THIS IS LIVING AT NPHS

As we begin a new school year, we may think "Why are we here?", "This isn't real life." But it is! The things we do as a school and as friends intertwine our lives and pull us closer. The feeling is very deep. It's the roar of the crowd, the classes we attend, and the clubs we're involved in. The lives of students of N.P.H.S. are special and we hope to preserve these precious memories forever in this annual. The Delphian is the result of the efforts of our dedicated year-book staff. We would like to present to you, The Delphian.

Janet Bell

Janet Bell,
Editor

Ahh, the memories ... The '84-'85 school year was full of many exciting events and activities for students. The thrill of stepping from the plane into a foreign country, not to mention jet lag. The shock of flourescent fashions at 7:45 in the morning. Singing while driving to work or practice; getting ready for Homecoming, or Prom or just an ordinary thrill-of-a-lifetime date, or—well, just about anything. Like we already said, We at N.P.H.S. have quite a lot to do. But student life is more than just doing—It's the feeling of pride when our name is on the marquis, so to speak. From the first activity to Graduation, Student Life at N.P.H.S. is more than just the time and effort we all put into studying.

Hot in the Summer

N.P.H.S. students enjoyed the summer no matter what they did. Whether it was hanging out at the park or being shipped off to the traditional summer camp, the students had a good time. Later in the summer band and football practice occupied many of the students days and helped break up the summer doldrums. By the end of the summer the students were ready to face another challenging and exciting school year.

SEASONS

Cool in the Winter

BRRRRRR! 1985 saw some of the coldest temperatures in history. Even with the cold temperatures, people enjoyed such winter activities as ice skating, snowball fighting, and sled riding.

Tuscora Park seemed to be a center of this activity as young and old alike enjoyed frosty walks through the snow-covered park. December didn't see much snow, but what didn't fall in December fell in January. This makes an almost "green" Christmas seem white. The chill felt during the January "freeze" made the winter activities as "cool" as possible.

GERMAN TRIP

A Memorable Experience

Frau Null and 10 German students toured Germany and Switzerland over the summer. The tour started in Frankfurt and continued through the Black Forest to Schaffhauser. At Schaffhauser the group visited Europe's largest waterfalls along the Rhine river. From there they toured on to Switzerland for 3 days where they took a cog rail to the top of Mt. Pilatus and enjoyed a traditional Swiss fondue dinner. Once back in Germany, the group visited several famous castles and explored several cities. Although the connecting flight to Cleveland on the return trip was delayed, the boys in the group enjoyed a special coincidence. It just happened that Brooke Shields was waiting in the T.W.A. terminal along with group. Overall the trip was a success and an enjoyable experience for all who participated.

THE GLAMOROUS LIFE

NPHS Gets A Taste Of High Fashion

1985 saw a new trend in fashion with the explosion of fluorescent colors onto the scene. Walking down the hall, one could be blinded by green, yellow, or pink neon. Huge, dangling earrings in strange shapes accompanied this new style. New shoe styles were also evident this year with the rise in popularity of shoe boots, in canvas tennis shoe and leather styles. These, too, came in many colors and were a sign of real originality. Plastic, colored shoes were still popular and comfortable with this new wave of fashion.

The Limited provided another fashion outlet for girls. Their baggy, multi-pocketed pants came in an array of colors and styles. The pants were usually cropped, with buttons or zippers at the hem. To go with these pants was the popular Forenza sweater. These, too came in many colors. The V-necked, oversized comfort of the sweater made them versatile and extremely stylish. Add a bright, oversized shirt (complete with shoulder pads) and you have a very popular outfit of NPHS.

Black was also a popular color seen at NPHS. Whether in the form of tight pants or luxurious angora sweaters, black was everywhere.

Accessories, in the form of rhinestones, twisted beads and pearl necklaces, earrings and bracelets, came onto the scene again. Besides these, there were enough fluorescent accessories to brighten up any outfit.

Boys' styles took a new leap, also, this year. Boys could be seen frequently wearing baggy jeans, with pinstripes or checks. The "parachute" pants were popular, with a multitude of zippers and small pockets. Leather was a common element in the wardrobe of NPHS, in pants, jackets and boots, not to mention ties. Ties were prominent in the classy look that many Philly boys were displaying. The piercing of one ear was a new look some boys liked. Although this is not yet an extremely popular trend, boys felt that if girls could wear their styles in pants, coats and shoes, why can't they get their ears pierced? It's popular of high fashion men, an example of how fashion has started to filter into NPHS.

Of course, jeans, sweatshirts and tennis shoes is still the most common outfit of Philly High. The styles are, however, tending toward dressing up for school. We'll have to see what happens next year.

New, and some slightly strange styles were seen in hair this year. One could see anything from subtle tinting and frosting to an all out color change. Bigger was better, and the messy look was popular in this "new wave" of hair design. We even saw striping of hair. Of course, the traditional long hair and curls could still be seen, and it was as glamorous as ever. Short hair was easier to take care of, however, and therefore was seen more often.

To say the least, this year has seen a number of strange and interesting fads and styles. They were all exciting and provided Philly students with a great variety of options in their school wardrobe.

"YOU'RE HIRED!"

Students Work to Earn Extra Money

The "art of making money" was a primary concern for some of the students at N.P.H.S. These employees did everything from flipping hamburgers and bagging groceries to working at department stores. Some of the hot spots for employment included Buchler's, McDonald's, and Schwartz-Klines.

The word "job" has a special meaning to some employees, and that meaning is hard work. Some of us had to mop, sweep, shelf, carry, and lug ourselves to that ever important pay check. And, as everyone knows, it's a great feeling to hold a pay check—even if it's only for a few seconds!

M.B.A. GRAND NATIONALS

Indianapolis Gets a Touch of Class

The N.P.H.S. Marching Quakers were one of over 50 bands to participate in the M.B.A. Grand Nationals at the Hoosier Dome, Indianapolis, Indiana. During the preliminaries, the Quakers finished in the top 12, and later finished 2nd overall in Class A. All totalled, the Quakers received 56 awards and four Grand Championships during the 1984 marching season.

The award winning show included the songs: "Exaltation," "Spanish Dreams," "Looking through the Eyes of Love," and "Ole". This show was the first to be designed by a computer, and contributors to this were Cheryl Anne Graham; Head Band Director, Marva Feiszli and Joan Wenzel; Assistant Band Directors, and Bill Graham; Drill Designer and Guard Instructor. Through the efforts of all the supporters this was one of the most successful years for the Quakers.

VANDALISM

Sparks School Spirit

A very dark and cynical cloud hung over N.P.H.S. during Philly-Dover Week. This cloud was the vandalizing of our school. To the relief of the students and faculty, the vandalism had nothing to do with the rivalry between Dover and New Phila. This vandalism, which was estimated at $3000 to $5000, served more to unify the school than to break it up. Both the students and faculty pulled together in a unified effort to correct this malicious act. It only took one day to correct the damage, which included painting the gym and the halls, ransacking the guidance office, and flooding the auditorium. The incredible efforts of the students and faculty along with help from Miser Paint and Union Hospital allowed for the completion of the scheduled events, and later a victory in the "Greatest Rivalry in History."

"Let me tell you something about spirit that took place today," Gummere began. "Starting at 6:30 this morning there were students and custodians working very hard to get our mess cleaned up," he said. "You have a spirited group of kids and staff ... that spirit is going to turn into victory on the field."

—Times Reporter

“Both faculty and students responded,” Coutts said. “Seeing the mess this morning, I never would have believed it could be done, but it was. The hallways were cleared by noon.”

As the days of Phila-Dover Week neared, students eagerly prepared for events such as float and door decorating, spirit ribbon, and the annual spaghetti dinner which was held November 1 in the high school cafeteria. It was this preparation which helped to make Phila-Dover Week a big success. The days of Phila-Dover Week included: Monday—dress up day; Tuesday—"Philly will shine" day; Wednesday—"Mix up Dover" day; and Friday—"Red and Black" day. The climax to the fun came on the Monday after the game, which was called "We wrapped up Dover" day. On this day, students wore top to symbolize the Quaker victory and . . . a success! Phila-Dover Week!

The 80th game in the Quaker/Tornado Rivalry began as a turnover duel. In the opening 1/2 quarters we had 3 turnovers while Dover had 2. Dover could have controlled the game early but Phila pride shined through with many outstanding plays. Early in the third quarter Dover again drove into Quaker territory. The Quaker defense held firm as Dover's field goal attempt was short. At the 11:38 mark of the fourth quarter Dover scored, but missed the extra point. This sent a signal to the Quakers to put together their best drive of the game. The drive was halted with an interception on the Tornado one yard line. Dover fell short on third and one, and had to punt. With 4:09 left to go in the game the Quakers started the game winning drive at their own 48 yard line. With 1:15 to go Eric Ricklic took a Vince Miccichi pass at the 5 yard line and rolled his way into the end-zone for the game tying score. That left the outcome up to Tim Labus, whose extra-point kick gave the Quakers a 7-6 victory!

The climax of Phila-Dover week was marked by the community and student pep rallies. The community pep rally began with the annual parade which featured the class floats, the team, and the award-winning Marching Quakers. After the parade, a large crowd of enthu-

The excitement of the community pep rally became evident Friday during the student pep rally. At this pep rally, the winners of the spirit ribbon, door decoration and float building contest were announced. The results of the door decorations were Most Artistic: Art Room, Best Slogan: rooms 231 and 223, Most Original: Band Room, Best Mechanical: AV Room. The Senior Class won the spirit ribbon; and the results of the float contest were Best

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

Ignites Holiday Spirit

Sunday, Dec. 16 was the date for the Fourth Annual Community Christmas Concert at Emmanuel Lutheran Church. There were two performances which included music by the band, Freshmen and Concert Choir, Delphian Chorale, Ladies and Mens Ensembles and the Girls Glee. Also, there was a special organ interlude performed by Mr. Richard Geib, II.

A great deal of hard work went into this year's concert.

The performers had been practicing and preparing since September. Those who were responsible for putting together an enjoyable concert included the instrumental instructors Cheryl Anne Graham, Marva Feiszli, and Joan Wenzel, and the vocal instructor G. Randall Gibbs. With the efforts of these people and the students at NPHS, how could the Fourth Annual Christmas Concert be a failure?

THE MUSIC OF THE YEAR HOT TRENDS, NEW SOUNDS

Exciting! That's the best way to describe all the different, new and fun types of music in 1984 and 85. One of the hot new names on the charts is Madonna. Her "Like A Virgin" album has already produced two big hits while her involvement with the movies "Vision Quest" and "Desperately Seeking Susan" brought her more fame, not to mention started a trend in fashion.

Ballads were big, this year. Phil Collins' mysterious ballad "One More Night" hit number one along with "I Wanna Know What Love Is" by Foreigner and "Can't Fight This Feeling" by REO Speedwagon.

While Michael Jackson lost his hold on music listeners, Prince took over as king of rock. "His Royal Badness" as he is called, had tremendous success with his movie and soundtrack "Purple Rain" and is making a hit with his new LP "Around The World In A Day". Many students from NPHS attended his "Purple Rain" concert at Richfield Coliseum in 1984.

Soundtracks from the movies "Beverly Hills Cop," "The Breakfast Club," "Purple Rain" and "A View To A Kill" brought fame to many performers. This was one of the most successful years for soundtracks in recent history.

A lot has been said and heard about Ethiopia and the "We Are The World" single and album. The many singers who formed the group, USA For Africa, broke sales records and raised a considerable amount of money for the African cause.

"Born In The USA" was the latest effort by Bruce

Springsteen, and he definitely came out on top. Generating four top songs, the album earned the newly-married Bruce the continuation of his "Boss" title.

1984 and 85 saw many new and innovative groups such as "Frankie Goes To Hollywood," "Til Tuesday," "Simple Minds" and "Tears For Fears". These groups all had fresh and creative sounds and were a delightful change.

Of course, many still prefer HARD rock. Judas Priest, Iron Maiden, Zaxxon, Accept, Twisted Sister and Van Halen provided the "bang your head" sound for those who enjoy it. Van Halen did however hit the charts with three of the songs from the "1984" LP. Their lead singer, David Lee Roth, set out on his own and succeeded with his "Crazy From The Heat" album. "California Girls" and "Just A Gigolo/I Ain't Got Nobody" were two hits from this mini-album.

Hopefully, the sounds and creativity will show up in the years to come as it did in 1984 and 85, and continue to make music enjoyable and exciting.

1984 SUMMER OLYMPICS

FROM RETTON TO LEWIS, WE SHOWED THE WORLD OUR ATHLETIC EXCELLENCE

If one were to think of three words to describe the USA's participation in the 1984 Summer Olympics in Los Angeles, they might be dominating, touching, and triumphant. 1984 saw different names and different faces, but the results were none-the-less pleasing. Fans watched on as the USA dominated such sports as basketball and track, and leaped to the foreground in gymnastics.

If ever two words described the USA's effort in basketball, they would have to be Michael Jordan. Jordan and the USA spread, under coach Bobby Knight of Indiana U., ripped opponents with a devastatingly balanced offense and a "flesh-n-blood" defense, which combined to destroy opponents by an average of 39 points. The same "killer" instinct was displayed by the woman's team, led by coach Pat Head Summit, as they zapped opponents by an average of 30 points. The name Cheryll Miller stuck out as she led in most of the categories for the USA Woman's team.

Another event that Americans dominated was track and field. For the men, names like Carl Lewis and Edwin Moses stuck out. Lewis reached the gold in four events, which tied Jesse Owens' record of 4 golds in the Olympics. Just as incredible, Moses won his 90th consecutive victory in the 400m low hurdles. For the woman, names like Joan Benoit and Valerie Brisco-Hooks took stage. Benoit soundly defeated top ranked Grette Waitt in the woman's marathon, while Brisco-Hooks took 3 gold medals in the sprint categories. These weren't the only names that appeared for the US, they do symbolize the effort and accomplishments of all the athletes in the Olympics. The dominance of US basketball and Track & Field was predicted, but the outcome of gymnastics was a surprise, which was as unexpected as any other gold medal. For the woman was the poised Mary Retton who captured

These weren't the only events the USA did well in. Other events included wrestling, volleyball, and boxing. This effort displayed by the Americans produced 80 gold medals and lifted the USA to a national prominence that could only be called the 1984 Summer Olympics.

ELECTION '84

A Historic Candidacy

The Democratic Party enjoyed many firsts in politics during this campaign season. One of the most important firsts for the party was the choosing of a female candidate for Vice-President. This candidate was Geraldine Ferraro. This action meant a great deal to the women's movement in America. It symbolized the equality of men, and the importance of the female vote in America. Although the Democrats came up short in the end, Geraldine Ferraro proved that it's not just a man's world.

—S.S.

We're Not Just Talking Jellybeans

Election '84 was the landslide year for the Republican, Reagan-Bush team. Bolstered by Reagan's successful first term, the conservative pair swept to victory in the November elections. A helpful factor for Reagan and co. was a marked trend toward conservatism throughout the country and a decline in liberalism. Another factor contributing to the Republican's success was an economy on the upswing and a decline in unemployment. This enabled Reagan to flow with the times and claim responsibility for the good economy, which he was in part. With these successes, the Republicans and Reagan of 1984 will be remembered as the team who helped get America back on its feet again.

—L.H.

Mock Election Sparks Interest In Politics

The success of N.P.H.S.'s Mock Election can be attributed to the efforts of the student body and the advisors. Registration and voting were conducted by student council member Madhavi Shah and supervised by student council advisor Mrs. Vickie Wittkop. A computer program which simulated votes was written by Mr. Mercer and Mr. Budn, computer instructor, and the ballots were printed by Mr. Sam Banks and the graphics arts department, and Mr. Lloyd Miller and his history Seminar class played a major role in the political rally.

The enthusiasm toward the elections was evident in the pins and banners circulating around the school and the percent of students who voted, 54.8%. This success can be attributed to the efforts of everyone involved.

—S.S.

Four More Years For Reagan: Landslide Victory For GOP

It happened just like the students at N.P.H.S. predicted, a 59% to 41% victory for Ronald Reagan. In this victory, the people were saying that they wanted four more years of "Reaganomics," the plan which helped to lead the country out of depression, and, in some cases, into controversy. But for the candidates, the victory was as much a historical victory as a personal one.

Historically, this election was the first to have a female candidate running for a major party. This election set the standards for future elections in that it proved that a woman can be as aggressive in an election as a man. The woman was Geraldine Ferraro, and she went toe-to-toe with Vice-President George Bush in several debates, and also productively campaigned for the Mondale ticket. As Mondale was quoted as saying, "We are proud of her. (Ferraro) We didn't win, but we made history."

On the winning side of the elections, Reagan and Co. couldn't be happier. The President received 525 electoral votes, which was the highest total in history. Reagan accounted for 49 states, while Mondale won the District of Columbia and his home state of Minnesota. After this stunning victory, President Reagan optimistically said, "What we've done only prepares us for what we're going to do." With such a positive attitude, how can he fail?

While both of the candidates came from opposing sides, they both agreed that it was time to unite and support America as a whole. Even with such a lop-sided race, both men showed admirable character and compassion. Maybe it's the product of freedom.

—S.S.

Friends Don't Let Friends Drive Drunk

We aren't trying to discourage kids from drinking, just driving when drinking. SADD President Doug Yager explained this to the many people who were interested in this life-saving project. SADD, an international organization stands for "Students Against Driving Drunk." The organization was formed to try to help save lives. "We help save lives, we don't want our classmates or ourselves to be one of the staggering statistics resulting from intoxicated driving" says Janet Bell, SADD secretary.

While still quite young the organization is trying to get rolling, by selling bumper stickers & keychains and by sponsoring a guest speaker on the important drunk driving subject. SADD is trying to make the entire community aware of and respond to this problem.

The officers: Doug Yager (President), Nancy Schneider (Executive Vice-President), Madhavi Shah (Vice-President), Janet Bell (Secretary), Brenda Henderson (Treasurer), Tina Polka & Susan Knapp (Publicity); attended lock in on April 19, along with the other SADD officers from the area to discuss find out more about alcohol problems. We hope this organization continues to grow and bring more answers light at N.P.H.S.

We Welcome Our Visitor From Sweden

Once again, NPHS was honored with the presence of a foreign exchange student. This year Camilla Gabriellson came to us from Partille, Sweden. Camilla stayed with Jon and Nancy Roemer, where she could practice her hobby—working with horses. Her favorite American foods include jello and milkshakes, which she also enjoys in Sweden. School here in the U.S., she says, is not much different, but may be a little better. One of her favorite classes here is Computer Programming. While in the U.S. this past year, Camilla has visited New York, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Indiana, Illinois and several New England states. She will also see Kentucky before going back to and her friends and the end of June.

Talent Show Reveals Hidden Abilities

Many Student at NPHS have hidden talents. On March 20, some of these people let their abilities shine at the Second Annual Talent Show! Three winners were chosen from a variety of acts including 2 bands, a quartet, a dance and baton routine as well as 3 singers. The MC's for the occasion were Jeff Sprankle and Greg Frank with judging by Jeff Cooper, Karen McIlvaine, and Scott Daniels. Third place went to Scott Miller who sang "Hello". Second place went to Cathy Raiff who sang Madonna's hit "Love Don't live Here Anymore" and first place went to Christy Leggett, who really energized the gym with her exciting selection, "Pour on the Power". The Talent Show was sponsored by the Student Council. All the acts were great and the show was a super success.

Although Family Life class is primarily chosen by seniors to get a health credit needed for graduation, it provides many students with their first view of adult life. Students get "married" and have a "child" to introduce them to the trials and tribulations of married life. The student couples must fill out a series of repetitive forms just as in real life. They learn about the technicalities involved in purchasing a car, a home and insuring it. Coping with a growing child is also simulated for the couples through the use of an egg to emphasize the fragility of a child and the constant care it requires. Outside speakers and numerous field trips help break the monotony of the tedious tasks assigned to the "parents". Too bad real parents can't have field trips.

Independent Groups Provide Drama Experience For NPHS Students

Since there is no Drama department at NPHS, those of us with a flair for the theatre must look to other sources to find the glare of footlights and the sound of applause. Among this year's opportunities were, as usual, productions at The Little Theatre of Tuscarawas County. The Tuscarawas Philharmonic also provided a touch of Broadway this spring with their Follies, "Just For You".

Little Theatre's production of the delightful musical "Annie Get Your Gun" was directed by Mike Hamilton. Loved by critics (the audience), the show had a 3 week run of 9 performances. "Annie Get Your Gun" tells the tale of Annie Oakley's shooting career and dramatizes the mostly stormy romance between Annie and Frank Butler. Students participating in "Annie Get Your Gun" were Seniors Deanne Snedeker, Amy Addy and Troy Heavelyn and Freshman Lori Hamrick. As Amy said, "All the time and hard work put into the production was well worth the effort because the show was a success and we all had a lot of fun."

"Just For You" was the way off Broadway musical revue produced by Jerome

ANNIE GET YOUR GUN

H. Carghill Inc., directed by Carl Schmehl of New York City, and performed by the members of the Tuscarawas Philharmonic. This was a show with a purpose—to raise money for the Philharmonic. More importantly, we all had a really good time—and so did the audience. From "Let's Go To The Movies" to "That's Entertainment" and from "Le Jazz Hot" to "America" the songs, dance and comedy skits gave the underlying theme; Entertainment. The show had a short 2 night run in February. Students participating were Seniors Janet E. Doug Carpenter, Amy Lukens and Doug Yager Junior Amy Pyles. As I put it, "We really enjoyed working with all the talented people in Tuscarawas County and wish everyone knew how much fun theatre is." Then, there's the typical student's response—"The hours of practice killed my grades—but it was worth it."

JUST FOR YOU

SENIOR TRIP

Cedar Point Provides A Fun Day

J.P.H.S. Senior Trip was more than just exciting this year. Held on May 15th, 1985, the seniors had a fun-filled day. Regardless of the rain until 10:00 AM, the highlights of the day were the mini, Blue Streak, Demon Drop, Corkscrew, White Water, Landing, and the Bum-cars. At 4:00 the Seniors met at the Coral Dining Room, ate dinner, and presented the Best and Most of 1985. At 6:00 the rain started again, but their hopes were not washed out. They kept riding rides until they left at 11:00. Arooooo!!!

PROM PREPARATION

For a Hawaiian Paradise

The decorating committee for the prom definitely had its work cut out. The theme for this year's prom was "Hawaiian Fantasy", and it truly was a fantasy. The workers pounded, nailed, swept, and strung up this year's prom, which could have put a Hawaiian Luau to shame. The lobby included a beautiful fountain with the walls decorated with Hawaiian Scenery.

The gymnasium was just as elaborate as a working volcano and a Hawaiian bungalow was constructed. The servers for the evening were dressed in early "aloha", which added a touch of class to the evening.

1985 JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

Hawaiian Fantasy

"Hawaiian Fantasy" was the theme for the 1985 Prom Post Prom, which was a memorable name for the "exotic-evening. Things started at the gym which was elaborately decorated in earloha" style. Decorations for the prom included a local fountain in the lobby and an erupting volcano in the gym. The guests were entertained by attendants wearing Hawaiian apparel, listened to the sounds of Hawaiian Promises.

The post-prom, which was at the Skate Place, was decorated with a wave of Hawaiian shirts and wild g carts. Music for the evening was played by a band called Lineup. After the post-prom dance, the goers had a choice of going to see a movie or going to the beach.

This section of the Delphian is one of the hardest to prepare. Every single person (well, almost every person) has been photographed and named for the People division. Take a glance through this well-sembled section and see all your friends. From the Freshmen to the Seniors (pages in full, glorious color). From teachers and hired workers to class officers. Everything and everyone in your class is here. Look for yourself—bet you don't even look quite the same now—do you?

FRESHMEN—THE CLASS OF '88

The freshmen had a year of hard work and "colorful" activity. The hard work started out with the sale of cookie pies and participation in a Domino's Pizza Promotion. The class also sold popcorn at basketball games and other gym activities.

The "color" came into play when the Freshmen built their float for Philly-Dover week. The float was entitled "Oh Heavenly Quakers, A Victory Is Just Over The Rainbow" and won Best Mechanical Movement in the contest. During the basketball season the class came in second and third in the hall decorating.

Leading the way for Freshman activities were advisors; Mr. Cadle and Miss Egler. The officers were President—Amy Fenton, Vice-President—Erica Miller, Treasurer—Lori Smith, Secretary—Pam Meese, and Historian—Karen Carroll. All of these officers pulled together to make this year a successful year for the Freshmen

SOPHOMORES—THE CLASS OF '87

This year the Sophomores were involved. We began the year with one of our fundraisers, cheese and sausage.

We participated in the Philly/Dover festivities by entering our float with the armchair quarterback. For that we won the "Most Humorous" award, and also the spirit ribbon for the week.

At Christmas we adopted a Christmas family and purchased or donated needed items for this family.

All during the basketball games, our class sold pop, as another fundraiser. We cooperated with the Freshmen on this project. For the last game of the season with D Philly/Dover week hit again. Our class won the spirit ribbon and hall decorations!

This year eight members of the class served at the prom. Then, on the day after the prom, we turned out to help clean up.

All in all it was a very good year for the Sophomores. We are looking forward to continuing our high school careers as Juniors next year.

JUNIORS—THE CLASS OF '86

Mr. Rod Miller, Advisor

The junior class displayed a "magic touch" as they made their way through a busy year. To get through this busy year, the juniors had two major fund raisers. These fund raisers were the selling of candy bars and sales from the concession stand. Concession stand workers were at every basketball game and other special events which were held at the gym. Another event which added to the juniors' funds was the spirit ribbon contest, in which they finished second.

After establishing their funds, the juniors started their activities with the building of the Junior float. The theme for the float was "Quakers have a Magic Touch", which proved to be true as we beat Dover. The juniors also participated in the Share-a-Christmas drive and the building of the 1986 Junior-Senior Prom "Hawaiian Fantasy". All of the hard work displayed this year climaxed with a wild pool party at Tuscora Park. Just goes to show that the juniors really know how to end a year.

SENIORS

Finish High School In Style

"Tug-ether We Can Make It" was the theme for the Senior float which ended up being a theme for the year. After three years of being in the basement, 1985 saw this year's senior class rise up to win everything during Philly-Dover Week. The seniors ended up winning the spirit ribbon, and Best Theme and Best Overall in the float competition.

Other activities that the seniors participated in included the Share-a-Christmas Drive, the Junior-Senior Prom which was called "Hawaiian Fantasy", and the annual Cedar Point trip. All of these activities served up to show the "togetherness" of the senior class, which climaxed at graduation when everyone said their last good-byes. These last good-byes served to burn into our memories the good times and the "togetherness" which we all feel for each other.

NPHS students spend their whole semester doing everything they can do—sports, group projects, and especially, academics. From the AP classes that we are required to take (Phys. Ed and Government) to the more advanced and difficult electives (Adv. Chemistry, Calculus), Phillips gives it all they can. Look at all the Academic Awards! The large number of NPHS students going for a career in BJVS, and our various programs. They reflect the fine instruction and the interest in school that affects students' entire lives. They spent here at Phillips studying and preparing ourselves academically to help us in adult

REQUIRED CLASSES

Provide Balanced Education

"Do I have to take that class?" Many students have this feeling when they find out they have to take certain classes. These classes are required for graduation and may cause some grief, but these classes can be fun, and informative. That's the reason they're required because they're important subjects to be aware of. Take Government for example. This is a class that all seniors must take. It's important to understand our government system, though, and it does teach one thing about our political structure as well as those of other countries.

Another example is that of another Senior class: Family Life. This class is not required, but people take it primarily to fulfill their required health credit. This class teaches important basics of relationships, birth control, marriage and tragedies. It can also be fun; with the "marriages" and "children" that go along with it!

Other examples of a required class are Physical Education (or Gym as it's more frequently called). Gym's required for freshmen and sophomores and so to obviously promote better physical fitness. Different history and english courses are required to ensure an all-around education. Students may be upset about having to take a class, but as they're designed for the students own benefit, they are generally interesting.

—J.B.

Explaining the subject of Calculus can be a demanding task. Mr. Winn (left) does very well teaching the confusing concepts involved in this Math course. There are two Calculus classes: 3rd and 6th periods. 329 (right) is the largest study hall in the school and here, many students are concentrating hard on school materials.

N.P.H.S. AT B.J.V.S.

Career Education

NPHS was well represented at BJVS. Students did everything from cutting meat to laying brick to working with electricity. A major project for the students was building a house. The building of this house not only provided valuable experience for BJVS students, but also provided money for future projects and a home for a happy family. This is an example of just one kind of experience NPHS students are getting at B.J.V.S.

CO-OP STUDENTS

OWE I, OWE II OWA And D.E.

Not all students at New Philadelphia High School are looking forward to college or further education. Many students want to work and earn a living by experience on the job. For those who do not attend Buckeye Joint Vocational we offer Co-Op programs. These programs involve the student in some academics as well as work. Students in Mr. Sattler's OWA work around the school, helping out our support staff. Mr. Chaney and Mr. Yarnell's OWE I and II, as well as Mr. Roman's D.E. students work for area businesses in the afternoons while attending school only half a day. The program benefits both students and area businesses.

ACADEMIC AWARDS NIGHT

Many Reach Academic Goals

This year's Academic Awards night was held at Buckeye Joint Vocational School on May 16th. Mr. Coutts, Mr. Beaver, Mr. Shepherd, Mr. Gummere along with Mr. Miller and the other staff members, presented various awards to very many students. These awards range from English to Art and included 32 seniors receiving the Scholastic Academic Fitness Award. Madhavi Shah and Cynthia Eichel were named valedictorian and salutatorian, respectively. This year's awards night also started a new trend for NPHS; the giving of Academic letters. Many were given, as well as some seniors receiving 4 year plaques. Doug Yager received the honor of the Bryce Browning award, given by the Rotary Club. Special music was provided by Christy Leggett and Scott Miller. This night expressed the academic excellence of NPHS and rewarded well-deserving students.

Can you dance or sing or draw? Are you a good student? Do you have a high GPA? Are you extremely interested in science? Chances are that you are in an organization or Club. If you have a talent or an interest, there's a Pom-Pom and Cheerleading squad, 6 choirs, groups, Marching Band, National Honor Society or Science and Art Clubs. These Organizations really play a big part in our school life—by presenting exhibits, sponsoring activities or performing for entertainment or competition. These groups help break the occasional monotony of school. Life outside school would be boring without them.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Sky's The Limit

"Be a part of the picture" was a theme for the N.P.H.S. Student Council as they painted a picture of pride and activity. One way the student council helped to "show off" Philly's pride was by sponsoring a political rally in the gym. This rally became one of the big successes for the council this year. The people who contributed to this success and others include Advisor—Mrs. Vickie Wittkop, President—Kevin Patrick, Executive Vice-President—Karen Dummermuth,

Vice-President—Mike Corpman, Treasurer—Kari Klopfer, and Secretary—Michelle Knisely.

Activities for the year included dances and the introduction of academic letters. These letters went to students who achieved a 3.5 average or better in a 9 weeks. NPHS started this lettering system because of a new pride being placed on academic excellence in our school and the nation. This new awareness is just another way of "showing off" the pride of N.P.H.S.

Preserves Student Life in '85

The 1985 Delphian Staff ran smoothly under the direction of advisor Jason Young. This fine yearbook was the result of a staff that worked with patience and dedication.

Changes in format and design came about through the knowledge and skill of Editor-in-Chief Janet Bell.

The capabilities of the staff were enhanced as new challenges emerged and were met. All those who worked diligently under the leadership of Assistant Editor Michelle McMorrow and Section Editors Bryan Miller, Chuck Pompey, Amy Lukens, Missy West and Renee Brown, were essential in the completion of the book.

Finances were expertly handled by Business Manager Kathi Ernest and her assistant Mike Heidenreich.

Many special effects and the abundant use of color makes this yearbook a very exciting and special one. We of the staff hope this is an accurate representation of life and living throughout the 1984-85 school year.

HONOR SOCIETY

Seeks Scholastic Excellence

The National Honor Society, under the guidance of advisor Mrs. Lucinda Seymour, worked to spread Philly's pride. Working towards this goal was a full time job for officers, who are President—Karen Dummermuth, Vice-President—Karen Dummermuth, Vice-President—Dawn Lahman, Treasurer—Nick Shalosky, and Secretary—Mary Well-ing. The Honor Society sold candy bars to pay for the always successful Induction Ceremony and the annual trip to Roscoe Village.

At the Induction Ceremony, which was held May 7 at South School, six Seniors and sixteen Juniors were accepted. The New Philadelphia High School Trombone Quintet provided entertainment for the evening. Hopefully the success seen this year will be prevalent in future years.

NEW PHILADELPHIA MARCHING QUAKERS

“A Touch of Class”

MUSIC AWARDS

Hard Work and Dedication Honored

On May 10 the NPHS Instrumental Department gave out awards honoring all the band members that completed the marching and concert seasons. The Senior members gave their last will and testament, leaving their musical abilities to the underclass bandmen. Mr. Brad Rippel, Board of Education member, and former Marching Quaker, spoke to the parents and students about the good times he and his family had in Indianapolis. It was an emotional evening for the Seniors as they told about the good and trying times in band. Most of them agreed that although it is very easy to want to quit, they were glad that they had remained. The final comment made by the Seniors was for the underclass members to stay in band and enjoy a fine organization.

FALL GUARD

Auxiliaries Add Special Touch To Show

The N.P.H.S. Fall Guard had another successful season under the leadership of Guard Instructor William Graham, Head Rifle—Terri Talarico, Head Flag—Jill Gilmore and Squad Leaders—Jennifer May, Heather Miller, Susan Powell, and Lisa Swaldo.

This year's routine was designed by Mark, Mike, and Mary Lynn Miller, members of a professional guard from Dayton called Miller's Blackhawks. The Fall Guard performed this "professional" show at pep rallies and football games, and won 18 awards at competitions. Nice job, Quakers!

WIND ENSEMBLE

Class A Ensemble Rates Superior

The Wind Ensemble did an excellent job under the direction of Mrs. Cheryl Anne Graham. The Ensemble performed "The Chimes of Liberty," "Colors," "Eternal Father, Strong to Save," and received three ones from the floor judges and a two from the sight reading judge.

Both the Concert Band and Wind Ensemble along with a mallet ensemble, under the direction of Miss Joan Wenzel also performed a recital concert at the First United Methodist Church on March 25. These groups hope to make this an annual event.

PACK

Decorates School With Spirit

As tradition holds, the Red and Black Pack once again was the backbone of NPHS spirit. Throughout the entire year, pack members painted and hung signs, and decorated athletes' lockers to display a positive note of Quaker spirit. Pack members also volunteered their time and expense in baking cookies for the Quaker teams.

As a fund raiser, the Pack sold candy bars in the fall. Profits from the sales supported the many gifts of candy and flowers which were given to the Quaker athletes. Pack busses also were taken to some away games.

Dover-Philly week was traditionally the highlight of NPHS spirit. Many hours were volunteered on plastering our school with signs, streamers, other decorations. Pack members served as loyal Guardian Angels, viding special attention and many spirit boosters and messages of sup for the one big game. The Red Black Pack worked to put their sup behind all Quaker sports.

CONCERT BAND

Class C Band Rates Superior

The Concert Band added "culture" to students at N.P.H.S. under the direction of Ms. Marva Feizli, and with help from Ms. Joan Wenzel, the Concert Band performed the songs "First of Glory," "Trilogy," and "Tunbridge Overture." The band competed in OMEA competition in Class C and received three ones from the floor judges and a two from the reading judge. These high marks serve to emphasize outstanding attributes of the N.P.H.S. band, and the music department.

QT's

Pom Pon Squad Wins Awards . . .

The QT's, under the direction of advisor Mrs. Karen Tripodi, and co-captains Denise Kohler and Lisa Warner, enjoyed another fine season. Highlights of this season included performing at football and basketball games, pep rallies, and First Town Days. Also, the QT's visited Universal Dance Camp at O.S.U. and won forty-three blue ribbons, five red ribbons, sixteen gold, drill down ribbons, a spirit stick, and qualified for the National Competition in Orlando, Florida held in the spring of 1985. The success that the QT's had was not limited only to their performance, they also received new sweaters. This not only helped them look better, but look better as well, that's a combination that can't be

Yields National Qualifier

Members of this year's Speech team won many awards with the help of Miss Tschudy's excellent coaching. This year Sangita Shah and Madhavi Shah went to the District Tournaments with Madhavi only moving on to the State Tournaments, where she placed fifth and qualified for the National tournament to be held at Wisconsin in June. Other outstanding members of the team were Juniors Amy Pyles and Julia Tarulli. Congrats to the Speech team for all their accomplishments.

CHEERLEADERS

Show Their Spirit

The NPHS Varsity Cheerleaders attended an NCA camp at Wittenburg College where they received 3 superior blue ribbons, 3 consecutive spirit sticks, and were 1 of 6 squads out of 70 chosen for finals. They finished 2nd place in finals and were therefore chosen as alternates for Nationals in Dallas.

The Reserve squad attended an NCA camp at Baldwin Wallace. There they received 2 excellents, 1 superior, 1 spirit stick, and were nominated for the award of excellence

Both squads entered a competition at Teay's Valley. There they received 1st place on their pom pom routine. Heidi Gibbs and Stephanie Honan were chosen for the All-Star squad.

"Oui" Love PARIS

French IV Goes to France

Four years of verb conjugation, vocabulary tests and studies of French history, culture, and literature all led up to the spring break of a lifetime. This year, for the first time, Mrs. Dembowski took thirteen French IV students to France.

Our tour included a brief stop in Iceland, Luxembourg, three French provinces and Paris. While in Paris we enjoyed a special evening with Mrs. Dembowski's family which included a seven course meal traditionally served with songs and joking. The color and beauty of the Moulin Rouge and the memories of Toulouse-Lautrec haunted the atmosphere. A ride to the top of the Eiffel Tower at night allotted a memorable view of "The City of Lights." Easter mass at a small parish was enhanced by a personal greeting from the pastor and the splendor of the organ music. Walking the beach at Brittany and running through the water as the tide moved quickly inland was exhilarating. Remembering the historical significance of the Normandy Beaches while at the American Cemetery there was both a haunting and pride-instilling experience. Touring castles that recalled the splendor of Kings and Queens provided a rare glimpse of times gone forever.

We've shared a lot of memories—like the joy of knowing that breakfast will consist of rolls, croissants and chocolate—again. We've shared the fear of falling asleep on the bus because someone may take a picture of one cuddling Margaret's teddy bear, or, as in Deanne Snedeker's case, that a group of friendly Italians will walk into the room and help to hang up a suitcase. Then there's Susan Campbell who, when asked if she spoke English, answered with, "oui."

Spanish Students Tour México

While in México, the Spanish students saw and had the opportunity to climb 4 Mayan Pyramids. They were located at Uxmal, Chichentza and at the outskirts of México City. They also toured the central square of México City and saw the building which housed the government offices. In their free time, the students had the opportunity to explore both Mérida and México City. They saw the market in which hand made wares were sold. They got to bargain with the merchants. Over all, the Spanish trip was a success both as far as entertaining and interesting.

There's a lot involved in Sports NPHS. The excitement of making a team is followed by the hard work, sweat and drudgery of practice, which leads to the emotional intensity and concentration of the contest which ends with the thrill of victory and the relief that it's finally over. Although each team in every sport may not have the most impressive record, the 84-85 season was a success in one way or another. In some sports, this year was one of rebuilding and improving. Next year, these teams will be unbeatable or, at least, better. Over all, however, one could say that NPHS has the best athletic team around.

The 1984 Girl's Volleyball Team set a record for most wins ever this year, ending the season with a very respectable record of 13 wins and 8 losses. This was the first winning season ever for girl's volleyball. Coached by Jim Wherley, the girls started out as an inexperienced team and grew into a highly respected unit by the end of the season. The seniors, Kim Cobb, Kim Green, Kelly Memmelaar, and Nancy Schneider displayed the leadership needed. Jackie Vesco, a junior, played very consistently at the end of the year. Sophomores, Lisa Boron, Arika Bleininger, Kelly Radtke, Rhonda Price, and Michelle Gray made a big jump from reserves to varsity in an amazingly short period of time. These girls next year have the job of raising this year's record even higher.

The reserve squad, coached by Dave Miller, at one point during the year, had a record of 1 win and 7 losses. They finished the year with 11 wins and 9 losses, which means that they won 10 of their last 12 games. A tremendous improvement, to say the least.

This is just the beginning for girls volleyball. Returning next year will be six varsity girls, four of which started this season, plus the girls from the reserve team. With the good coaching, the never-say-die attitude, and the winning abilities, the future for girls volleyball looks very bright.

Sectional Champs

he girls' tennis team finished the 1984 season with a fine mark of 12-6. Two of the twelve wins were 4-1 decisions over Dover.

The Cardinal Conference was a bit disappointing as the Quakers finished in third place. Highlights of the conference were Kari Klopfer finishing runner-up in number three singles and Gretchen Uschold and Sara Hartley finishing runner-up in number one doubles.

The Eastern District Sectional was won by the Quakers who narrowly squeaked by Zanesville. Kari Klopfer and Gretchen Uschold teamed up to win the doubles championship in a three set match.

Michelle Page earned her 4th year letter this past season and Val Schrader and Kari Klopfer both won 3rd year awards.

he 1984 golf season was one of the most successful years for the Quakers ever. Under the guidance of Coach Jim Kaserman and Assistant Coach Gary Miller, the young Quakers compiled a 27-0-1 record, and won the Cardinal Conference, the District and Sectional Golf Tournaments, and the Interstate Gold League. The Quakers also made a respectable showing in their first State Tournament. Other tournaments the Quakers did well in, included first place in the Burger King Autumn Classic, Tusco Sports Eastern Ohio Invitational, Sportstown Fall Festival of Golf, Sportstown Fall Futura, and the Dover International; second place in the Klar's All County Tournament and 5th place in the Golden Gale South East-Eastern

"AAA".

Individual honors included Zack Deems winning the Medalist Honor; Mark Mills, Tim Dauterman, Greg Dyer, Randy Terrill and Zack Deems being named to the All-Interstate Golf League Team and the Eastern District Coaches Association "AAA" Golf All-Star First Team; and Coach Kaserman being named Eastern District, Cardinal Conference, and I.G.L. League Coach of the Year.

With the loss of only two Seniors (Randy Terrill and Bill Errington) going into next year, the Quakers are convinced that they can top this season by gaining a victory in the State Tournament next fall. Good Luck, Quakers!

Quakers Rebound to Win Last 4 Games

The 1984 grid season brought high hopes. But early season injuries to key players hampered the Quaker cause. The Quakers stumbled off the season to a 2-4 record after six games. A Vince Miccichi to Dan Reinhart pass gave the Quakers a 28-21 win over Asland and the moment they would carry to 3 more wins. We continued our winning ways with a big upset of previously once beaten Claymont 18-15. Coshocton became the third Quaker victim in a row as Phila. won 17-7. Next came arch-rival Dover also having a disappointing season. Coming into the game the teams were very even. This proved true however with neither team scoring for three quarters. The Tornadoes scored first giving them a 6-0 lead as they failed to convert the extra point. This giving the Quakers the momentum they needed. We proceeded to take the Dover kick-off and march down the field. But on first down Miccichi was intercepted at the Tornadoe 1 yard line. Dover could not move though and had to give the ball back. The Quaker offense then took the ball 48 yards down field with a Vince Miccichi to Eric Ricklic of 9 yards tying the game. Junior Tim Labus then proceeded to kick the winning extra point giving the Quakers an exciting 7-6 win, and finish the season a respectable 6-4.

ERIC MC DOWEL

The Quakers opened the '84 season at home with a win. Eric Ricklic's run of 14 yards accounted for the only Phila. score. Erie's score came when Matt Miller was tackled in the end-zone while trying to run back a punt. Final score: Quakers 6—Erie 2.

N.P. 13

CANTON CENTRAL CATHOLIC

The '84 Quakers took their show on the road for game two. A Vince Miccichi run of 3 yards and the extra point kick gave him 7 of the Quakers 13 points. Dan Reinhart accounted for the other 6 when he took a Miccichi pass 48 yards for the T.D. But it wasn't enough. Final score: Quakers 13—Crusaders 25.

N.P. 21

CLEVELAND COLLINWOOD

The Quakers returned to the friendly confines of Quaker Stadium the following week in hopes of gaining some lost pride. Rod Miller replaced Vince Miccichi and did a Yeoman's rushing for 140 yards and 1 T.D. He also was 4 of 8 passing including 2 T.D. strikes to Sen. Dan Reinhart. Junior Tim Labus took over the kicking chores and added a perfect 3 PAT's. It was not good though as talented Sophomore Tony Miccichi was lost for the season to a knee injury. We proved too much: Phila 21—Collinwood 6.

N.P. 0

WOOSTER

We next traveled to Wooster and ran into a steam engine named Sam Wright. Wright, a Senior, displayed some awesome skills while on his way to 145 yards rushing. Phila did have some high spots. Sophomore Ed Veley did an outstanding job replacing Rod Miller at tailback. The offense just couldn't get untracked. New Phila 0—Wooster 20.

N.P. 0

COLUMBUS DESALES

The Desale Stallions rode into Quaker Stadium with revenge on their mind after last year's heartbreaker. Coach Holdsworth, after being shut out the previous week, decided to go to the "T" offense, but it was to no avail as we were shut out for a second straight week. In a battle of defenses, it was Gary Caviness getting tackled in the end zone for a safety that proved to be the only score of the game. New Phila. 0—Columbus DeSales 2.

N.P. 20

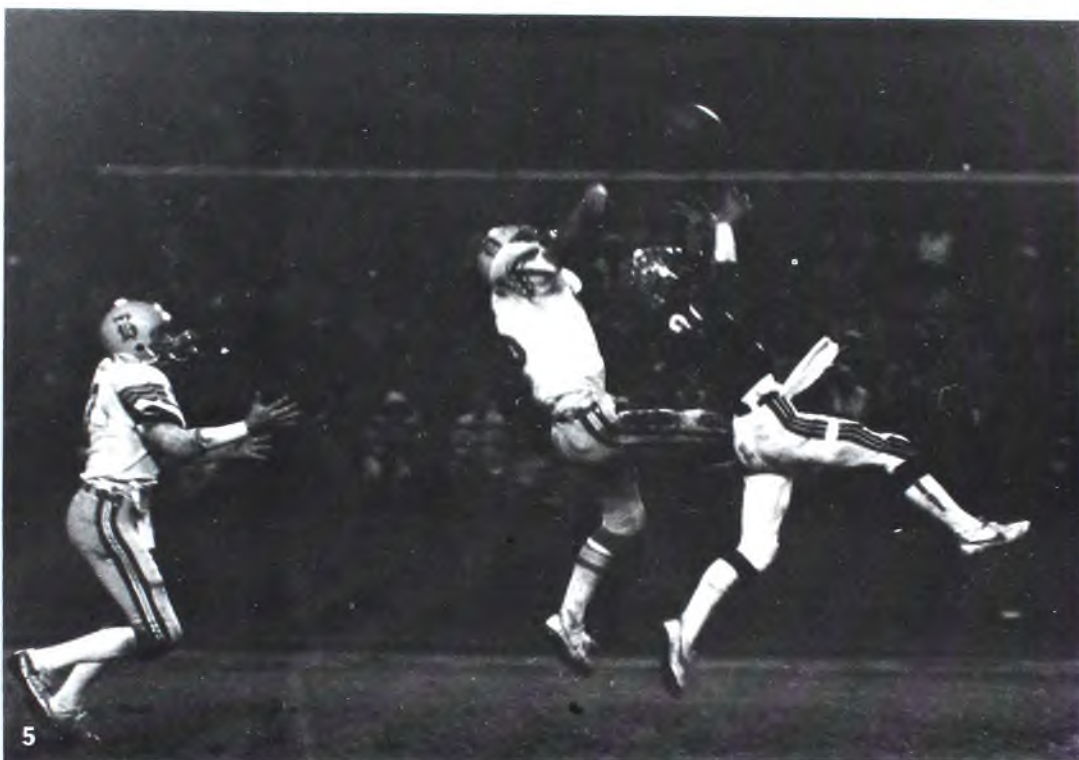

MANSFIELD MADISON

After abandoning the Single-Wing, Coach Holdsworth brought it back and gave it new life. After being shut out for two straight weeks and only scoring 7 points in the first half on an Ed Veley run, the Quaker offense erupted in the second half behind the running and passing of Junior Rod Miller. Miller scored both touchdowns in the Quaker comeback. It wasn't enough, as the 2 pt. try for the win failed. Final score: N.P. 20—Mansfield Madison 21.

AGAIN!

N.P. 28

Phila pride continued to show as Senior Vince Miccichi returned to lead the Quakers on another offensive scoring spree as he threw 3 T.D. passes to Dan Reinhart and ran for another as he had a hand in all the Quaker scores. His final pass came with under a minute to go as he hit Reinhart for the winning score. Junior Tim Labus continued his fine kicking by going 4 for 4 on PAT's. Phila rolls 28-Ashland 21.

ASHLAND 21

N.P. 18

We next traveled to Claymont where we continued our domination of the Mustangs. Vince Miccichi ran for one T.D. and threw 2 T.D. passes to Dan Reinhart. For the third week in a row, after a slow start this season, the offense scored 3 T.D.'s. Quakers victorious. New Phila 28-Claymont 13.

CLAYMONT 13

N.P. 17

Coshocton next came into Quaker Stadium. We started like fire scoring two quick touchdowns and gained a quick 14-0 lead at the 4:22 mark of the first quarter. Vince Miccichi had a hand in both-scores as he slipped in from two yards out and hit Dan Reinhart for a 20 yard scoring strike. The offense sputtered though as all we could get the rest of the game was a 23 yard field goal by Junior Tim Labus with 22 seconds before the half. In our final tune up for Dover, the final score Phila. 17-Coshocton 7.

COSHOCTON 7

N.P. 7

The 80th renewal of the annual Dover-Phila. rivalry will probably be remembered as the most evenly matched of them all. After rough, first halves of the season, both teams entered with identical 5-4 records. After being criticized early in the season but coming back with resounding wins, our offense seemed to be back to normal. After three quarters the offense had three first downs and no drive lasting more than six plays. But, Phila pride shined through. Trailing 6-0 we drove deep into Dover territory, but an interception on the Tornado 1-yard line halted the drive. Dover fell short on third down and had to punt from their own end-zone. With 4:09 left in the game, we began our drive of destiny capping it off with a 9-yard T.D. pass from Vince Miccichi to Eric Ricklic who tied the score at 6-6. But all was not over. Junior Jim Labus came on to add the extra point and give the Quakers a thrilling 7-6 win over Dover.

CROSS COUNTRY

C.C. Champs

The 84-85 Quaker Cross Country team completed a spectacular 11-0 season remaining undefeated for the second year in a row. Highlights of the 84-85 season included an impressive 4th place out of 23 teams at the Malone meet and a new home course record set by Matt Whitis. The team chalked up victories with the help of Dave Glass, Tony Green, and senior runner, Chris Banks. Bard Whitis captured the "most valuable" award and went to state competition this season. Todd Evans, Nick Shalosky, and Scott Horrisberger proved to be indispensable assets to the team and earned positions on the Eastern District and Cardinal Conference all-star teams.

The Quaker Girls Cross Country team was also successful this season. At the beginning of the season they did not have a full team. However, with the addition of Michelle Corder, things got better. With a full team the girls went 2-0 in the remaining season and did their best.

Outstanding members were Amy Fenton, Valerie Wentworth, and Lori Ricklic as "most valuable", "hardest worker," and "most improved" respectively. Although plagued by a hip injury, Diane Maurer did her best this season and was an inspiration to the team.

Midseason Surge Keys Season

Quaker basketball season began with high hopes. With 5 returning lettermen Coach Ed Leggett's squad looked primed and ready for another successful season. But some nonintensive play at both the beginning and the end of the season earned the Quakers a mediocre 12-9 record.

Led by All-Ohioan Vince Miccichi and Senior Joe Snyder the season for the Quakers began slow losing five of their first ten games. The Quakers turned it around winning six in a row before finishing out the season losing four out of the last five. The Quakers then went on the Tourney Trail, only to come home with 64-55 loss to East Liverpool to end out the season.

he Boy's Reserve Team finished an exciting season at 14-6, which was the second best record for a reserve team at NPHS. The excitement didn't end on paper; highlights for the season included two wins over archrival Dover, a 16 point win over Massillon, and an 82 point scoring route of Columbus Franklin Heights, which was the highest point output by an NPHS reserve team. The starters who made this possible were Rod Miller, Greg Ress, Brent Bernard, Thad Rosenberry, and John Dummermuth; also contributing to the effort were John Berry, Brian Hutchison, Mike Cargnel, and Jeff Pennington. Thad Rosenberry and John Berry saw spot duty on the Varsity team. The experience that these players have gained this season will help to make the varsity team a big success in the future.

he Quaker Matmen finished a fine season with a mark of 9-6. Under Coach Rick Seilhamer, the Quakers successfully competed in several tournaments. In the Cardinal Conference, Jeff Farrow, Tony Farrow, and Kurt Myers received firsts; Dave Frantz, Chris Miller, and Rich Weaver received second places; Dan Gordon, Bryan Miller, and Mike Chamberlain received third places; and Steve D'Ostroph and Chuck Ayers received fourth places. The Quakers also did well in the Districts by sending two freshmen, Mike Chamberlain and Chris Miller; in addition to Jeff Farrow and Kurt Myers to the Regionals.

Jeff Farrow was a standout for the wrestling team again this year as he went to State competition. He made it to the state by beating the defending state champion 5-2 in the Regionals. Farrow won his first state match, but lost on a referee's decision in his second match to end his state hopes. He finished the season with a 28-2 record and 20 pins.

The Freshman Boys' Basketball Team showed improvement as the season progressed. At one point in the season, the young Quakers were 2-6, but they ended the season by winning 5 of their last 6 games. The Quakers also participated in the Louisville Tournaments, only to lose a close game to North Canton 27-31. They showed tremendous effort in this game by coming back from a 10 point deficit. Even though they finished at 7-7, the Quakers turned things around with an impressive finish.

The Quakers next traveled to Wooster where they suffered their first loss of the season 47-41. With the loss to Wooster the Quakers started a slight tailspin losing 5 of their last 12 including a tough tournament loss to eventual state runnerup Tri-Valley. oach Pat Veltri dubbed this year's Reserve Basketball squad the "Comeback Kids" as they held their ground and never gave up. Out of seven losses, four were by three points or less. The lady Quakers also had several remarkable comebacks, which included one point wins over Dover and Claymont. With four Freshman starters, the Quakers outscored their opponents 30.8 to 25.8 points per game. # BOYS' TENNIS

"Serves" A Good Season

It was one of the largest tennis teams ever at N.P.H.S. So large, in fact, that there were two varsity teams. Even with "Red" and "White" Varsities, the N.P.H.S. Tennis Team had an incredibly successful season. Highlights for the season included a sweep of Dover, and defeating Ashland and Wooster 3-2. In the match against Wooster, it was tied 2-2 with victories by Jim Amick and the doubles team of Jim Seldenright and Jim Sheafer. The victory was sealed when Troy Furbay defeated his opponent in a 3rd set tie-breaker.

The "Red" or first varsity, which lost only one match all year, was led by the number one seated senior, Troy Furbay, while the second and third seats were occupied by juniors, Jim Amick and Andy Wherley. The doubles category was led by the team of Kevin Patrick and Nick Nickerson, while Jim Sheafer and Jim Seldenright saw most of the action at number two doubles. Greg Dyer, Paul Shrader and Brent Stutz also saw action on the Red Varsity. The "White" Varsity was just as successful as the "Red" Varsity by losing only one match all year. The "White" Varsity saw a wide array of line up changes. The success displayed by this years tennis team can be attributed to depth and hard work.

or the third straight year, the N.P.H.S. Track Team had successful season. Highlights for the season included a 5-1 season in dual meets, first at the Claymont Invitational, first and second in the two Quaker Mini Relays.

The outstanding team effort was reflected by many outstanding individual efforts. Joe Snyder, Senior, broke the school high jump record with a jump of 6'3"½. Also breaking a school record was Junior Todd Dummermuth with a 13'7" vault in the pole vault.

Along with other outstanding accomplishments, the track team also took first in the Cardinal Conference. This has not happened to a Quaker track team since 1976. They also took first in the Districts sending Seniors, Dave Glass, Tony Green, Dan Reinhart, Nick Shalosky, Joe Snyder, Juniors Todd Dummermuth, Harry Morrow, Rich Lomax. Sophomores Scott Horrisberger, Brad Whitis and Freshmen Tim Huff to the Regionals.

GIRLS' TRACK

Quaker Girls' Have Fine Season

High School Girls Track enjoyed a very fine season. With only two Seniors and one Junior. The girls won the six team Eastern District Championship by scoring 10 points and qualifying to the Regional in 10 out of 16 events. Senior Mechelle Roberts and Freshman Amy Fenton qualified to the Regional in four events; Sophomore Arika Bleininger and Junior Kim Applegarth in one; Freshmen Amy Gallagher and Stephanie Henning in two events; Sophomores Stephanie Homman, and Lauri Ricklic in one event.

Three school records were broken this year. Arika Bleininger broke the record in the 330 yard hurdles with a time of 48.6. Amy Gallagher got a record in the 3200 meter run with a time of 12:32.3. The two mile relay team of Lauri Ricklic, Stephanie Henning, Amy Gallagher, and Amy Fenton broke the school record in that event with a time of 10:10.74.

Seven girls made the Cardinal Conference All-Star Team, Arika Bleininger in the long jump, 100 meter hurdles and the 440 relay; Freshman Lori Smith in the discus; Sophomore Bonnie Harding in the shot put; Senior Alicia Berry in the discus; and Mechelle Roberts, Kim Applegarth, Amy Fenton in the 440 relay.

Seniors Mechelle Roberts and Alicia Berry led the way as they earned their fourth year awards. Three year awards went to juniors Kim Applegarth, Cathy Boron, and Balarie Wentworth.

Coach Pat Veltri is very optimistic about next year as he has a fine group of young lettermen returning as well as a very strong 8th grade group entering High School that has not lost in two years of Junior High Track. With only two Seniors this year, the outlook looks very good for the Eastern District Track Champions.

The highlights of the 1985 season were winning the Eastern District Track meet, the Tornado relays, runner-up in the Cardinal Conference, and 5th out of 22 teams in the Prestigious Belaire Invitational.

C.C. Champs

inning their second Cardinal Conference Championship in a row, the 1985 Quakers enjoyed a tremendous season, finishing with an 18-2 record. Led by Cardinal Conference pitcher of the year Steve Gasser. Steve had an 8-1 record, with a .086 ERA. With first team Cardinal Conference Selections Doug Yager and Todd Yanders, the Quakers enjoyed the upset of State ranked Wooster on their way to a great year. We stalled early in the tournaments when we were upset 3-2 by Carrollton. The future days look bright though, with many returning lettermen.

GIRLS' SOFTBALL

Share Cardinal Conference

In only their second year, the Girls' Softball Team achieved an outstanding season. Under the head coach Mr. Ricklic, the team won a share of the Cardinal Conference with Ashland and was district runner-up.

This year's team, which had four seniors—Kim Cobb, Tracy Canfield, Kelly Memmelar and Lisa Watson, achieved a record of 16-5. The season saw dual victories against Dover, Wooster, Mansfield Madison, and Cambridge.

CAMP COUNSELORS

Getting Back To Nature

This years camp for the district sixth graders was held at Camp Neosa, located in Carroll County, from May 20 through May 24. The weather was fairly cooperative in spite of a little amount of rain. The activities that kept them busy were a Hay ride, Skits performed by the kids, and Sing-a-Longs. By the time all of this excitement was over, you could bet they were ready for a good nights rest.

As this year draws to a close, I'd like to look back and think of some of the great moments of the year. Homecoming, Philly/Dover Week, Basketball Games, Senior Trip, Prom, and finally for Seniors, Graduation. It's been an exciting year and one that I'm sure none of us will ever forget. We've all had good times and bad, the memories of this year will never fade. As some of us go out into the world to start a new life, some look forward to their year as the king of the hill: a Senior. There will be new Freshmen and this year's fun, excitement and tears will never be again. Good Luck to everyone next year, and I think I speak for all the Seniors when I say "Thanks for a great four years!" Also thanks to the Administration, faculty and staff for their support and leadership. A special "Thank You" to Mrs. Mary Chandler who cleaned up after our late hours of work. Also, to Mrs. Linda Holdsworth for the use of her homeroom when we had DELPHIAN and carnation sales. Besides the staff you see listed below, we would like to thank Mitchell's Studio and The Times-Reporter for many of the photographs used in the 1985 DELPHIAN. We as a staff appreciate all the help given to us by everyone here at NPHS.
