Foreword...

As we leave our classrooms and classmates for the last time, we enter into a world full of stress and turmoil. There will be much to make us forget our happy, carefree, school days as we prepare to face the problems of a complex civilization such as our forefathers had never dreamed of. We have tried to inscribe on the pages of this yearbook the memories of the three years which we have spent together so that they will never be forgotten. We have endeavored to portray the serious things as well as the light things, the gay as well as the sad. Nineteen hundred forty-one has been a banner year in the life of every senior, and it is our hope that the Delphian may serve as a storehouse for the memories of that year. It is in this spirit that we present the 1941 Delphian.

*D*edication

It is customary to dedicate a yearbook to a person who has been outstanding in helping the students of the graduating class get through their three years of high school. It is in keeping with this custom that we have chosen to honor Mr. Carl E. Williams this year. In appreciation of his service as financial adviser to the Delphian and of his encouragement and example to every student, we, the Delphian Staff, dedicate this book to Mr. Williams.

H. S. CARROLL, Superintendent
B. S. in Ed.—M. A.

To you, each one of you who belong to the Class of 1941, I extend my congratulations on your successful completion of twelve years preparation for taking your place in society. During this time you have been acquiring the tools with which to work out your destiny. I use the word work for the reason that tools alone never accomplish anything. It is up to you to use the tools you have acquired if you expect to accomplish anything worthwhile. And while you are using these tools, remember that it is possible to use them for destructive as well as constructive ends. This means that you will need to keep forever alive that tiny spark called conscience. A good set of tools plus a willingness to use them plus the guidance of a clear conscience is a combination which is bound to bring to you the success I so sincerely wish for you.

—H. S. CARROLL

B. S. in Ed.—M. A.

"I wish to express to you seniors who are graduating congratulations for having successfully completed the task which you started twelve years ago. It is my sincere hope that the training which you received in our schools will enable you to face and solve new situations, and that you may continue to develop the finest personalities of which you are capable.

"To the undergraduates I would like to offer the advice that you complete your high school education. May I suggest further that you take complete inventory of your physical, mental, social, and spiritual status so that you might know who you are. Then develop a program which you feel you can successfully follow, and use our school as your workshop."

“On Our Way”

Scene representing workmen — Alvin Marsh, Jr., Jack Stiers, Robert Alexander.

Scene representing grade school—Richard Stiffler, Danny Garey, Dan Ulrich, Miss Clermont Milar, Martin French.

Bob and Fay — Rea Ritter and Margie Reese.

One of the most important undertakings of the school during the year was the dramatization of the pageant, “On Our Way.” This was presented primarily to acquaint the public with the educational objectives of the school. Today the school is the chief agency in which to teach the youth of the country how to live in a democratic form of government. It is only in a country of well educated people that a democracy can flourish.

The pageant was divided into four parts, Self-realization, Human Relationship, Economic Efficiency, and Civic Responsibility. These objectives were shown by means of characterizations and short acts.

The cast for the pageant was composed of students from the Junior and Senior High Schools, and faculty members throughout the city. Altogether the cast numbered approximately one hundred and twenty-five persons. Members of the three choruses also contributed immensely to the success of the play.

The scenery for the entire pageant was made by the boys in our own Industrial Arts Department.

This pageant was one of the largest projects that the school has undertaken for quite a while. Its success was attributed mainly to the splendid cooperation of all those concerned with the production. Certainly the faculty members who were responsible for its presentation and the cast should be commended for presenting such a worthwhile activity.

Class History

AS THE month of June rolls around, once again another class bids farewell to its high school days. Most of us will be sorry to see commencement day come. Some of our class will be going to college, and others will be going to find jobs.

When we entered senior high in September, 1938, many of us were uncertain about what we would like to do following our graduation. Some of us have changed to different courses, and others have fallen back a year. In 1938 our enrollment was 233, but when we graduate it will be only 190.

We have enjoyed three exciting years of sports and have had a good scholastic record. Some of the seniors took the scholarship tests that are held each year. During the latter part of this year the band, orchestra, and chorus went to the contests at Muskingum and placed very high. Throughout the year we have had assemblies during some of our regular free periods. Some of these have been in the form of speeches, and others have been musical programs. Our class has sponsored a Junior and a Senior Jamboree for the past two years, but other outstanding events are the Junior Prom and Senior Banquet. One of the ways to raise sufficient funds for the banquet is the class play. We have also sponsored different projects for this purpose.

To us seniors, this year seems to have gone like the wind. These have been the most enjoyable years that we shall ever know, but soon another class will be put down into the pages of school history.

Senior Class Will

We, the Seniors of nineteen hundred and forty-one, realizing our infirmities, aware of our deficiencies, having full knowledge of the fact that our high school life is drawing to a close, being in splendid health, and having complete possession of our mental faculties (we hope), wish to make known to all whom it may concern, our last will and testament.

We hereby bequeath:

- Article I—To the honorable Junior Class, our engraved, furrowed, and battle-scarred desks, including the coveted masses of gum.
- Article II—To the honorable Thad Freshwater, Bob Frederick's advantageous height to prolong his life while darting through the halls.
- Article III—To the honorable Bob Singerman, "Jake" Barker's art of trotting down to Schoenbrunn for the same purpose that "Jake" did.
- Article IV—To the honorable "BoBo" Lawler, Louis McClaskey's crop of hair so he can withstand the wiles of Junior maidens.
- Article V—To the honorable Marjorie Jones, Jessie Fowler's burning ambition.
- Article VI—To the honorable Melville Nolt, Don Evans' basketball ability for the limbering of his limbs.
- Article VII—To the honorable Gilbert Saburny, Emmett Harstine's agricultural acumen for cultivation of some sort.
- Article VIII—To the honorable Irene Zion, Marjorie Knisely's aptitude for gaiety.
- Article IX—To the honorable William Bucher, Charles Egli's aptitude for learning.
- Article X—To the honorable Gaynor Fitzpatrick, Anthony Fabiano's bountiful beard.
- Article XI—To the honorable athletic squads of next year, much better luck than plagued our teams.
- Article XII—To any wearied soul, John Adams' gift to jive, jump and jabber.
- Article XIII—To the honorable Joseph Smith, Dean and Don Bair's athletic prowess, for Joe would need that of both.
- Article XIV—To the honorable Stanley Beaber, some of Bud Walker's smallness.
- Article XV—To the honorable Kenny Smith, the fair and frequent blushes of Don Clements.
- Article XVI—To the honorable Juniors for one year only, Allan Broadhurst, until Annabelle returns next June for reclamation.
- Article XVII—To the honorable Sophomores and Juniors, our wonderful faculty from whom we find it extremely hard to part.

We do hereby designate our worthy advisers, Miss Steiner and Mr. Knisely, as executors of this document, to which we now affix our seal on this first day of April, in the year nineteen hundred and forty-one, Anno Domini.

Forecasting the Future

As I leaf this magazine through,
My mind is in the past, my thoughts—just sort of blue,
My high school chums return somehow,
I wonder where they all are now.

Ah, here I see the party chairmen, Republican and Democrat,
Alfy Walker's on this page, wearin' that high silk hat,
While that staunch old party man, Mal Lawler, on page ten,
Has just been re-elected head o' the Democratic men.

And here, Anne Gena, leading stylist of the year,
I see she's sailing on the Bremen, to tell Paris what to wear;
Charles T. Egli has also been called abroad
As architectural adviser to the court of dear Queene Maude.

Here's a picture of Bob DeArment, who leads the Dancing Dukes,
Their music is heard from coast-to-coast, from all the students' "jukes."
His drummer-man, Don Clements, has branched out on his own;
A hotter drummer you'll not find, when he starts those drums to moan.

On this sport page, the writers all extol
Two fine coaches whose teams meet in the Rose Bowl;
Dean Bair's Pittsburgh squad, chiefly because of weight,
Is slightly favored o'er Don's boys from Louisiana State.

Ken Gribble, I see, brings his cage squad from the West
To Madison Square Garden, to prove his boys the best.
And Walter Williams, Junior, has been promoted to a post
As president of a food company, since his department sold the most.

And a new chief hostess on the plane from Miami up to Philly,
I see is none other than our own cheerleader, Tillie.
Oh, look here, Marge Eichel's been called as special nurse
To care for the President who's taken a turn for the worse.

On this page, for science, an authority on plants,
Dan Rasche's embarked for Europe on a scholarship grant.
And Harold Stevens, noted physicist and expert in Rockefeller Lab,
Has so many new inventions the Patent Office can't keep tab.

I see that Jessie Fowler, brilliant social-worker, sails in May,
To undertake relief work over in Bombay.
And Annabelle Broadhurst has her picture in, I say,
Life Magazine recently voted her "the Most Perfect Mother in all the U. S. A."

From these few reminders it all comes back to me now;
And truly makes me realize our school life was a "wow."
It had its strifes and griefs, it had its troubles and trials,
But all in all, our high school life was full of fun and smiles.

As I see now in this tabloid, a few are far away,
I remember we all have parted and each has gone to stay,
But I am certain too as we make our places in the sun,
That our hearts and thoughts are grouped together in the class of '41.

Scribblings from my School Scrapbook

SEPTEMBER

- 3—The doors of Central High are again flung open. Don't feel bad; there's only nine months more to struggle through.
23—The Girl Reserves hold their Campfire meeting at Whitnall's farm.
27—The junior class elects their officers. They're already wondering about how to raise the money for the prom.

A month of school has already slipped past;
Everyone's settling to work at last.

OCTOBER

- 10—Delphian sales drive begins. Buy your Delphian and be a loyal supporter.
20—Syncopatin' students went swingin' forth for the first time this year. What we wouldn't give for more of these good times!
30—Have you seen "ON OUR WAY"? It's the hit of the season.

October goes with the falling leaves;
But we stay on, as do the trees.

NOVEMBER

- 2—No school today, for the teachers are at the state conventions. Let's have more conventions.
4—Girl Reserve Candle-light Service proves very impressive to the new members as well as to the old ones.
14—It's rumored that DeArment is forming a dance band. It won't be long now before his rhythm is rocking those auditorium walls.
16—"Ouch"! "Ooh"! frequently rang through the halls today. Reason? The tuberculin tests were made.
21—And now get ready for that tantalizing turkey dinner, for it's Thanksgiving Day and school's recessed. As for the annual tussle, i. e., football game, — aspirin, quick!

November ended our football season,
And was the time for Thanksgiving and feasting.

DECEMBER

- 10—"Attention!" Mr. Mills leaves for the army. America need have no fears now.
17—G. A. A.'s have their annual banquet and initiation. If they had only known. But it wasn't so bad after the eggs, was it, girls?
18—The Girl Reserves give the Christmas party for the needy children. Santa Claus is to be complimented on his fine job of making so many little hearts happy.
20—Vacation at last! Have a good time, chilluns. You deserve it.
25—From underneath the tissue paper and bright ribbon we wish everyone a Merry Christmas.

Holidays and holiness in December
Are the things which we like to remember.

JANUARY

- 2—Heigh ho, heigh ho, it's back to school we go — yeh!
19—Put on your thinking caps, scholars of Central High, and do some mighty powerful thinking, for it's examination time.
24—Miss Maurer leaves for her new position in Norwood, Ohio.
27—The basketball season of the G. A. A. begins. Witnessing one of their rough, tough, fast-moving games is quite a thrill.

January was filled with tests and examinations.
To those who worked hard, congratulations.

FEBRUARY

- 6—Forum Club sponsors a skating party. Those lads and lassies can certainly strut their stuff on wheels. Me? I'm still very sensitive in some places.
13—Kid Valentine party at Dover "Y". What changes those girls can bring about with a bow and short dress.
19—Spiritual Emphasis night for students. Chorus rendered commendable music for the service at the Lutheran Church.

The record of scores for the 1940 season is not one of which we are especially proud. We are proud, however, of the way in which our boys fought for every inch of ground, for every touchdown, against teams superior to them in weight and in experience. They were playing great teams, teams fit to meet our great teams of the past seven years. Every school has its strong teams, and every school also has an off year now and then. This was our school's off year, in which we placed a team containing two men of the undefeated 1939 varsity and ten men with little or no experience against such teams as Lorain, East Liverpool and Bellaire. Consequently, we won only one game and experienced some very bad defeats. Next year's schedule will be a comparatively easier one, and we expect that in two or three years the Quakers will have a team ready to beat such teams as those at whose hands we suffered defeats this year.

The Team

ANTHONY FABIANO, Senior ----- FULLBACK

"Jiggs" was one of the two varsity men back this year, and he did a very good job of playing. His teammates chose him as co-captain for the season.

DONN BAIR, Senior ----- END-TACKLE

Donn was our field general. He did a nice job at tackle and equally well at calling signals. He was an inspiring player, and as a leader he will be missed.

MAX HOLLEYOAK, Senior ----- TACKLE

Opposing teams always knew that Max was in there fighting. His line backing was outstanding, and he will be hard to replace.

RONALD ALEXANDER, Senior ----- END

Even though he wears size twelve-and-a-half shoes, he was one of the fastest men on the squad. We hate to see him go.

DEAN BAIR, Senior ----- GUARD

Dean played consistent football throughout the season and due to his aggressiveness caused much dismay to opposing ball carriers.

FRANK MICHELLI, Senior ----- FULLBACK

He was a ground gainer and a fullback of high caliber. He comes from the South Side along with Holleyoak.

CARL MASSARELLI, Senior ----- GUARD

Carl had to play against boys that weighed twenty or thirty pounds more than he. He is one of the eight seniors we will lose this year.

DICK DEMUTH, Senior ----- TACKLE

Dick didn't get to play much this year, but he showed his ability in the games he did play. He was scrappy and hard to move.

BOB RUSSELL, Sophomore ----- HALFBACK

This was Bob's first year on the starting eleven, and he really went places. He is small and very shifty.

FRITZ KISLIG, Junior ----- CENTER

Fritz is a small boy, but he filled his spot on the line very well. He'll be returning for next year's squad.

Don was one of the two freshmen on our squad. He started on the fourth team this year, but before the end of the season he was in the starting line up.

JOHN HAMMOND, Junior ----- END

Cooperative spirit and persistency helped John win his "P." He was loyal to both the team and the school.

BOB SINGERMAN, Junior ----- HALFBACK

He was a consistent player—fast and steady. He is carrying on the sporting tradition started by his brother.

BRENTON KIRK, Sophomore ----- TACKLE

"Kork" will be back two more years. He lacked experience but was calm all the time.

GLENN FRANCIS, Sophomore ----- HALFBACK

Glenn did most of the passing this year. His passing should be a great asset to next year's Quakers.

TOM LAWLER, Junior ----- TACKLE

Tom was a plugger and a hard-driver; but he lacked the experience which he should have next year.

RUSSELL SICKLES, Freshman ----- GUARD

Russ" didn't have much chance to play this year, but he will be able to prove his worth next fall.

TED REESE, Junior ----- QUARTERBACK

Although hampered with knee and wrist injuries, Ted was a great help to the team. We expect great things from him next year.

ALBERT AUER, Junior ----- QUARTERBACK

"Al" didn't play a lot this year because of a hospital experience last year. He should show us next year what he can do.

ALLEN HADLEY, Junior ----- TACKLE

This was "Bump's" second year of football, but he hasn't played much. He should supply the bulk for next year's line.

Our Season

N. P. H. S.		OPP.
0	PHILS FINALLY DROP OPENER	7
	In the first game of the season, our inexperienced boys sweated and strained only to lose out in the last ninety seconds.
13	BLUE DEVILS EARN HARD-EARNED REVENGE	26
	This was a hard-fought game with the Quakers taking the lead in the second period, but our opponents had just too much power and tallied nineteen points in the last two periods.
0	LORAIN WALLOPS NEW PHILLY QUAKERS	54
	The Quakers put up a hard fight, but the entire game was in the opponent's favor.
0	FUMBLES, NOT MANSFIELD, EDGE QUAKERS	7
	This game was full of mishaps. The Quakers fumbled the ball eleven times and went down to defeat. Ted Reese was injured in this game.
0	LIVERPOOL FINALLY DEFEATS QUAKERS	34
	By this time the Quakers were taking their "Zeros" (000) calmly, but they were determined to prevent the strong Liverpool team from running up a high score.
13	SPRINGFIELD DIDN'T FUMBLE ENOUGH	28
	In this game the Springfield team fumbled away two touchdowns, but they still gained enough points to win.
0	NILES TRAMPLES PHILLY	27
	Niles proved to be a superior team; that's all.
7	BELLAIRE EASILY DEFEATS QUAKERS	53
	Bellaire's second team broke into the game and still the score went up.
7	QUAKERS BEST STRUTHERS	6
	Sure, we won a game! This was it!
0	CRIMSONS BURY QUAKERS	19
	The "Turkey Day" battle attracted a large crowd. The score showed that Dover was the better team for a change.

Coaches and Managers

WOODROW HAYES
Head Coach

"Woody" had a hard season this year, because his boys were inexperienced. But he has done excellent work here, and we are sorry to lose him to the army where he will go at the end of the year.

PAUL HOERNEMAN
Assistant Coach

This was Coach Hoerneman's third year on the Quaker coaching staff, and he ably assisted Coach Hayes.

DEO STEFFEN
Faculty Manager

This is Mr. Steffen's first year as faculty manager, and he did the job as though he were a veteran.

LOUIS MCCLASKEY
Student Manager

"Louie" is the boy who had to do all the dirty work. He handed out the uniforms and did all the odd jobs for the team.

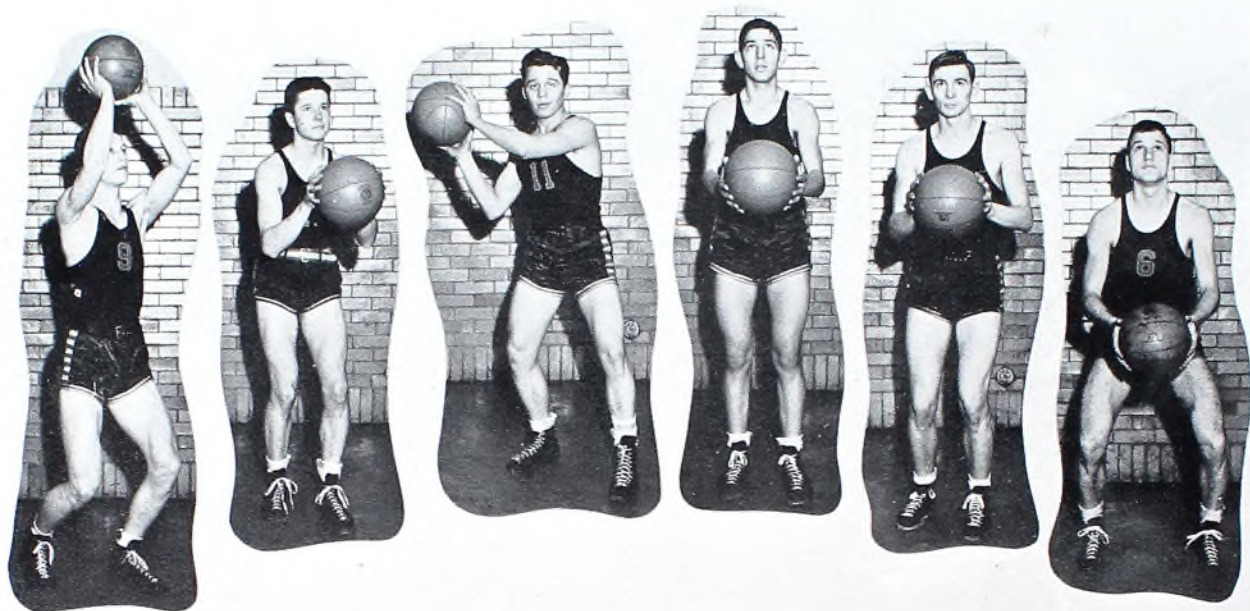

Spying on Sports

1. Powerful eleven.
2. Hold that line!!
3. Nice jump, Barker.
4. Goodbye, Johnny Minor.
5. Yea, Philly.
6. Get in there and fight!

BRENTON KIRK

Center

Kirk played center and was one of the "finds" of the year. Only a sophomore, he will, no doubt, find a steady job at center if he continues his fine playing. "Kork" was always there when it came to getting those rebounds off the backboard. His work in the Dover game was very outstanding.

REA RITTER

Guard-Forward

Rea was not a letterman this year, but he played a lot of ball with the Varsity. He would play the first game with the Reserves and then be on tap for the Varsity game. Rea is only a sophomore this year.

BILL TUCKER

Guard

Bill didn't see much action this year, but when he did, he gave his best. In the Youngstown game he was particularly outstanding when he caged three straight baskets to assure the Quakers' victory.

GLENN BARKER

Forward

For the second year Glenn was named all-Ohio, and led the team's scoring with 204 points. He was always thinking of ways to improve his playing and was always on hand to demand his rights during a game. Barker was very dangerous when it came to sneaking through the opponents' defense and caging a goal; and whenever he started to hit the basket, the whole team did. He will be greatly missed next year.

KENNETH GRIBBLE

Guard

"Kenny" and "Duck" Evans teamed together to bring up the ball. "Kenny" was another dead shot. His best game was the Massillon one in which he kept the Quakers going in the third period when he scored most of the points. He was sick and missed the important Dover game, but rose to great heights the latter part of the season. "Kenny" is a senior and will not be here when next year's Quakers are called.

Varsity Basketball

Dallas

DONALD HALTER ----- Forward-Guard

"Diz" is a little fellow who, when called upon, showed stellar performance, always playing with a cool calmness which shows he can be depended on next year. He filled a big role in the Dover game when he was called upon to take Gribble's place.

VIRGIL ALLENSWORTH ----- Center-Forward

Entering from Gnadenhutten, "Virg" played his first basketball for N. P. H. S. this year. He performed well in whatever position he was placed, and as a forward at the Dennison tournament, he played his best game against Cambridge. "Virg's" height will be missed greatly next year.

DONALD EVANS ----- Guard

"Duck" was a great shot from out front. In the game with Akron South he bagged seventeen points to keep the Quakers in the melee. Evans brought the ball up the floor and made many an opponent who tried to stop his dribbling look silly. This was "Duck's" last year—who will take up the good work?

EUGENE ELLWOOD ----- Guard

"Gene" was called up from last year's Reserves to perform with this year's Varsity. He was a dead shot from out front. Although he didn't see much action, he commanded a lot of respect when he did. This was "Gene's" last year.

CARL DALLAS ----- Forward

Carl was not a starter at the first of the season, but his deadly shots from the side soon earned him a starting post. His outstanding game was the Zanesville one, in which he was instrumental in helping the Quakers top the tough Blue Devils. Dallas will be back next year, and we are expecting great things of him.

Eleven Victories—Seven Defeats

These cold figures don't begin to tell the story of the 1940-41 Quakers. Backers of Head Coach Paul Hoerneman's basketeters ran the gauntlet of emotions—from exultation and despair—to apoplexy! Memories of scoring sprees in which every basket, every foul, seemed deciding factors—capacity crowds, alternately gasping, groaning, and screaming—the shrill of the referee's whistle, barely heard above the tumult—the raucous honk of the horn, signifying the end of the game—all will remain indelibly impressed on the minds of last season's rooters.

The Quakers started out slowly, gaining an even break for the first eight games, going full force to take the next six straight, and then dropping three of the next five.

In the tournament they beat a weak Cadiz team; then they lost to Cambridge, to finish the season.

With 204 points, Glenn Barker led the scoring for the second successive year, and was also chosen all-Ohio for the second year.

The Phils made a total of 687 points to 557 for their opponents. The Quakers had an average of 38.6 to the opposition's 30.9.

Coaches and Managers

PAUL HOERNEMAN, Head Coach

In his three years as basketball coach, Mr. Hoerneman has compiled an enviable record. This year with the going a little harder he came through in great style, always encouraging the boys and thinking of ways to raise the team to the peak of perfection.

DEO STEFFEN, Faculty Manager

As the man behind the scenes, he has the job of scheduling all games, making arrangements for all trips and, last but not least, seeing that the athletes have the best of equipment to wear.

CHARLES SNYDER, Student Manager

It was "Chuck's" job to see that all equipment was accounted for and that the game and practice suits were always in the best of shape. Besides all of this, he did fine work during the games keeping a chart of everything that happened. He had a hard job, but got very little praise for it.

The G. A. A. is undoubtedly one of the most active clubs in Central High School. This year the girls have participated in volley ball, basketball and baseball. From time to time the club has sponsored skating parties, banquets, bake sales, and other social gatherings. The club stands for sportsmanship and clean living, and gives each member a better chance to become personally acquainted with her fellow members. One of the outstanding benefits of the club is the great variety of exercise it offers its members. Honor, self-respect, respect for others, and good habits of health are only a few of the attributes gained by members of the Girls' Athletic Association.

Cheer Leaders

Billie Diefenbacher

John Adams

Clara Haman

"New Philly High School, Rah! Rah! Rah!" This is the school spirit which the cheerleaders have instigated in the students during the past year. Our school spirit is a permanent thing, no matter whether it's football or basketball. A great deal of praise should be given to our cheerleaders for their tireless efforts in establishing this pep and loyalty throughout the school. Since they are all graduating this year, their faithful and enthusiastic support will be missed greatly by the student body.

Not in picture—Janice Hiller, Eleanor Limbach, Harold Stevens.

Directors—Mr. Bliss and Mr. Near

The Orchestra was the most improved musical organization of the year. Last year it went to the Eastern District Music Contests at Muskingum College and received a rating of "Good." This year it went again and received a rating of "Excellent" and a recommendation to play at the State contests. It was not sent to Columbus because of the expense of sending such an organization that far.

The orchestra played for the pageant, "On Our Way"; the Collins Festival programs; the Armistice Day program and the National Music Week program. It played in concerts for the students and for the public.

It will end the year by playing for the class play, Commencement and Baccalaureate services.

Drum Majors

LEWIS BYERS

A handsome, high-stepping drum major helps a band look snappy and military-like. Our band is fortunate in having such a fine drum major. Louie specialized in fancy and spectacular figures. He was a pioneer in this section in learning the art of Swiss flag-swinging. For the first time he went to the Eastern District Music Contest at Muskingum College where he competed with drum majors from other schools in this district. He got first place and a recommendation for state competition.

EARL KAYLOR LEWIS BYERS RICHARD DEARDORFF

Our band uses a system of turns and flanks which makes it essential to have drum majors on each side of the band as well as in front. These drum majors must be able to twirl a baton and march and must also know what signals to give the band when it is moving. They helped greatly in the exhibitions which our marching band made this year.

Color! pageantry! precision! excellent music! all these the band supplied to our football season last fall. They presented various interesting spectacles and stunts; such as, a tableau, "The Spirit of 1776," during which they played "God Bless America"; a dance to "Darktown Strutter's Ball" with lights attached to the shoes; and a marching "N. P. H. S." At the Thanksgiving Day game they did a dance step to "I'm Nobody's Baby," presented ten flag-swingers and formed a map of the United States and played "I Am an American."

The band played at the County Music Festival at Dennison and at the Music Contest at Muskingum College where they received a rating of "Superior." Several ensembles and soloists were sent to the contests at Capital University in Columbus.

The senior members of the band will furnish the music on the Commencement program. This is a continuation of the precedent set at the graduation exercises from Junior High where they also played.

The Junior Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Randall Near, has spent a great part of this year in the singing of religious selections. The Chorus sang several numbers in public during Spiritual Emphasis Week and took part in the Christmas music assembly. This body, composed of sophomores exclusively, prepares the pupils for the more intricate and difficult music of the Senior Chorus.

Several of the members of the Junior organization attained distinction in solo contests at New Concord and Marietta.

In addition to the regular Chorus composed of both boys and girls, Mr. Near has organized a Girls' Chorus which meets an extra day a week. Although these girls have made no public appearance, they practice and learn many songs, and get both pleasure and experience in group singing.

Senior Chorus

- Row 1—Mollie Hunker, Ruth Shackelford, Joy Bovers, Anna Meese, Annabelle Maurer, Helen Stevens, Mildred Llewellyn, Jeane Bichsel, Dorothy Cheney, Norma Jean Ulrich.

- Row 7—William Hanson, Jim Schussler, Willis Maurer, Howard Bradley, Gaynor Fitzpatrick, Richard Kaiser, Calvin Buchanan, Marjorie Jackson, Mr. Bliss, Director.
- Not in picture—Lois Johnson, Margie Reese, Helen Waddington.

The Senior Chorus is composed of juniors and seniors who have completed a year's study in the Junior Chorus.

The aim is to promote a more thorough understanding of choral singing and the technical phases of music.

The Chorus sang for the annual Girl Reserve Christmas assembly. They also sang at the Lutheran Church on Young People's night during Spiritual Emphasis Week and for Sunday evening services at the Presbyterian and Methodist churches.

They helped to represent the school at the Eastern District Music Contest at Muskingum College, March 21. They received a rating of "excellent" and were recommended to go to the State Contest, but it was decided that the expense would be too great for the benefits derived from the contest.

At all public appearances the members of the Chorus were gowned in their black and white vestments.

Their last performance of the year will be at Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises.

Debate Squad

Seated—Thelma Walton, Mr. Bender, Wilma Davis.

Standing—Nina Utterback, John Hammond, Edwin Mizer, Maxine Swinehart, Harry Mushrush, Norma Jean Sherer.

Affirmative—Wilma Davis, Norma Jean Sherer

Negative—Maxine Swinehart, John Hammond.

Alternates—Thelma Walton, Nina Utterback, Edwin Mizer,
Harry Mushrush.

Coach—Mr. Bender.

This year's question for debate, chosen by the State Speech League, is "Resolved: That the power of the Federal Government should be increased." Wilma Davis and Norma Jean Sherer upheld the affirmative and John Hammond and Maxine Swinehart upheld the negative of this question. Nina Utterback served as alternate for John Hammond.

This team participated in debating tournaments at Wooster, Canton, and Massillon. They also entertained the Shreve and Dover teams in the local debate room, listened in on debates in Massillon and Dover, and debated before various county organizations. The team participated in the State District Tournament at Canton along with Canton McKinley, Massillon, Ravenna, Salem, East Palestine, and Akron Springfield.

The French Club has held several interesting meetings. At a Christmas party held at Marjorie Knisely's home in Schoenbrunn, each person told a story about Christmas customs in France.

On January 30 the boys of the Club wrote and presented a play, "Le Dictateur," telling about Hitler and his conquests.

On February 13 Mrs. Coleman talked to the Club about Canada. New members were also initiated at this meeting. Each initiate wore a frilly blouse, dark glasses, old felt hat, a sign with "Le Cercle Francais" on it, and carried a tin cup.

On March 25 all the Language Clubs joined in a banquet. The French Club presented the play "La Faim Est un Grand Inventeur."

At the first meeting of this year, the Club joined the Junior Classical League, a national organization composed of students interested in the classics. At the Christmas meeting one of the features was "The First Oration against Santa Claus," delivered by Joe Smith. In February, Mr. George Knisely gave an interesting account of his studies and travels in Italy. The club had as guests all the Latin students of the high school. At the March meeting, Cataline, the conspirator, was tried before the Roman Senate. In April at the banquet for all the Language Clubs, the Latin Club presented two playlets, "Bonus Vetus Vir" and "Helvetia."

The purpose of the German Club is to give its members an opportunity to become better acquainted with the German language and their customs. The regular meetings are held once a month. At several meetings students presented plays, poems, songs and stories about Germany. A Christmas party was held at Miss Felton's home. In January Mr. George Knisely, a well known baritone singer of New Philadelphia, sang a number of German songs.

In February a German quiz program was presented and new members were received into the club. At the annual Language banquet in March we gave a play "Du Wette" and recited in unison the poem "Der Erlkonig."

The Honor Club, organized in 1925-26, continues to uphold a high standard of scholarship. Associate membership demands two A's and two B's or three A's and two B's a semester; active membership requires the same grades for three semesters and life active membership requires them for five semesters.

Two events constitute the activities of the Club—a public program at which the honor pins are awarded to the life active members and promotion certificates to those becoming active members; and a banquet for the entire Club given by the College Club of the city.

The Forum Club, founded in 1936, is one of the two clubs for boys in our high school. The purpose of the club is to promote fellowship throughout the school and to arouse an interest in the social and civic affairs of the day. Various topics of the day are discussed, sometimes by special speakers, sometimes by round table discussion, and sometimes by both. Two of the special speakers were Mr. Wm. Bichsel and Mr. H. A. Stoughton.

The club draws its members from boys of all classes. It has two regular meetings a month, one during the school activity period and the other in the evening. In February the club gave a dance which was very successful.

This club is organized to bring together all students of the high school who are interested in commercial subjects. It meets once a month and presents informative and entertaining programs. In November a Truth or Consequences program was presented. At the December meeting a contest was held with a prize going to the winner. In February a party was held in the senior high auditorium with Bingo and dancing supplying the evening's entertainment. Also, in February a theater party was held featuring the show "Strawberry Blond." At the March meeting Mrs. Demuth gave an interesting talk on "Dogs" and Lorin Miller sang a few cowboy songs.

The Hi-Y is the high school branch of the Young Men's Christian Association and has for its purpose "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian Character."

In keeping with the tradition of the Hi-Y club, a formal induction service was held for new members admitted to the club. There was no informal initiation and this helped to impress the Christian idea of the club upon the members and other students. The club decided to open the meetings with a devotional service; this plan was carried out throughout most of the meetings. Everything, however, was not serious, and the Hi-Y banquet was the major social event enjoyed by club members. By selling score cards at the football games the club was able to be of service to the school; this was also a means of financing the club.

The name Girl Reserve has two different and beautiful meanings. First, a Girl Reserve is one who is always placing in reserve or storing up those qualities which will make her a Christian woman. Secondly, the Girl Reserves represent the reserve force of the Y. W. C. A.; they are the potential leaders of the years that lie ahead.

Girl Reserves find these principles adequately signified in their insignia of the blue triangle. The base represents Spirit; the sides, Knowledge and Health. Within the triangle are the letters G. R., signifying that every girl is striving to live purposefully, straight-forwardly and beautifully the Girl Reserve way of life.

The Sixtieth Anniversary of the younger girls in the Y. W. C. A. was celebrated this year from April 20 to 26.

The Girl Reserves are divided into five triangles, each with a faculty adviser and a student chairman. Each triangle specializes in some form of personal or social development. Every month there is one general meeting and one triangle meeting. The programs for the general meetings are furnished by the different triangles.

A number of special meetings are held during the year. In September a Campfire Meeting is held for all the old members. The Fall Frolic in October is a party to welcome prospective members. The November Recognition Service is a candlelight service in recognition of the new members and is the most dignified meeting of the entire year. At Christmas a party is held for the girls from the first through the fourth grades who might otherwise not have much Christmas. Pre-Easter services are conducted for the entire student body. The Senior Farewell meeting at Tuscora Park and the Mother-Daughter Reception are held in May.

An art course is now open to Senior High students who were members of the Art Club. It is under the direction of Miss Jean Wright who replaced Miss Verna Floeter at the end of the first semester. The history of art, which gives the students a better understanding of the various national types of art and design, is taught by Miss Mary Alice Everhard.

Students have the opportunity of studying oil painting, water colors, charcoal drawing, figure drawing and landscaping. Two new subjects, clay modeling and modern design, are proving very popular.

Crafts are taught as well as fine arts. Pottery, wooden dishes, trays, book ends, letter holders, book covers, purses, and bracelets are a few examples of the innumerable practical objects which are made.

The Vocational Club, in its second year of organization, has made splendid progress under the able guidance of Mr. Mills. Mr. Jordan assumed leadership at the beginning of the second semester when Mr. Mills was called to render his services as a lieutenant in the United States Army.

The club planned and took many educational tours, including one to the LaDel, the WHBC Broadcasting Studio and The Timken Roller Bearing Company in Canton. During the course of the year numerous basketball parties were held and from these a fine basketball team was organized.

This team was not defeated by any other high school club.

- 28—The jivin' junior class dance is held. A "glee-orious" time was had by all. Ask Bradley.
Great were the men this month boasts of;
And one whole day was dedicated to love.

MARCH

- 6—District basketball tourney begins in Dennison. Quakers clash with Cadiz—no need to worry yet.
9—Coshocton laddies certainly are a help when maids are in trouble. Platz, Fatig, Miles, and Dunn should know.
12—Ooops—Phila. is tumbled by little Brownies from Cambridge. No Columbus trip this year.
25—What are those queer sounds? Oh, yes, the annual Language Clubs' banquet.
31—Just found—two Helen Hayes, a Katherine Hepburn, and one Rhett Butler. Cause of finding— senior class play tryouts.

In like a lion midst wind and rain,
We realized March had come again.

APRIL

- 2—The presentation of the colossal junior jamboree. DeArment's Buckeyes "rake" the money into the junior treasury.

14—Back on the last lap of school with "spring fever."
29—The Hi-Y boys are at their best, dancing with their favorite girls at the annual Hi-Y banquet-dance.

April smiled with cool delight,
And ushered in spring with sunshine bright.

MAY

- 11—Mother-Daughter Tea of the Girl Reserves. Mother has first place today.
16—"Patsy Strings Along" makes the coins roll in and proves what good actors these seniors really are. Many are weary after a hectic Class Day.
23—Fancy frills and formals mark the occasion of the junior-senior prom. Last dance together with our schocolmates.

We hated to study for even a day
When came the sunny month of May.

JUNE

- 1—Baccalaureate services. Don't those seniors look impressive in their caps and gowns?
3—Senior banquet-dance. Let's make this last dance the best one of all, seniors.
3—School's out, chilluns; so let's have fun.
5—Commencement day for seniors. Your high school days are over now. Good luck.
Graduation, proms, and all the rest
Made this the month that we li'ed the best.

TIME: The present.

SETTING: Homer Martin's combination office and living room in his home near the campus at Lakeland Academy.

"Patsy String Along," a comedy-drama in three acts, was presented by the senior class on Friday, May 16.

In it Patricia Heath, a vaudeville actress takes over the running of Lakeland Academy, a boy's prep school. A mercenary force headed by the town Shylock, Charles Proctor, is trying to destroy Lakeland, so they may take over the school and convert it into a brewery. Patsy Heath and Homer Martin, the head-master and principal owner of the school join forces to save the school. Patsy, learning that Lakeland needs a real football coach and a winning team to bring paying students to the Academy, persuades Ted Burns, an All-America fullback, to act as coach at no salary at all. That started the action. Publicity—flashlights—pictures—and the prestige of the famous Ted Burns—brings new students to Lakeland in droves! The team begins to win. In the meantime Patsy modernizes the school and everyone in it. She and Martin fall in love with each other and a surprise twist in the play gives them the green lights to happiness—and Ted and Sue don't do so badly for themselves. Jerry Malone, the grizzled old trainer, supplies the laughs.

Your yearbook is a store of treasured memories. The oft repeated thrill of recollection which accompanies each new search through its pages will many times repay you for the care and consideration which has gone into its creation.

We are proud to have had some part in the production of this book. It indicates the wealth of ideas and ability which have made possible the Northern's long record of school annual achievement.
