A Clash With Coshocton . . . A Colorful Crowning

Homecoming . . .
A clash with Coshocton
a mountain of excitement expectations whirling in the cool night . . .
As Vicky receives the crown of roses and the team receives the crown of victory
a time of joy and celebration.

Memories

The night is cool as the dance begins.
The floor is crowded — most seats taken.
Soon the heat increases — but Suite is terrific.
Everyone is dressed to style.
Too soon the dance is over,
but as cars go their separate ways from the Delphian
there is still excitement to be had at a late supper.
The night has turned colder and started to rain.
The night has flown by, but memories remain.

The formal evening is a mixture of fine food, delightful dancing, and a relaxed atmosphere.

Formality ends
but the night goes on.

The "Y" sets the stage for late night dancing, swimming, and games.

And then it's over.

The night itself
was far too short,
but the memories will last.

Quaker Harriers . . .

Put in long hours of grueling practice.
This year it paid off.
Coach Dawson and his runners ran over their opponents.
First time in a long time for a winning season 7-3.
Seniors Dave Egler, Tom Smitley and Junior Jeff Gold led the field during most of the season.
But it was the whole Quaker effort that led to a second place in the sectional.
Quakers can look for another fine season.
NPHS has many fine young runners coming up.

Quaker Championship Season . . .

First game brings expectations of championship season. Poise and preparation are the keys to a 12-0 shutout of Columbus South.

The Blue Devils turned green as the Quaker big D held the Devil offense to 12 points. Quakers sail to 34-12 victory over Zainesville.

Traveling to Wooster

the Quakers found the Generals ready to fight, but the Quaker big D came through again. Phila won 6-3.

Meeting with Bellaire always gives fans a thrill. Big Red held the Quakers scoreless in 1st half. Quaker Defense held.

Quaker offense jelled in 2nd half scoring 14 pts. and producing a tie game 14-14.

Quakers Win Big

Quakers win five more in a big way,
Outscoring their opponents 166-23.
Next victim — Mansfield Madison 39-0.
Second shutout of season,
another C.C. team astonished by such great balance.
Ashland invades Quaker Stadium, manages to score 8 points against stubborn defense.
Offense scores 24 in third straight C.C. win.
Quakers travel to Mansfield Malabar, prevail 34-7 to stay undefeated.
Revenge is the next call as Coshocton comes to Phila in hopes of another upset.
With starting QB Les Freshwater out of action Quakers' hopes of C.C. Championship ride on backup Tom Crow.
Crow is brilliant in biggest win to date 41-8.
In final prep before Dover game, rugged Youngstown South invades but goes home defeated 28-0 in Quakers' third shutout of season.
Phila enters the finale

Climax To A Great Football Season

Fighting Quakers hosted an undefeated Tornado team.
The result: Phila 7 — Dover 0.
Great teamwork made for the success.
Playing on a rain-soaked field,
the Quakers make no. 1 rating,
by shutting out this state ranked team.
The next week,
a well earned trip to Columbus.
Phila outplayed a Columbus powerhouse for 3 quarters.
Then a dream come true was broken.
With the defense playing over 70% of the game,
Upper Arlington scored 4 times in the 4th quarter,
Upsetting the Quakers 27-7.
Even with hopes of being champions shattered this day in Columbus, each Quaker man came home to New Philadelphia,

Advance To Sectionals And Districts

Wrestling,
Perhaps the most difficult sport to achieve greatness in Because of its tough requirements . . .
Speed, strength and endurance combined
Make a good wrestler.
To become a champion though,
good is not enough.
For wrestling is a sport
Where it takes great skill and knowledge
To master the moves that Make and shape a winning or losing record.
Phila grapplers along with Coach Benedum
Are growing in all facets of the sport.
Their dedication has paid off.
For the past 3 years N.P.H.S. continually turns out good team records with additional outstanding individual wrestlers.
1975 wrestlers recorded 5 wins and 5 losses.
Lee Streb at 138 captured championship title at Quaker Invitational.
Rudy Luthy was a C.C. Champ at 185.
Rick Devore fought for a Sectional Championship at 155 and went on to win third place at the Districts.
Brent Bernard 2nd at the Sectionals at 145, and at the District lost a heart-breaking championship match by 1 pt. which gave him 2nd.
Phila has many young wrestlers who,
if they continue to dedicate themselves to wrestling, hold promise for more winning seasons and fine individual wrestling.

SITTING: Mark Richardson, J.D. McIntosh, Brad Ritenour, Bill Bichsel. KNEELING: Duane Thomas, Bill McMannis, Rick Abbuhl, Steve Limbacher, Brent Bernard, Lee Streb, Dud Sulzener, Kelly Reeves. Coach Glen Youngen.

'75 Is Quaker Year

With their first Cardinal Conference Championship in 8 years, and a brilliant 17-3 regular season record this year's fighting Quaker Basketball team looks like the best hope for a state crown for Phila. in over a decade. With four of last year's starters returning Coach Hall is high on height and ability. The highlight of the regular season is beating rival Dover twice, once to bring home the C.C. Championship. Although losing only 3 games all year, they were all conference losses, ending with a record of 9-3, but still at least one game better than the rest of the pack.

Quakers: Super Team

All-Ohio Forward Dave Heck at 6-5, and Clay Huenemann at 6-7 lead the inside attack with double figure scoring and consistent rebounding.

Playing outside roles were Phil Tidrick, Jeff Mathias, and Gene Spittle.

This great outside shooting and playmaking gave the Quakers an added dimension needed for a state championship team.

Also, fantastic jobs of shooting and board domination were turned in by super-subs Les Freshwater and Phil Kirk.

Young Quakers

Being a prelude to a great varsity team is a tough task. Being a winning prelude is even tougher. The young Quakers, behind second year mentor Jim Thompson, wound up with a respectable 8-10 record, although not playing quite up to the capabilities many people expected of them. But these young men never gave up, they were always giving 100% to represent Phila. in a winning way. And since determination is a major key to success, the Quakers should be on or near the top with young men like this making the clock of the future tick on and on . . .

Tourney Bound

Quakers wipe out Steubenville 68-52, and then destroy a very physical Wintersville ball club 67-54, to repeat last year's sectional title and a berth in District Competition at Ohio University in Athens.

With a following upwards of 1000 fans, the Quakers meet Portsmouth in the race to the state. With Portsmouth playing perhaps their finest game of the season, and the Quaker's perhaps their worst, the ever present danger of fatigue and unfamiliarity collapse upon Phila., as they drop a close decision 71-68. Their spirit was hurt but their Quaker Pride stood firm!

Girls League Champions . . .

More emotionally and physically tough than any other sport, boys or girls. Phila girls fought hard to capture The Girls' Valley League Championship for the third straight year. They played five games to win the title, beating Cosh. 47-26, East Knox 58-27, Cambridge 55-53, West Holmes 40-36 and tackling Tuskey Valley in overtime 52-48. Season leader Tami Bair had 130 rebounds while Melinda Watson shot 324 total season points. Fine individual efforts and fine team spirit bring a winning 8-5 season for Phila's Girls.

NPHS VOLLEYBALL . . .

Gains new coach, new players to lead girls to another fine season.

Miss Mastin new to the job but, her interest compells players to react in a winning way.

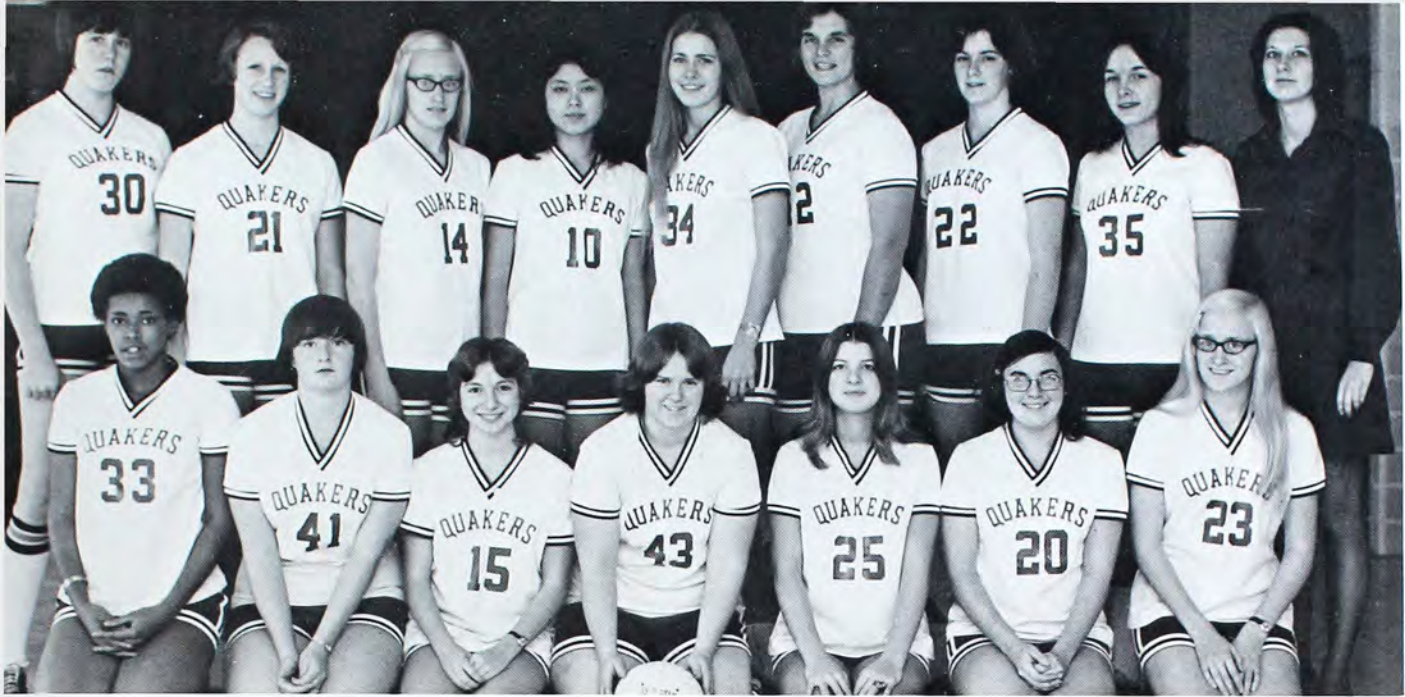

New players add to team's success, from 8 players in 1973 to 15 in 1974. Coach and players combine once again, producing a fine volleyball team for NPHS.

TRIPLE CROWN

The New Philadelphia Quakers won their third C.C. championship, joining football and basketball. This time it was baseball. With a conference record of 9-2, and an overall record of 20-6, It was the best Quaker baseball team in over a decade. Coach Jim Watson built this years team completely around seniors, which could attribute to their great success on the four-cornered diamond. This year's reserve baseball team had a comme si, comme sa year, ending with a 6-11 record, but more important than that, gaining much experience needed to help in winning again next year.

Conference Selections

Winning the conference helps in the recognition of the personnel playing for the team. This year, five members of the Quaker baseball team were noticed for their outstanding achievements throughout the '75 season. Receiving first team honors were Phil Tidrick, Phil Kirk and Jim Bird. Honorable Mention were Doug Smith and Kelly Ricklic. Receiving the award of Player of the Year was Phil Tidrick for his outstanding play as Pitcher and also as third baseman. He ended the season with a better than .500 batting avg. Also given a top award was Jim Bird as the Pitcher of the Year. Jim had a record of 6-2 with an Earned Run Average of 1.6 runs per game.

Tennis Team . . .

Tennis Team turns it around!
Some fine individual efforts, along with a strong team effort led the Quakers to 11 wins, including two 4-3 victories over Dover.
Losing only one Senior, and with a host of lettermen returning next year
Quakers should be even tougher.

Girl's Show

Their Stuff

The 1975 NPHS Girls Track Team finished with a dual meet record of 2-4, and placed second in their only triangular meet with Wooster and Canton McKinley. Their two dual wins were very impressive, beating Jewett-Scio 92-25, and trouncing Central Catholic 100-15. When these girls were not winners, it was not a loss by a very wide margin.

Perhaps the highlight of the season was the Malabar Invitational, where 220 dash star Julie Crites won her heat in a 27.2 timing, and placed a very respectable sixth in the finals, running a 27.5. Julie was named as the best track girl on the squad.

Top point getter for the girls this year was Carol Comanita with 91 points. Carol was named top field girl and was the sole winner of the three year award.

The best all around track and field award went to Tammy Houston, to signify the best athlete on the team. Tammy and Karen Wulff were recipients of the two year award.

Tracksters . . .

Victories in 6 dual meets, 3 mini-relays, and the championships of both the Dover Single-Entry meet and the Sectional Event made for a perfect, undefeated season. The only time this season these young men tasted defeat was their final meet of the year, the one to decide the C. C. Championship. New Philadelphia's Fighting Track Team represented their school with a very respectable 3RD place. They were only beaten by Wooster, and by Mansfield Madison, who later ended 2ND in the State.

Great Quaker Pride . . .

NPHS 440 yd. relay team consisting of Ken Stiffler, Jerry Brown, Dude McGarry and Matt Incarnato set a school record of 43.8 seconds placing them 7TH in the State.

The 880 yd. relay team of Tom Smitley, Brown, McGarry, and Incarnato tied the NPHS record for this event.
Placing ten members of the team in the District meet in 10 different events,
a bad day was persistent,
and no one qualified for the state meet.

This track pride was a little hurt,
but again, that Great Quaker Pride, carried them the rest of the way,
as they and the rest of the Quaker athletes went out as the winningest group ever.

WIND ENSEMBLES

Long skirts and bow ties
Make concerts easy on the eye
As well as the ear.
Weeks of preparation, then —
Sit back and relax
To art in its purest form.
Music — competition, frustration
And satisfaction.

ROW 1: S. Graham, R. Edwards, G. Hiles, P. Fenton, R. Kohl, L. Houze, M. Seabrook, K. Bates. ROW 2: S. Gasser, B. Locker, L. Stephenson, T. Zingery, R. Souers, C. Coventry, J. Mathias, K. ## STAGE BAND

Dance to the Music!
Jazzing up the school music program
At basketball games, dinners and concerts —
Stage Band keeps your foot tapping,
Your face smiling.

1. Mrs. Cheryl Anne Graham, 2. Jim Harmon, 3. Stage Band

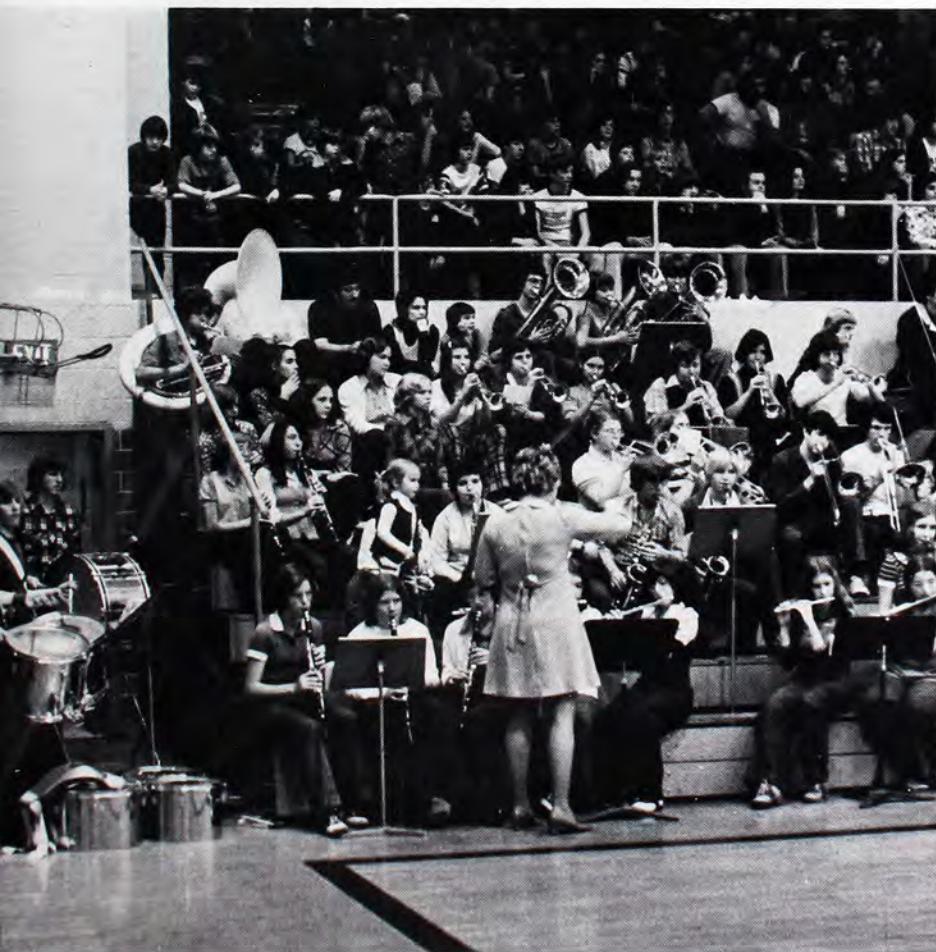

1

PEP BAND

"Will you please rise for our National Anthem . . ."
 Drum rolls and spirited hits
 From marching band
 Entertain the audience during halftime —
 Add some majorettes and flag corps,
 And you have Pep Band.

GRADUATION 1975

For Yesterday is but a dream and tomorrow is only a vision But today, well lived, makes yesterday a dream of happiness
And every tomorrow a vision of hope.

Class of 1975

329 Seniors graduated with bright sunshine and fine speeches. In addition to Valedictorian Terry Walter, and Salutatorian Carol Williams, Six Honor students; Debra Anderson, Gregg Phillips, Mark Mathias, Sue Mancey, Jeff Pittis, and Donald Russell, gave fellow graduates a "last look" at different aspects of the High School. The Class is recognized for many outstanding achievements including an 80% winning average in varsity athletics, and accumulating over $42,000 in scholarships. While names and faces may be forgotten the accomplishments of the class of "75" will stand as goals for the coming students to strive for.

One of the greatest traits of any man is the ability to inspire others . . .

In memory of John David Milburn whose inspiration will live on.
