backs that Phila. High ever had

HARLEY SHAFFER "Harley" End

Harley is also a regular from last year. His experience from last year proved a great help to the team this year. Harley was a wide awake wingman and could play tackle if called upon. We will not have Harley next year but we hope that some one just as good will fill his shoes.

WALTER SMITH "Walt"  Tackle

"Walt" was one of the two regulars from last year and with his weight and fight, held down his part of the line very well. We hope that he will be able to do for some college team what he has done for New Philadelphia High.

$$
:: \quad::
$$

EUGENE WHITMER "Sheeny"

Halfback

"Sheeny" was the fastest man on the team; his speed was not only a threat but also a great advantage to the team. This was his first year at the game of football but under "Dutch's" coaching he learned very fast.
:: :: ::

LAWRENCE KOBELT "Toots"

Fullback

"Toots" had very bad luck this year. He broke his collar bone in practice and then again in the Massillon game. "Toots" would have been a very valuable man on the team; this fact was shown by the way the boys played in the Massillon game with him in the game.

$$
:: \quad:: \quad:
$$

FRANCIS ANKNEY "Ank"

"Ank" could play in the backfield or on the line. The first part of the year he played in the backfield and did about all the kicking for the team but "Dutch" saw that he was of more value on the line so in the last few games he was stationed at left guard. This is his last year in high school.

SENIOR HIGH BASKETBALL

RECORD OF GAVES

Newcomerstown 28-N. P. H. S. 32. Newcomerstown had a good team and they gave us plenty of practice.
Toronto $12-$ N. P. H. S. 23. This was the first Class A high school that we played and the boys went through with it in good style.
Toronto $17-$ N. P. H. S. 26 . This time we played Toronto on their own floor and proved to them that we had the better team.
Massillon 39-N. P. H. S. 8. The lack of experience and the big floor brought about our downfall. Massillon surely had a good team.
Dover $26-$ N. P. H. S. 13. It surely looked doubtful for Dover in the first quarter but after Beitner and Jones got started, we were lost.
Canton $49-$ N. P. H. S. 15 . We had only one game with Canton and they came down to get revenge for the defeat that we gave them last year. Massillon $41-$ N. P. H. S. 8. Too much Elum. This slick forward could put them in from any place on the floor.
Millersburg $13-$ N. P. H. S. 43. After having been defeated several times in succession, the boys came back to former style and showed the fans that they really could play basketball.
Wooster 22-N. P. H. S. 26. This was a fast and furious game and Wooster led till the last few minutes of play. Kobelt made the basket that put us ahead.
Zanesville 31-N. P. H. S. 19. Zanesville came with one of the strongest teams we had played but not until the last quarter was the victory decided.
Uhrichsville $20-$ N. P. H. S. 19. This surely was a thriller. The boys played a good game considering the place they play in. The place was the "little animal cage" in Uhrichsville.
Akron West $56-$ N. P. H. S. 26. Russ Beichly brought the strongest team in Akron down here. They had not yet been defeated. N. P. H. S. gave them a run for their money in the first second, and third quarters. Uhrichsville $16-\mathrm{N}$. P. H. S. 26 . During the first quarter, the game looked as if it would be close but the second half was a walk away for N. P. H. S. with Jenkins leading in scoring.

Marietta $27-$ N. P. H. S. 36 . Our boys went out for revenge for the defeat that they received at Marietta last year.
Wooster $24-$ N. P. H. S. 31. Just a week before Wooster came down here, they defeated the strong Massillon team so they thought they could defeat us but they had to go home with the short end of the score.
Dover 31-N. P. H. S. 15. Dover thought they had "fish" but they found out different. They had to go the limit to win. The biggest crowd that was ever in the legion hall witnessed the game.
Coshocton 26-N. P. H. S. 14 . Weakened by the absence of Donald Knauss and "Coach" Pfeiffer, the team had to bow to the attack of Coshocton.

Tournament

St. Clairsville 23-N. P. H. S. 33. The boys played good basketball. The East Liverpool 26-N. P. H. S. 11. For the second game at the tournament we had to play East Liverpool who after defeating us, later won the tournament.

Thin DELPHIAN

CALVIN PFEIFFER "Dutch"  Coach

"Dutch" had one of the biggest tasks that any coach could have. That was to make a basketball team with but one letter man. He did it to the best of his ability. The team had a good season: We all wish "Dutch" better luck next year.

$$
:: \quad:: \quad::
$$

RUSSELL BORN "Born"  Manager

He was known as "Manager Born" by the squad. Although Born did not attend every practice, he always made sure that one of his assistants was there. "Born's" big feature was the advertising of the games on the library board.

$$
:: \quad:: \quad:
$$

HARLEY SHAFFER "Swede"

Center

"Swede" was the only letter man on the team. He played in every game and because of his height, he was of great value in getting the ball off the backboards.

$$
:: \quad:: \quad::
$$

DONALD KNAUS "Don"  Guard

"Don" was the back bone of our team and without him the whole team seemed to be lost. This was the first year he ever played basketball but under "Dutch" he learned very fast and was one of the best players.

$$
:: \quad:: \quad::
$$

CHESTER JENKINS "Chet"  Forward

"Chet" was the high point man of the team. His scoring ability was uncanny. All the opposing teams always said, "Watch Jenkins and then we can beat 'em." We all wish "Chet" lots of luck in college.

GLEN HURST "Skipper"  \section*{Forward}

"Skipper" is tall, lean, and lanky and of the stuff that makes any team. Although "Skipper" was not able to play with the Varsity until the second semester, he made up for lost time when he did get to play.

ROBERT RHINEHART "Bob"

Guard

This was "Bob's" first year on the Varsity and he surely made a name for himself. You could always depend on him to do his part and whenever a basket was needed, "Bob" usually got it or helped to get it.

LAWRENCE KOBELT "Toots" Guard

Although "Toots" didn't play regularly on the team the first part of the year, with hard work and determination he earned his position by the end of the year. "Toots" was always in the game fighting and always managed to get his one basket during a game.

WILLIAM SHELLEY "Bill"  Forward

This was "Bill's" first year on the team. Since he is only a Sophomore, he has still two more years in which to do his part in athletics. "Bill" was an excellent shot and was always ready to do his part.

In "Nancy Ann" each person seemed to be very well suited to the part he had to portray, and it is generally agreed that the play was quite a success.

THE GREAT DISCOVERY

I believe I was cut out for a detective, really I do! Last Saturday Uncle Dave gave me permission to accompany him in a raid on the Travis home. He told me I should manage the dreadful "Chuck."

I entered the house, armed only with a safety pin and a water gun, but with a look of defiance in my eyes. Whom should I meet first, but Chuck himself! My knees shook, my hands trembled, my hair stood on end, and I shivered, but there we stood face to face!

A ferocious battle ensued, and I emerged, the Victor.
After searching his pockets, all I found was a lone red penny and this-

"My Freshman Diary"

SEPTEMBER
8-Ain't high school grand?
12 - Not so's you can notice it! Have been very busy trying to find a hair-growing remedy. Ain't got in trouble-yet.
20-Almost! I sneaked a banana pie from the cooking room and Alberson said if I didn't give her a bite she'd tell, so I says, "All right! Fifty-fifty." Yes, I gave her a little bite! Hum, the whole pie! Holy Cow!
27-Did you ever meet ?

OCTOBER

3-Took ........... to a show. (Mom washed my ears).
9-Been in Findley's office all day. Well, darn it! It's not my fault when any old Senior gets mixed up with me. Bob Scott called me a "greeny." (Now he tells people he met with an accident-ha! ha! I'm some accident) !
13-Filled Schott's compact with chalk dust; now the beauty parlors will get rich. Ain't I the smart 'un?
20-Took .......... to the reception. Girls are the dumbest things! She expected me to take her all the way home; we compromised, and took each other half way home.
25 -Say! Why didn't someone tell me that Freshies aren't allowed to use pencil sharpeners and blackboards? Jumpin' Catfish!
26-I sure am gonna ask the Mayor for a book of N. P. H. S. Rules and Regulations.

NOVEMBER

30-Boo! hoo! Nobody ever told me that I couldn't bring my dear bicycle into the building, and when I ran into Kaylor, he called me a 'nawful name.

DECEMBER

3-Had a fall out with .............. I guess maybe I will make up after Christmas.
It is impossible to copy the rest of this diary here, but we upper classmen should learn the following lesson: We must hereafter teach the little "Freshies" (now 10th. graders) the whys and wherefores of dear old N. P. H. S. (For the sake of the present girl friend, the name of the one referred to in the diary is omitted).

NEW DRINKING FOUNTAINS

Although no action has ever been taken on it, the statement has often been made that the New Philadelphia Senior High School should be equipped with drinking fountains which will not throw water all over one when he wishes to quench his thirst.

Such a case as this might arise: a boy is rather late for class. He wishes to get a drink of water. He steps on the button and receives a shower of water. He then must dry his face and clothes. This delay makes him late for his class.

When our parents come to visit the school, they may be thirsty. Imagine the surprise they will get when, instead of a nice steady flow of water, a column of water comes gushing out with enough force to drench the ceiling. A thing like that is as bad as trying to get a drink from one of the great geysers of Yellowstone National Park.

Such things must be stopped, and the only way to stop them is to get new fountains in the New Philadelphia High School.
-Churchill Cooke, '29

A NEEDED IMPROVEMENT

The beauty of a city stimulates pride among its citizens,-a city with lovely, well-kept lawns, clean lots, well-painted buildings, and stately, graceful trees.

There are, throughout the country, certain men whose business is trimming trees but these men only succeed in killing the trees or destroying their beauty. Perhaps these men have had no training or perhaps they have no love of beauty and nature. Such men should, at least, not be permitted to butcher the trees so that they look like crippled hands stretched upward praying for mercy.

I believe New Philadelphia would be greatly improved if it did not have so many trees of this kind. The town should select a tree commission made up of men and women who want to beautify the city, as well as to preserve the trees, and to furnish a home to the birds. This commission should have the power to appoint men to take care of all the trees within the city. These men should, of course, be authorized tree surgeons and tree trimmers. This commission should be supported by regular appropriations made by the town. Donations from individual citizens who are interested in this work would be very acceptable.

Surely the citizens of New Philadelphia have pride enough in their town and love for their homes and the community to do their part in advancing the beauty of the city. If a few set the example, the majority will follow their steps.
—Julia Harris, '29

MY A MBITION

An ambition is something that one wants to accomplish before he dies, or within a certain period of time. One usually neglects his other work in order to develop that one thing. Lindbergh had an ambition to become a flyer; Edison had an ambition to become a scientist, and Schumann had an ambition to become a musician. Over in India the people have an ambition to go to the Ganges River and wash away their sins.

But my ambition is of a different nature. It is to go to a moving picture show and sit there during the whole performance and not have anyone around who is continually reading the titles aloud, screaming when the hero is trapped, hitting me on the back of my head with a piece of tinfoil, or cracking his gum all the time.

While I am peacfully watching the pictures, someone is reading the titles aloud to me. He must think I don't know my alphabet. Just about the time he subsides, the pictures show the hero being attacked by a lion. Then some girl sends forth such a piercing shriek that I am frightened half out of my wits. While I am still in a dazed condition, someone back of me hits my head with a paper wad and makes me blink. Then in the other end of the row a girl cracks her gum and I look up to see if the hero shot the lion. Suddenly the organ strikes up a familiar tune and somebody keeps time with his foot while another person whistles the tune.

These actions are all unforgivable. A person could surely enjoy the show without whistling, stamping, reading the titles out loud, cracking his gum. or pelting somebody on the back of the head. But we shouldn't object too strenuously because they're having their fun out in their own way.
-Robert Fair. '29

THE NIGHTMARE

'Twas the night before the History exam, The hour was growing late.
And while sitting there trying to study, I could hardly keep awake.

My eyelids closed but opened again, When a scene before me appeared; A great battle seemed to be waging, "'Tis the fall of Constantinople," I heard.

Then I see a beautiful woman,
Her bright-colored garments she vaunts,
And as she walks toward me she speaks in low voice, "I'm the spirit of the Renaissance."

Next appears a ship on the ocean, In the prow a lone man doth stand, Gazing out over the water so far, Then he suddenly cries, "Land, land."

From then on the ocean is dotted
With vessels from every port,
From Germany, England, Spain, and France
Come people of every sort.
They settle on the coast of the new land, From Maine to Florida's extreme,
But over them all whether Swedish or Dutch Rule the kings of England supreme.

Tyranny enters the reign of those kings, The colonists are being oppressed, And everywhere, both in the North and in South Are dissatisfaction-unrest.
"No taxation without representation,"
Are Patrick Henry's words,
But in answer Act upon Act is laid, Their very freedom girds.

Independence of England is now declared, The people arise in arms,
While over the whole new country Are ringing the war alarms.

In revolts of Lexington and Concord Comes the "Spirit of 76 ."
The army must have a Commander-in-Chief; George Washington Congress picks.

THEDELPHIAN

Now, a cold Christmas night in 76,
When the river is floating with ice,
Washington crosses the Delaware,
Washington takes the Hessians by surprise.
The turning point is at Saratoga,
It's the greatest victory by far,
When Horatio Gates meets General Burgoyne.
And takes six thousand prisoners of war.
At Yorktown, Washington now sees his chance.
He hastens south with his men,
While the French guard the mouth of Chesapeake Bay,
Cornwallis, on all sides hemmed in.
Independence is won; the war is ended;
But are we through with struggle and strife?
There are many problems presenting themselves, As this nation begins its new life.

At Philadelphia, a convention is held, There are fifty-five delegates there; The Constitution of the United States Is drawn up with the greatest of care.

And the law must take its course;
The Constitution goes into effect,
As the first executive of the new nation
Washington the people select.
He deals with affairs both at home and abroad,
In a manner wise and firm;
In realization of his efficiency
He is chosen for a second term.
But here the vision seems to fade, And I awake with a start,
Accompanied by a comfortable feeling,
That I know my history by heart.
Next morning, prepared to take the test,
For which the vision helped me to cram,
I found that those things which appeared in the dream Were not asked for in the exam.
